It appears on the record of the Third District Court that Gordon S. at the rear of the speaker's stand by Beckstead was excused from serving painting, gratuitously, a scene repreas a grand juror for "not being of a good moral character." The evidence brought out at the examination showed that particle of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper a lew weeks ago, while at the time he did not firmly believe in all the principles of "Mormouism." The Chief Justice's idea of "good morals" seems to be governed by the emer-gencies of the anti-"Mormon" crusade.
