

IN SOCIAL REALMS

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller will entertain at a dinner at their home Tuesday evening.

Miss Helen Jennings entertained at a card party on Thursday for her brother, Clifford, who leaves today for Los Angeles, the room being decorated in autumn leaves and autumn leaves and about 20 present.

Mrs. Henry Franklin Hoy has issued invitations for a tea to be given Saturday, Oct. 9, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at her home, 74 Virginia street.

The members of the Chateau club entertained a number of their young friends at the club grounds on Thursday evening, the party including the Misses White, Loveland, Smith, Evans, Clawson and Cummings, and Messrs. Tomlinson, Gilchrist, Richardson, Santschi, Evans and Kimball, chartered by Mrs. Evans. The same party will attend the performance of the "Third Duress" tonight at the theater.

The C. J. club was entertained on Monday night by Miss Leona Richardson, and a delightful time spent with music and games. Country refreshments were served. The club meets next week with Mrs. Crompton.

Mrs. M. W. Lillard entertained her sewing club this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge entertained at a dinner on Wednesday night, the table being decorated in autumn leaves and covers laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. George Keyser was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Joan Morrison, the decorations being entirely in autumn leaves and the place cards done in the same design. Covers were laid for Mrs. L. C. Miller, Mrs. M. W. Lillard, Mrs. Louis S. Taylor, Mrs. C. R. Pearson, Mrs. J. A. McKeckell, Mrs. M. A. Keyser, Miss Marge Miller, Miss Allan Maclean, Miss Edna Dunn, Miss Edna Stewart and Miss Edna Bailey.

Mrs. F. L. Dodge entertained at a tea on Wednesday for her mother, Mrs. J. L. Kiser, and Miss Kiser of Iowa and Miss Isabel Carpenter of Washington, D. C., the rooms being decorated in marionettes, and about 20 guests present.

Mrs. L. S. Mayer and Mrs. C. C. Crismon entertained the Utopia club on Wednesday at their home, the rooms being effectively decorated and prizes going to Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. F. W. Beer and Miss Berry.

Mrs. George Raymond entertained at a card party on Wednesday, the decorations being in autumn leaves and dabbles and the amusement "600." Mrs. Raymond was assisted by her daughter, Miss Doris Raymond. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Tobias, Mrs. Simon Black and Mrs. Eugene Kahn.

Mrs. John C. Cutler was hostess at a theater party on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Beth Chapman was hostess at a tea on Wednesday, the decorations being in autumn leaves, and about 20 guests being present. The hostess was assisted by the Misses Stella Fabian, Dorothy Chapman and Carey Marshall.

Miss Martha Long entertains tonight at a party in honor of Wallace Austin, who leaves next week for the east.

The Misses Bea and Alice Nibley will entertain next Wednesday at a Kensington in honor of Miss Veda Hebe.

Mrs. Carl Williams was hostess at a party on Monday afternoon, given in honor of her guest, Miss Anna Williams of Ann Arbor. Lavender asters and ribbons were used in the decorations, and assisting were the Misses Rehan Spencer and Margaret Clawson.

The Post Bridge club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Guy Tucker, and prizes won by Mrs. J. S. Tipton and Mrs. Alvah Lee.

Mrs. C. D. Helges was hostess at a delightful Kensington on Tuesday, given in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Anness of Nebraska, the parlor being decorated in marionettes and white asters, and the diningroom in golden glow and sunflowers. A guessing game was enjoyed, the prize being won by Miss Edna Bailey.

Mrs. H. Newman entertained at dinner on Tuesday for a number of young girls who have shortly for college. The table was decorated in pink carnations, and games were enjoyed. Later, the prizes going to Miss Edna Olson and Miss Ethel Player.

Miss Emma Reed is guest of honor this afternoon at a slippy party given by Miss Pearl Clark. Next Saturday, Mrs. Harry Kimball and Mrs. Mayne Head entertain for the bride-elect.

