URNS REVOLVER ON OTHER WOMAN

Mrs. W. C. Daly of Gross Court Threatens Mrs. Eliza Smith In Jealous Fit.

SAID SHE HAD BEEN DRINKING

Resists Officer Who Finally Seizes Weapon and Places Her Under Arrest.

Disturbing the peace and resisting an officer are the charges lodged against Mrs. W. C. Daly.

They were arrested last night by Special Officer Daniels of 355 Gross court.

The trouble occurred at Third West and First South streets about 5 o'clock.

Daniels was standing near the corner when Mrs. Eliza Smith, 553 West First South street, rushed up to him screaming that her life had been threatened and demanding protection from a woman whom she said had a gun and was going to shoot her.

Officer Daniels accompanied Mrs. Smith and found Mrs. Daly quarreling with her husband. The woman had a revolver which she flourished in a threatening manner. She related the officer when he attempted to disarm her. Daniels finally succeeded in getting hold of the weapon and then he placed Daly and his wife under arrest.

The trouble started when Mrs. Daly went to look for her husband. She imagined that Daly had been in company with another woman and when she saw Mrs. Smith she turned the weapon on her and threatened to shoot. The police say that Daly and his wife had been drinking.

TRIED TO KILL FOREMAN.

Gang of Greek Laborers Cause Small Riot in Suburbs.

Because they were discharged from the employ of the Utah Light & R. Co. company, a gang of about fifteen Greek laborers precipitated a small riot last evening on Eleventh South and Fifth East, and tried to end the career of their foreman, John Kokinakis, by beating him over the head with shovels.

Some of the Greeks carried knives and would have finished Kokinakis had not the alarm been given that the police were coming.

Then the Greeks fled in every direction. Four of the men were arrested last night and will be tried for battery.

Just why the men attacked the foreman is not known. He had informed them that he was going to leave the company, as the company decided to reduce the working force. Then they took their spite out on Kokinakis.

LECTURE ON THE CONGO.

Prof. Starr of Chicago University Appears at First Congregational.

"The Truth About the Congo" was the title of the lecture given last evening in the First Congregational church by Prof. Starr of the Chicago university.

The lecture was the third of a series being presented by the University lecture course and was largely attended.

Prof. Starr decided to visit the Congo country while attending the exposition at St. Louis a few days ago. While at the fair he became much interested in a group of Pigmies there on exhibition.

One year was spent in the interior of the Congo country, where he came in contact with the wildest of the inhabitants.

The description of the geography of the country and its size was very interesting, as was the relation of his experiences with the people and their strange customs.

The Congo Free State, he said, had an area larger than all Europe save Russia, and the Congo river with its tributaries, furnished 7,000 miles of navigable water.

The river is about 10 miles wide at its mouth and several thousand feet deep, and enters the ocean with such force that the stream does not lose its identity in the ocean until it has forced its way 200 miles into the sea.

Of the twenty million people living in the Belgium colony only 2,500 are white. These white men are the traders, soldiers and officials of the Belgium government. Although the white man's influence has done much to civilize the race still the lecturer came in contact many times with cannibals.

The object of the lecture, however, was to show how exaggerated were the charges of the savagery made against the people and how false the accusations of brutal treatment they received at the hands of the white man.

He spoke in glowing terms of the hospitality and honesty of the people.
