Weber Stake Academy Graduates 26-Meeting in Interest of High School-News in Brief.

Ogden, May 27.-Today the Weber Stake academy stands free from all indebtedness which was incurred in the building of the magnificent addition to that institution which is to be dedicated tomorrow night. A neat sum is also left to complete the furnishing of the many rooms of the new building. The ceremony of clearing the school of indebedness occurred last night when President Joseph F. Smith and other church officials from Salt Lake City, members of the presidency of the Weber stake and of the school board of the Weber stake faculty and evidence. the Weber stake, faculty and students of the Weber Stake academy gathered as a surprise party to Elder David O. as a surprise party to Elder David O. McKay, formerly principal of the academy and one of the ardent workers who put the school upon the high standard it now occupies. Cheeks amounting to $5,000 were turned over to Elder McKay, which will complete the payments upon the school.

In response to an invitation to at-tend a students' reception Elder McKay was summoned from Salt Labe yesteray. To say that he was surprised could be expressing it mildly. It was case of dumfoundedness, for as one of those upon whom a great amount of the responisbility of the obligation of the erection of the new building rested, he felt that he had been relieved of a great burden.

The presentation of the checks for the The presentation of the checks for the several amounts was made by Principal W. M. McKendrick, who succeeded Elder McKay as the head of the school. The amounts were $1.050 raised by the students and the faculty, $1.500 raised by the bishops of the various wards of the city, and $2.000 given by the presidency of the Church, the sum of $1.000 will be turned over to Mr. McKay tomorrow morning by the members of the Wool Growers' association. In the assembly hall of the school were arranged the tables at which were seated the visitors and the students. While a banquet such as is seldom spread by the students of any school was being served, the academy band, under the direction of Prof. E. W. Morgan, Morgan Co., May $7.—Benjamin F. Hopkins was killed yesterday in a fall from a girder being placed in a steel structure being erected in the Devil's Slide cement works. At the time of his fall Hopkins was at work at a high point and was standing with one foot on the girder and the other on a small steel rod. The rod snapped and Hopkins fell to the ground, a distance of about 100 feet. FRUIT NOT HURT BY HEAVY RAINS

Secretary Taylor of State Board Of Horticulture Says Present Storms Are Ideal.

NO FROSTS ARE REPORTED.

High Altitudes, Above Growing Belt, Are The Only Ones Where Extreme Temperatures Reported.

This month stands unequalled in the netrological history of Utah. In the neighborhood of five inches of precipitation is its record. Last year the record for the entire month of May was 2.87 and the year before, 3.17. In 1901 4.27 inches fell and in 1876, 4.30 fell. Ordinarily the record is between one and two inches. The storm trough today extends from Kansas to Minnesota with Utah just under the western edge of it. It is now expected fair weather will really come. At least the weather man predicts fair for tonight and tomorrow. It was cold down in Modena last night, the mercury dropping to 10. Killing frost, of course, prevailed in that neighborhood but it is not believed the fruit country 3,000 feet lower than Modena saw any frost. At six o'clock this morning the temperature was 38, cold but not freezing.

Official measurements at the weather bureau station showed the rainfall between six o'clock yesterday morning and the same hour this morning to have been .38 inches although it seemed much greater.

Several of the scows prepared to float the bath house extension at Saltair back parallel with the railroad plat-form went to pieces in last night's torm, delaying operations consider-

Had heavy rains come when the blossoms were out the loss would have been great, but now the fruits are forming and it would take a downpour to shake them from the trees. downpour to shake them from the trees. Just so long as it doesn't freeze there will be no loss." When asked about the southern fruit belt he said he did not believe frost had fallen last night. "Modena is over 5,500 feet high, while the fruit belt is 3,000 feet lower, so what happens at Modena need not happen in the fruit belt necessarily. For instance when rain is falling right here in this city snow will be falling on the hills, showing what altitude will do."

AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

Former Mayor T. N. Taylor is the latest acquisition to the list of Democratic eligibles for the governorship nomina-tion. While friends of former Mayor Roylance are abundant both in Salt Lake and Provo, the Taylor boom is being handled in a vigorous and active manner at the Salt Lake end at least.

June 8 is the day the Democrats of Salt Lake, Tooele and Summit counties will hold primaries for the judicial convention, and probably for the state convention, so far as Salt Lake county is concerned. Chairman Ashby Snow stated yesterday afternoon that the date for primaries had been fixed and that June I the county committee would meet again to fix the proportionment. meet again to fix the proportionment.

tion. "The senate body at Washington endorsed Smoot," the paper says in quoting Mr. Colton, "and if the Republicans turn him down it would be an admission that we think the senate did wrong in its acton. I believe he should and I believe he will be elected again. "Do I think Utah will go Republican this fall? To be sure I do, Taft can carry the state against Bryan or any man the Democrats can pominate. But man the Democrats can nominate. But you must keep in mind that Roosevelt a our first choice and Taft our second. It is my honest opinion that Roosevelt will be nominated on the first ballot.
