Fun Began Early in the Day and Finished at Midnight.

SALT PALACE ATTRACTIONS

Bicycle Races and Other Purple Day Events Brought Out a Record. Breaking Attendance.

The noble herd of Utah Elk, with bunches of brothren from the Idaho and Wyoming herds, had a great time of it in this city yesterday, in general, and Purple day, and the Elks saw that the day was properly purpled, and of the regulation, orthodox shade. The festivities were under the direction of the Sait Lake lodge, whose members did the entertaining after the right fashion.

The marning was given up to the gathering of the clans from different parts of the country, and the parade in the early afternoon was detailed in yesterday's "News." On arrival at the Sult Palace the fun began. The Midcontained a Chinese garden, with gen-uine Mongolians to furish refreshing tea and sweetmeats. Then there was an art collection that the New York academy of Design would have been proud to have hung on its walls, and which caused general remark. The wild man from Borneo was very much in evidence imported from beyond the Philippines at vast expense; the whirling dervish whirled until the speciators became dizzy and faint; and the wheel of fortune turned out a prize for every blank. The attendance was record-breaking, and the crowds remained until midnight. The bicycle races were heavily patronized, and the results were as follows:

Two-mile amateur lap race-First heat-Agraz first, Iver Redman second, B. Goodsell third, Ellswood fourth Time-1:052-5. Second heat-C. P. Red man first, Limberg second, Tate third, Starbuck fourth, Time—1:03 4-5. Final— Limberg first, Blum second, C. Redman third, Laps: Goodsell 9, Blum 3, Agraz Time-4:21.

Two-mile professional tandem lap race—Hopper and Sumuelson first, Stevens and Downing second, Turville and Holloway third, Burris and Staver fourth. Laps: Truville and Holloway 8, Hopper and Samuelson 4, Stevens and Downing 2, Burris and Staver 1.

Stevens used a strange wheel, and his pacer had a punctured tire. Every-body was pleased with the xperiences of the afternoon and evening, and there does not seem to have been any unhappy or unfortunate incidents to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER. General Black Slated For Commander. In Chief of the G. A. R.

Gen. John C. Black of Illinois and wife registered at the Knutsford yesterday afternoon, and after lunch met a number of Salt Lake G. A. R. friends who called on him. The general was commissioner of pensions under Cleveland, and although he is a Democrat, he is a great favorite with Republican veterans. He was a division com-mander in the western army. Talks with prominent visiting veterans devel-ops the fact that Gen. Black ought to ops the fact that Gen. Black ought to have a clean walk over for the office of commander-in-chief at the coming election. Gen. C. A. Partridge of Illinois said that no one would be naminated against him. It is evident that Gen. Black will carry the election on the first ballot, if not by acclamation without belighting. out balloting.
Corporal Tanner, the distinguished

New York veteran, and commissioner of pensions under Harrison, left for the west yesterday afternoon. He had the distinction of having both feet clipped off at one fell swoop by a "seesesh" cannon ball at the second battle of Bull Run. He was corporal in the Eighty-seventh New York infantry, and ever since that batile has been a marked figure in American history. When asked today who he thought would be non-hated for the presidency by the Republicans, he replied that a child could answer that question. There was but one answer, "Roosevelt." As to the second place, there is an uncertainty but the corporal thought that Gov. Durbin of Indiana would stand a very good show. Cholera Infautum.

This disease has lost its terrors since Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarr ioea Remedy came into general use The uniform success which attends the use of this remedy in all cases of bowel complaints in children has made it favorite wherever its value has become known. WOUND PROVES FATAL. Man Stabbed at Sunnyside Died This Morning.

(Special to the "News.")

Sunnyside, Utah, Aug. 14 .- Sam Costinzo, the man who was stabled here on the 19th, died this morning.

The altereation above noted took place at Sunnyside on Sunday evening last between Costarzo and another Italian, name unknown, who decided to settle their difficulties in true, purilistic style. During the fight a friend of the latter rew a dirk and pierced Costanzo in the butomen, inflicting a wound which it was feared from the first would prove fatal. The dead man recently returned from a visit to his native land, where he has a wife and family. His assallant is now in fail

THE DEFUNCT WAS DEAD.

Foxhall Keene, who is now as notable for dare-devil automobiling as he was fornerly notable for dare-devil riding to hounds, was a witness, some years ago, n a small case that was tried before a in a small case that was tried before a country magistrate in Maine. This magistrate was most illiterate, and Keene sometimes tells a little story about him.

According to the story, the lawyer upon one side had occasion to refer to a dead man whose evidence, had he lived, would have been important.

"The defunct," the lawyer would say, "would have corroborated me in this, your honor;" or "The defunct, may it please the court, would, were he here:" or "It is notorious that the defunct declared frequently, your honor," and so on.

Whenever these references to the dead Whenever these references to the dead man were made, indignant objections came from the lawyer on the other side. The words, "the defunct," in fact, always caused a squabble, and it was to be observed that in this squabble the magistrate, from the beginning, had been disposed to take part. He frowned and shook his hand in reprobation a great deal, and finally he said impatiently: "What's the use o' talking so much about this chap you call the defunct. Can't you bring him here and let him speak for himself?"
"The defunct's dead, your honor," the lawyer interposed hastily.

The magistrate looked mollified. "Oh, that alters the case," he said.
