MISSION TO ENGLAND.

Report of an Elder's Labors in that Country.

The following account of Elder Ed-ward Davis' mission to Eugland has been furnished us for publication :

PARIS, Bear Lake Co., Idaho, June 21, 1887.

Dear Brother Richards:

June 21, 1887. Dear Brother Richards: According to my promise, I write to give you a brief report of my labors while on a mission to Great Britain. I was set apart under the bands of Apostie J. H. Smitk aud F. M. Lynnan and Elder Seymour B. Young, the lat-ter being mouth, in the Historian's office, Salt Lake City, April 8th, 1885. The blessing pronounced up-on my bead on that occasion was fulfilled to the very letter. I arrived in Liverpeol April 29th, 1885., and was appointed to labor in the London conference, under the direc-tion of Elder C. W. Penrose. I traveled in Bedford and Hertlordsbire districts for over one year. The re-mainder of my time I labored in Lon-don. In October, 1886, I was appointed to preside over the London conference until I was released to return home last May. I found it rather discouraging work when first I undertook to preach in the open air, heing alone. The people would not stop to listen, as they are used to listen by to more attractive music than a single individual could furnish. I was unaided at first, by other Elders or Saints, but after fast-ing and praying to the Lord, He direct-ed me how to work. I was in the town of Hemel, Hem-gtead, Herts. What few Saints were PREACH IN THE CPEN AIR, and assured me I would accomplish no good. It was a town of about 20,000 inhabitants and I did not feel like keeping silent. I employed the town crier to go through all the principal streets ring-ing his bell and announcing to the peo-ple that Elder Davis from Salt Lake City, Utah, would preach from the Fountain, on Main Street, at 7:30 p. m. This he did twice, and at the ap-pointed time I was there, and after some discussion with the Salvation Army party, who had gathered at the same place with the finitention of holding a imeeting, which incident assisted to draw to-gether a large audience. I stood up and addressed the people, commenc-ing with declaring to them that God had sgain spoken from the heavens, and sent His angels, and conferred the power and administer in the boly or-dinances of the Gospel, and that He had established His church, rule and government upon the earth. I contin-ued explaining what the Gospel was, stating the first principles, and de-scribing the rise and progress of the Church, etc. My audience gave cager attention,

THE LIQUOR QUESTION IN AMERICAN FORK.

AMERICAN FORK; June 24th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

June 24th, 1887. Editor Deseret News: In your issue of the 21st inst., I see a letter written by some one from this place, reflecting on my action in the fining of four individuals for selling liquor, which does not state the facts of the case, and does me injustice. The City Council of this place, a few weeks ago, had the illicit sale of liquor and beer brought before them, and ac-cording to report quite a number were engaged in the business. The officers of the city were instructed to flad out the parties and bring them to justice. In the meantime one of the conn-cil was selected to obtain legal advice; as also that of others who had had cxperience in dealing with men who would persist in the illegal practice. The result was that a strict watch was to be kept and whenever a person was found break-ing the law he was to be flued, not with an centorbit-ant, but with a nominal flue as the experience of those in other cities of this county as well as this has proved that where heavy times have been imposed, appeals have been taken, and though they have gained their cases, in mahy instances, it has cost the city more than they made by the fine, and still the traffic went on and increased. Now the facts of the case are these: There were five arrests made. All of

for an Elder to be able to receive a little means from home to supply his necessities; yet the humble servants of God who will share the hospitality i the poor people, are more likely to become acquainted with them, and draw them lato the fold than are those who. with a well-filled purse, supply their own wants at restaurants. I am convinced that there are hun-dreds of faithful, honest bearts in the Löndon Conference who have never yet heard the Gospel and who will yet receive it, when it is brought to them in a way that they can understand it. My ustimony is strengthened by my experience in the missionary field, and now that I have returned to my dear family, I wish to do all I can among the people, for I can see quite as great a necessity for good work here as abroad. I know mot if these few lines will be ought to be done to chance the present state of affairs for it is a shame to the country to see all the youth and vigor of our towns force to go to great distances to find employment. They are thrown into a class of society and circumstances which have a de-grading tendency, and sometimes cause them to return to their homes tainted by evils that injure the society in which they dwell. Let us endeavor to create all the labor we can at home, providing employment for the youth, that they may carve out of the elements an existence, and by so doing beautify and build up the country, making it more desirable to dwell in. There are means sufficient to start enterprises in our midst, and in many instances lying idle and unem-ployed. We think this should be or-ganized and put to work to bless the community. Who will cive us the start? is the

A TERRIBLE FATALITY.

On the 18th inst., three men, Charles Williams, Dau Sheehan and one named Hudnut, were chapping shifts in the Jay Gould mine. They were ascend-ing the shalf and were covered with a tarpaulin to keep the water out of their eyes and off their backs. Sheehan was a hew man and very nervous. He tarpaulin to keep the water out of their eyes and off their backs. Shechan was a new man and very pervons. He was standing at one side af the bucket, and, it is supposed, became excited and lurched to one side. The other two in trying to right the bucket, lurched it too far the other way, and the bucket left the skids. It was carded forty feet while off the skids, when it struck the 300,-foot station and Williams and Sheehan were raked off, while fludnat clung to the bucket and reached the suface. Williams and Sheehan fell 150 feet to the bottom of the shaft. The former was picked up dead and Sheehan lived until evening, his injuries being most-ly internal. The Butte Miner of the 19th adds that au inquest was held and a verdict returned exonerating the mine owners and accounting for the fatality by unavoidable causes. The bodies were taken into Helena and buried from the Catholic Church.
