DURYEAS' "Satin Gloss Starch" and Duryeas' "Improved Corn Starch" is the best in the world. Use it once and you will use no other.

MILWAUKEE, June 15, 1872.—After using Duryeas' Starch in my hotel laundry for ten months, I can recommend it as being the whitest, strongest and most glossy starch I can purchase.
LANSING BONNEL,
Proprietor Newhall House.

TO BISHOPS AND OTHERS.—For the benefit of those who desire a complete and faithful record of their families, when born, blessed, confirmed, etc., in their respective wards, and with a view of securing uniformity of information under suitable headings, a Bishop's Record has been carefully compiled by the authority and sanction of the bishops and the leading men in Israel, and as such, is recommended, hoping the bishops and brethren of wards will avail themselves of a correct record that may be handed down to posterity.
Respectfully yours,
EDWD. HUNTER,

Religious Services.—Meeting tomorrow afternoon in the New Tabernacle, and in the Ward meeting houses in the evening.

Harvest.—In Sanpete harvesting has commenced and the farmers are tremendously busy.

Messages at the Deseret Telegraph office for Mrs. E. Steele and Jas. Norton.

Improvement.—Green shutter blinds are being hung on the south and west windows of the City Hall.

Taken North.—W. Dowdle, the alleged horse thief, started for Idaho this afternoon, in custody of a U. S. deputy marshal.

Musical.—There is a report to the effect that a San Fransisco musical celebrity purposes to visit Salt Lake some time soon and endeavor to regale the citizens here with a series of concerts.

Itinerant.—A string band, composed of three diminutive juveniles, one of whom manipulates a harp, has been visiting and performing in the liquor saloons on the street to-day.

Notice.—The members of the Board of Directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society are requested to meet at the Historian's office this evening, at 7 o'clock.
G. E. WALLACE, Secretary.
Aug. 29, 1874.

The Next Sensation.—The Beecher Scandal appears to be nearly extinguished, or at least is flickering, for the present, and everybody begins to wonder what the next national newspaper sensation will be.

An Ovation.—General H. A. Morrow and the officers of the 13th Infantry were the recipients of an ovation at the Walker House last evening. They expect to leave Camp Douglas to-morrow for their newly appointed quarters.

Was it a Shock?—A few persons say they felt what they imagined to be a slight shock of earthquake last night. If there was anything of that kind, it must have been very slight indeed, as not many persons experienced or knew anything about it.

White Raisin Grape.—This morning Mr. Mark Lindsey placed before us a few bunches of what he says is the California white raisin grape, raised without water, in his gardens. They are luscious, fine flavored, and of fair size. We should think them an excellent grape to raise on our bench lands.

Killed by Lightning.—Mr. W. T. Boyd writes from Fountain Green, August 26—

"On Monday, 24th inst., Bro. Christian C. Turkelson, better known as Christian Kramer, was struck and killed by lightning, while engaged in harvesting, one mile south of town. He was a good man, loved and respected by all who knew him. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends and relatives. He leaves a wife and two children."

Gone East.—This morning Elder William C. Staines, Church emigration agent, accompanied by Feramorz Young, son of President Brigham Young, left for New York, for the purpose of attending to business connected with the remainder of the season's emigration. After spending a short time in New York with Brother Staines, President Young's son Feramorz, who is naval cadet from Utah, will proceed to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Bare-faced Robbery.—On Thursday a couple of men, supposed to be horse thieves, stopped with a band of horses close to a house occupied by Mrs. Brisco, near Faust's race track. They entered the house and while one of them held Mrs. Brisco the other went through the house and stole a quantity of bedding and other articles, after which they made off. The name of one of the parties is said to be Lish, but the name of the other, who is a tall, dark complexioned man, is not known. A warrant has been issued for their arrest by Justice Crismon.

Broke His Ribs.—About two weeks ago Sheriff John Burt, of Box Elder County, was accidentally thrown to the ground, from a wagon, at Brigham City, rendering him for some time insensible. His back was very badly bruised, and his whole system sustained a very severe shock, but it was not considered at the time that any bones were broken. The other day he went upon his farm and attempted to do a little work. In the evening he was taken with a very acute pain in his side, and, in his distress, involuntarily pressed one hand over the place where it appeared to be located when snap went one of his ribs with a report that could be heard all over the house. It was then discovered for the first time, that some of his ribs had been broken. It is probable that the one that was thus sprung by the pressure of the hand had commenced to knit out of position, and that the report was caused by its springing into its legitimate place.

Not Robbed.—Now it turns out that Mr. Frank Hirth, of the First Ward, who imagined he was robbed the other night, was not robbed at all. It was all a mistake. He had mislaid or dropped the pocket book, containing his money and papers, and, after a diligent search, it was found last night, in his own house. This is another among many instances which go to show how careful people should be against arriving at too hasty conclusions in matters of this kind. Mr. Hirth feels to regret exceedingly that he should have suspected and even accused any parties of having robbed him, although in doing so he was laboring under some excitement about his supposed loss. Among other papers the pocket book contained a promissory note for one thousand dollars.

