BILLS BY THE BASKET.

Twenty New Ones to be Introduced This Afternoon.

This being the last day for the intro-duction of bills in either house, excep-ting by unanimous consent of the house in which they are sought to be intro-duced, the chief clerk of the house had his hands full this afternoon, no less than twenty new bills being introduced. The probabilities are that at this even-ing's seesion several others will be placed on file, thus exceeding by a great placed on file, thus exceeding by a great deal the predicted two hundred mark.

A PECULIAR CELEBRATION.

How Some Salt Lakers Observed Washington's Birthday.

included some highly classical selec-tions from Rheinberger, Faulkes, Wag-ner, Thiele and other standard com-posers, and the heavier numbers seem-ed to awaken the heartlest response. The church cleared $400, after paying all expenses, and so well did the func-tion take that arrangements will be made for a second appearance in Boise of Prof. McCellan, The local papers have some very complimentary things to say about his playing. He was accompanied by Thomas E. Glies, who tuned the organ before the evening concert; and who was not for, gotton in the kindly notices from the local press. There was a peculiar celebration in nonor(?) of the natal day of the father of his Country, held up on the East Bench yesterday afternoon, that is today "the talk of the dxy" in sport-ing circles in general, and particularly among that branch which admires nost the feathered biped in his fightng trim.

It was an entirely "stag affair," none of the fair sex being invited; and it may be doubted in fact, if any of the fair sex feel much offended at not be-ing invited. The usual card board de-corum and starched proprieties ob-served at "Yaller teas," Dutchpink quilting parties, Brindle Coffees and (Un) progressive Euchre tournaments, were thus avoided, the sports were out for a regular negligee time of it and they had it. "It was the finest cocking main in the history of the state." ob-served a prominent citizen today in a reflective and philosophical mood, "and I hope none of the papers will say anything about it, because that would kill it, and I don't want to see the sport die. We did keep it out of the Herald." It was an entirely "stag affair," none local press. TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Brome Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. CADETS NAMED. Gov. Cutler Appoints High School Students to Go to Washington. Gov, Cutler today appointed the following hig school students to represent the Utah schools at the inaugural exording to all accounts 200 men According to all accounts 200 men and boys marched up the East Bench to the mountain terminus of Eleventh South street, and there amid a sage brush wilde and undisturbed by rude and unduly inquisitive policemen, they brought out of numerous bags 100 game cocks, a ring was quickly drawn, the orthodox code of honor "herein made and provided" for such times and occasions, produced and the fun began. The fighting con-tinued all through the afternoon, and as not a few of the venturesome sports brought their frugal repasts with them, the features of a picnic were pleasantly erclses in Washington on March 4: Arthur Moreton, Scott Lynn, Wallace Bredemeyer and Curtis Clawson of the West Side High school of this city; and Fred Basseti, John Clawson and Charles Chaffin of the East Side High school. It is very probable that all of those named will attend the cere-

as not a few of the venturesome sports brought their frugal repasts with them, the features of a picule were pleasantly interwoven with the other and more sombre and sanguliary proceedings. Could several photographs of the gath-ering be printed, a most instructive con-dition of things from an economico-moral standpoint would be presented, and the dignified heads of numerous highly respectable families in this city would learn just how their hopeful pro-geny spent Wednesday afternoon. A constable and a deputy sheriff were noted in "the busy throng," betting in an animated and lively way on this, that or the other bird; and the fact that all this was a violation of the hav did not appear to burden their minds to any alarming extent. Quite a slaughter was reported among the game chickens, considerable money changed hands, and as the sun went down this aggregation of moralists and admirers of the Father of His Country returned to town feeling that their ethical natures had been re-freshed, and the better prepared to tac-kle the stern struggle of life--at the incarest bar. Clerk Griffith of the supreme court has been called upon to locate the inissing son and heir of J. P. Sammon of Scranton, Iowa, and is using all of his reserve Sherlock Holmes ability to that end. A letter was received by Mr. Griffith today asking him to locate John M. Sammon, who, the letter states, has an "office in some town in Utah and is employed by some railroad company," It is to be hoped that the clerk meets with success in his new field of research.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

John Robertson of Murray Succumbs To Hurt Received in Buggy Accident.

On Monday last John Robertson of Murray was thrown from his buggy on State streeet, near Fifteenth South, and met with injuries which terminated fatally on Wednesday morning. The de-ceased formerly liced at Mill creek, and was about to remove again to that place from Murray, where he had resid-sid for some time. At the point in the road mentioned, and while in the act of crossing the street car track, his horse turned suddenly and Mr. Rob-ertson was thrown out and sustained a rupture of the bowels, which two days later caused his death. The unfortunate man was a native of Lanarkshirs, Scotland, and leaves a wife and four children. Joseph Cannon paid a part of it, "Then you didn't care who paid you or who got your bill just so it was a Cannon."

"No, sir." "No, sir." His concluding testimony was that he worked only at intervals, and that oth-er people also worked on the books, and that in making erasures on the old set, he merely crossed a pen through them, and did not rub out any items. IMPRESSIVE TESTIMONY.

IMPRESSIVE TESTIMONY. The dramatic feature of the session came when Joseph S. Wells, brother of Governor Wells, and who was present at the conversation in the "News" building, told of the meeting and of a statement of the governor to John Q. Cannon, walking up from the city and county building, the day after his term of office had expired, in which ho said, "John, the two things in my ad-ministration of which I am most proud, are that I have never been approached with a bribe, and not one cent of the public money has gone astray." He stated that the conversation oc-curred on the 24th day of January, and that he was present at the request of Gov. Wells, who said that he want-ed him to be present at an interview with M. Connect with Mr. Cann.

"Gov. Wells said to Mr. Cannon," "ha witness continued, "that there were orders paid by the Commercial National bank bearing his signature, and he wanted to know if the signaand he wanted to know if the signa-tures were genuine. John Q. Cannon said: "Those are your signatures all right, but you didn't write them." "Was he asked who did write them?" "Yes, but he made no reply."
