home Denison, Ia., entered the office of Superintendent of Police Carr today and said she wanted to give hersel up, declaring that she had killed a man near Salt Lake, Utah, on July 11 last. She said she had parted from her husband a few months after their marriage and went on the road with a traveling medicine vendor as his bookkeeper.

"When in a lonely place near Solt Lake City, July, 11," she said, "he attempted to assault me and I shot him with a revolver I had been carrying. I left him in the wagon and went to Salt Lake City to give myself up, but my nerve failed me, and I took a train for Denison, 1 told my brother and when he went to tell the authorities I fled to Chicago. There I secured a position in a Spring Lake (Mich.) hotel, but could not rest will it on my mind, so I came to Grand Rapids to give myself up.'

Mrs. Hodge refused to tell the name of the man she killed. Chief Carr is investigating and the woman is in jali. 's story, states that there is a warrant for her arrest for murder, and asks that she be held for the Salt Lake City authorities. The above welcome news was receiv. ed in this city yesterday afternoon by Capt. Burbidge of the police depart-ment. He was notified by Chief of Police Carr of Grand Rapids that the woman had surrendered( and he immediately wired the chief there to hold her until the arrival of Sheriff Emery who is now on his way to that place. Sheriff Emery left Saturday night for Denison Jowa, to trace the missing woman from that point. He arrived in Omaba tails morning and there received a message from Capt. Burbidge announcing the surrender of the woman. He wired back acknowledgment of the receipt of wired the message and then started for Grand Rapids.

Movement to Consolidate the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and the Utah Fuel Company, which Embraces the Pleasant Valley Coal and Other Companies.

That George Gould's mighty fight during the past year for the control of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company is of more than ordinary import to the people of this state and of the whole west is made evident by a movement well under way to force the consolidation of great Utah properties with it. For instance, it is stated on strong authority, that in the very near future, the Utah Fuel company, organized recently, and embracing the Pleasant Valley Coal and other similar companies, recogpized as appertaining to the Rio Grande, will be merged into and become a part of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company. Detailed information is lacking in this city, but the statement is made on what are in all probability the facts in the case,

It is reported also that the consolidation will be made largely on he recommendation to Mr. Gould of Mr. McClement, who was elected president of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company to succeed J. C. Osgood. It is a matter of railroad and business knowledge that Mr. McClement represents Mr. Gould and that it was the former who inspected the Rio Grande system and advised its purchase by Mr. Gould. Just what the results will be-what the effect will be upon Utah in the event of consolidation is a little too early to anticipate, but that it will be of farreaching consequence is certain. It means that there will be no competition between the two great corporations as at present, notwithstanding they are now both largely controlled by the same financial interests.