The largest social affair of yesterday was the reception tendered the visitors attending the State Federation of Women's clubs, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Keith. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and flowers, the reception hall in the leaves the library in berries of the wild rose mingled with autumn leaves, and the drawing room in yellow chrysanthemums, while American beauty

Mrs. S. J. Bailey. About 20 guests were present.

Mrs. Joseph E. Burbridge entertained at a farewell party Monday last, in honor of her brother Charles J. Parry, who left Wednesday for England. A number of musical selections were rendered after which light refreshments were served. The guest numbered twenty-five and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Freeman Bassett entertained yesterday at cards for Miss Gertrude Campbell the parties being in sunflowers and nasturtiums, and pink and white carnations used in the dining room, the table having a centerpiece of the flowers and streamers of pink and white ribbon extending from the chandelier to the corners. Prizes were won by Miss Campbell and Mrs. Morris Forbes.

The Misses Claudia and Rose Morris entertained a few friends informally at their home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Minette Bani gave an informal tea yesterday for Miss Irene Morrison, one of the month's brides.

Mrs. Will Brown entertained at a

will spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Smith and family will move today to their new home at 919 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris have at the home of the bride, 148 Twenty-ninth street, Rev. J. E. Carver officiating.

Mrs. Lockwood Robbins entertained six tables of young ladies at a five-hundred party Tuesday afternoon.

Rodney Hillman, Jr., of Salt Lake City visited Ogden friends and relatives during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ritchey returned this week from an extended trip through the eastern states. While away they visited Mr. Ritchey's sister at Fort Dodge, Ia. They also took in the beautiful scenery at Niagara Falls and express themselves as well pleased with their travels.

David M. McKee of Los Angeles is an Ogden visitor. He is renewing his acquaintance with his many friends here.

St. Joseph's sewing society met with Mrs. A. A. McBride and Mrs. William Jeffers at 581 Twenty-third street on Thursday.

Then W. C. T. U. met at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday with Mrs. Ray Thompson, 2429 Grant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Decker and family of Idaho Falls were Ogden visitors during the week.

Slate Supt. of Schools A. C. Nelson was an Ogden visitor the early part of the week.

Mrs. J. S. Johnson, mother of Mrs. J. C. Danks, 2551 Grant avenue, arrived from Chicago this week and will make her home with her daughter in this city. Mrs. Johnson was accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. P. J. Kraus, who is on her way to Mexico to join her husband, who is located at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Last night Miss VanDyke was surprised at her home on North 3rd street where a number of her friends gathered and spent a delightful evening.

Miss Veda Hebe will be guest of honor at a card party on Thursday Oct. 21st, to be given by the Misses Viola and Mignon Donahue.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colon have returned from an eastern trip.

Mrs. Joseph E. Burbridge entertained at a farewell party Monday last, in honor of her brother Charles J. Parry, who left Wednesday for England. A number of musical selections were rendered after which light refreshments were served. The guest numbered twenty-five and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Freeman Bassett entertained yesterday at cards for Miss Gertrude Campbell the parties being in sunflowers and nasturtiums, and pink and white carnations used in the dining room, the table having a centerpiece of the flowers and streamers of pink and white ribbon extending from the chandelier to the corners. Prizes were won by Miss Campbell and Mrs. Morris Forbes.

The Misses Claudia and Rose Morris entertained a few friends informally at their home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Minette Bani gave an informal tea yesterday for Miss Irene Morrison, one of the month's brides.

Mrs. Will Brown entertained at a

will spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Smith and family will move today to their new home at 919 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris have at the home of the bride, 148 Twenty-ninth street, Rev. J. E. Carver officiating.

Mrs. Lockwood Robbins entertained six tables of young ladies at a five-hundred party Tuesday afternoon.

Rodney Hillman, Jr., of Salt Lake City visited Ogden friends and relatives during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ritchey returned this week from an extended trip through the eastern states. While away they visited Mr. Ritchey's sister at Fort Dodge, Ia. They also took in the beautiful scenery at Niagara Falls and express themselves as well pleased with their travels.