Hay-stack Burned at Nephi.—Silas L. Jackson writes from Nephi, 25th—

"There was a hay-stack burned here on the 23rd, belonging to Charles Price. The stack contained twenty-four loads. It was first discovered by several young ladies, who did all in their power, by pulling down the fence, to prevent the fire from spreading. Miss Georgia Parks sprained her wrist in lifting a pole from the fence. By that time plenty of help came, and prevented the fire from doing any more damage. Luckily the wind was the right way, or it might have done a great deal more damage.

"Harvesting is nearly all done here, but the weather is stormy, which makes it bad under foot.

"The general health of the people is good. We have had a few cases of scarlet fever, but it is all gone now."

Buffet's French Method, published by Wilson, Hinkle & Co., Cincinnati. This is an excellent introductory class book for all who desire to acquire a knowledge of how to read and write the French language. It is in two parts, each part containing twenty-five progressive lessons, in which most of the principal difficulties and many of the idioms of the language are explained in manner and language so simple and clear that persons, young or old, possessing ordinary intelligence and perseverance, may soon enable themselves to read this beautiful language with facility, and become tolerably proficient French scholars.

Part 1 is devoted to pronunciation, and to that portion of grammar which, in ordinary English grammars, is placed under the head of etymology. Part 2 contains a brief exposition of French syntax and of the more difficult idiomatic phrases of the language.

The lessons are interspersed with conversational phrases, anecdotes, extracts for reading, etc., the whole forming a work which we think will induct students into a sound and practical knowledge of French with the expenditure of less time and labor than any book of the kind that has come under our notice.

It can be obtained at Dwyer's book store, East Temple St.

Overruled.—Yesterday after the counsel on each side of the Tooele election case concluded their arguments on the motion for a stay of proceedings on the writ of peremptory mandamus, issued by Judge McKean, against Treasurer Atkin, the Court overruled the motion.

The issuance of the peremptory mandamus and the overrulling of the motion for a stay of the execution of the order pending an appeal to the Supreme Court takes away the discretionary power of the Treasurer, Judge McKean shows that he holds the opinion that he has no objection to the officers of the people being intrusted with discretionary powers, nor to the exercise of that judgment or discretion, providing always that such discretion shall be exercised only in conformity with his notion. Thus Treasurer Atkin is compelled, although vested by the people with discretionary power in the premises, to approve and file a bond that he can not conscientiously approve, being convinced of its insufficency.

During the argument in this case it was clearly shown by Judge Sutherland that the Courts could only issue a peremptory mandate to compel the defendant to move, or in other words to approve or disapprove the bonds according to his judgment, but not to simply approve, or to simply disapprove. If such were not the case, why were not the Courts, instead of the Treasurer, vested with the discretionary power in question? For in this instance the discretion is taken out of the hands of the Treasurer and vested by the Court, leaving the Treasurer minus any power to exercise judgment whatever.

Rowdyism.—"K." writes from Shonesburg, August 19th—

"The spirit of the so-called civilization, that has been so rife in the North for a few years past, has appeared in the South. On the evening of the 17th inst., when the moon was hid in the western horizon, a dark figure in human shape was seen standing in the street, nearly in front of the residence of a citizen of Shonesburg. Some time during the night a horse that was hitched inside of the enclosure, near the house, was turned loose, where all kinds of fruit and garden stuff were growing, calves were turned to the cows, and two boys about fifteen years of age, who were quietly sleeping under a grape bowery, were shorn of their locks in a fearful manner. All appeared quiet until morning disclosed the scene. When the fact was known, censure rested on a young horse-thief, who has plenty of sympathizers.

"A very heavy thunder-storm visited us to-day. Crops that were planted in the United Order look well."

Theatre.—There is a performance at the Theatre to-night. Mr. Geo. D. Chaplin, Miss Jean Clara Walters, and the popular local comedian, Mr. P. Margetts, will appear in a beautiful comedy, new here, entitled, "Won at Last," and a jolly burlesque, also new here, entitled "In-go-ma." In the comedy Mr. Chaplin will appear as "Ferdinand Fitzsmith," Miss Walters as "Constance Warburton," Mr. Margetts as "Jim Stead," and Mr. Thorne as "Gen. Warburton." In the burlesque, Mr. Chaplin enacts "Parthenia," Miss Walters "In-go-ma," Mr. Margetts "Poly-door," Mr. Thorne "Myron." Mrs. B. Douglas, Miss D. Clawson, Napper, and Green, and others of the company will also appear.

A new and highly attractive bill, judiciously cast to an able corps of artists.

Hot.—Think of the mercury bordering on the nineties again. Well, the days get shorter and the nights get longer visibly.

THE ONLY MEDICAL FRIEND,
IN case of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Cholera, is Maguire's Benne Plant, a thirty years' remedy in the Mississippi Valley. The acknowledged specific in 1849 and 1866. Sold by druggists everywhere.
Read the following testimonial from the late Father DeSmet, the great Indian missionary:
ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,
June 9, 1872.
Messrs. J. & C. Maguire:
Long experience in the use of your valuable EXTRACT OF BENNE PLANT justifies me in saying that I believe it to be an excellent remedy for any form of bowel affections for which you recommend it. On every occasion when I have given it, I am happy to inform you that it has been successful in affording relief.
Very truly, your friend,
P. J. DESMET, S. J.
From Rt. Rev. Bishop Ryan:
I fully endorse Father DeSmet's testim