David M. McKee of Los Angeles is an Ogden visitor. He is renewing his acquaintance with his many friends here.

St. Joseph's sewing society met with Mrs. A. A. McBride and Mrs. William Jeffers at 581 Twenty-third street on Thursday.

Then W. C. T. U. met at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday with Mrs. Ray Thompson, 2429 Grant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Decker and family of Idaho Falls were Ogden visitors during the week.

Slate Supt. of Schools A. C. Nelson was an Ogden visitor the early part of the week.

Mrs. J. S. Johnson, mother of Mrs. J. C. Danks, 2551 Grant avenue, arrived from Chicago this week and will make her home with her daughter in this city. Mrs. Johnson was accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. P. J. Kraus, who is on her way to Mexico to join her husband, who is located at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in Michigan, the northeast, Mr. J. F. Everett of 2219 Washington avenue, has returned home. He reports having had a splendid time.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of 128 Twenty-seventh street and Mrs. S. A. McClure of Washington, D. C., were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

Mrs. R. E. Chambers and daughters, Misses Edith and Irma of Evanston, Wyo., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Bennett, 255 Twenty-ninth street.

H. P. Dechhand, assistant legal adviser in the law department of the national forest service, has returned from a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, O. Mr. Dechhand left the city the 18th of last month a single man, but he was accompanied home by one of the charming young ladies of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Baer, as a life companion. Mr. and Mrs. Dechhand will make their home in Ogden.

Mrs. Alta Crawford Vail of Portland, Or., is visiting for two weeks with her mother and sisters at 154 Washington avenue.

F. T. Mittauer and wife of Baker City, Or., are Ogden visitors for a couple of weeks. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Madison. Mr. Mittauer is well known in Ogden, having spent a number of years here in the railroad commissary. He is now the proprietor of the Geiger hotel in Baker city.

Joseph Clark and wife and Dr. Fred Clark and wife have returned from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. Stanley S. Stevens is an Ogden visitor this week.

Mr. S. E. Jost and Mrs. Flora B. Dillie were quietly married Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. T. Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Ina Berry of Chicago, Ill. is here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. C. M. Child and Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn have come to their home in Boston, Mass., after a trip of several months in the Pacific northwest, and several weeks spent here with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Miss Florence Kimball will leave Monday for Boston, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Greenwald are now at home at No. 4 Grandwood apartments.

Mrs. Hyrum Eckstein and her sister, Miss Helie Brodie, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Le-Grande Young Jr. are spending a week or two in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Griggs of Eureka are spending a few days here.

E. B. Critchlow left Tuesday for a short trip to Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. J. W. Blaggard of Thatcher, Arizona, and Miss Edna Pack of Kansas, Utah, were married in the Salt Lake Temple at noon on Thursday. The groom has recently filled a three year's mission to the south-west, having labored in the city of M. E. Pack of the Deseret News; she has a host of friends and relatives in this city as well as in her old home. They will reside at Thatcher, Arizona.

Among the weddings to take place this month are those of Miss Estelle Margetta and T. R. Burt, Miss Emma Read and Victor P. Felt, Miss Gertrude Kelly and William H. White, Miss Naomi Van Dyke and Fred Laurio King, Miss Vera Beabe and E. Byron, Miss Ione Morrison and Chancey Percy Overfield; and an out-of-town one of interest to Salt Lake will be that of Miss Martha Louise Johnson of this city and Edgar Cline Beach of Newark, N. J., to take place on Oct. 21.

An announcement of the week both of surprise and interest was that of the marriage of Harry B. Windsor and Mrs. Anna Scott, the event having taken place at Glenwood Springs.

On Wednesday night Miss Winnifred Pierson and William T. Smoot were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Simpkin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stephenson in the presence of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the corner of Eleventh East and Eleventh South.

The larger outside titles.

Mrs. C. M. Leedon and Miss Gene Terry were Salt Lake visitors during the week.

After an interesting trip to Chicago, Detroit and other points in