LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 49 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Wet day.

THEATRE.—The "Lady of Lyons" was well played last evening, Miss Ince's Pauline being marked with much feeling and grace. This evening, for the benefit of this excellent actress, will be presented the powerful tragic drama of "Medea," Miss Ince assuming the role of "Medea," one of her very best and most impressive impersonations.

The performance will conclude with the musical burletta of the "Four Sisters," in which Miss Blanche Clifton and Mr. Frank Hussey have volunteered to appear.

On Saturday, Miss Ince will appear for the last time of her engagement.

PIPE LAYING.—On his recent visit to the east Theodore McKean, Esq., made all necessary arrangements for the forwarding at an early date to this City of the pipes and other material for the water-works. It is expected that pipe laying will be commenced in August.

WATER WORKS.—Quite a large number of citizens are having water works constructed for the benefit of their residences and grounds. Hon. William H. Hooper has had a large cistern built on his place, the capacity of which is 1800 gallons. Connected with it is a system of pipes, the latter being from four inches downwards in diameter. Hydrants are placed around in the lot by which the water is distributed upon the entire grounds, and is conveyed inside the house, and, by this means a fountain is also supplied. The fall, from the cistern, is fifty feet.

Mr. Watson, of the 19th Ward, has also put a cistern of 4000 gallons capacity, upon his grounds, from which the water is conveyed over the lot by pipes for irrigating purposes and a connection is also made with the house.

The cisterns above referred to were made by Watson Brothers. The piping was made by W. J. Silver, hydraulic engineer, under whose immediate supervision the works were constructed.

SPEAKER BLAINE.—It is expected that Hon. James G. Blaine, Speaker of the House of Representatives, will arrive in this City to-night. Mayor Wells has been authorized, by the City Council to tender the distinguished gentleman the hospitality of the City during his stay here. Mayor Wells, Hon. Wm. H. Hooper and a number of other gentlemen left here for Ogden this afternoon for the purpose of escorting Mr. Blaine from that point to this City.

DECORATIONS DAY.—The following has been handed to us with a request to publish it:

The undersigned committee extend a cordial invitation to the citizens of Salt Lake City and vicinity to donate and furnish to said committee on the morning of the 29th inst., at Independence Hall, all flowers and evergreens they can obtain for the purpose of decorating the graves of our fellow soldiers.

While we are aware that the backward season will prevent the culling of such an abundance as has been obtained in former years, yet we earnestly hope that everybody will co-operate with us and bring all they can.

ALTA, May 21.—Snowing hard.
Beaver—Windy and chilly. Sun shining.
Toker—Cloudy but pleasant.
Peoche—Snowed slightly this morning. Very chilly.
Logan—Raining and very cloudy.
Ogden—Been raining but now cleared off.
Nephi—raining very hard.
Salt Lake—Storm working south.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—A Gotlieb, twelve years of age, one of four children adopted and brought to this Territory, from Switzerland, last year by Dr. Park, fell into the aqueduct one block north of the office, last evening, and was drowned. The deplorable circumstance occurred about 6 o'clock. The unfortunate lad was amusing himself with two other boys, one of them being another of the children adopted by Dr. Park, in running across the aqueduct on the planks east of the bridge, upon which there is no boarding to prevent persons from falling between them, when he made a false step and fell into the water. The younger boy states that he reached down and caught him by the leg, but, owing to the strength of the current, he was unable to pull him out, and had he not let go his hold of him he would have been carried away himself. The body was found at a point considerably below where the boy fell in. He was a child of considerable promise, being remarkably bright and intelligent.

The funeral services took place at two o'clock this afternoon, at the residence of Sister Kimball.

ARRESTED.—Robert Mitchell and Robert Mellen were arrested, last night, on suspicion of being the parties who robbed Mr. Snell on Wednesday night. They will have an examination this afternoon.

Jack Dowd, who was also arrested yesterday, on suspicion of having been connected with the same affair, was discharged, the witnesses at the examination being unable to identify him.

MINERS' MEETING.—Here are the minutes of a meeting of miners of West Tintic District, which, although dated May 12th, only reached us this morning:

"A meeting of the miners of West Tintic was held this day, May 12th, of which William M. Pipkin was chosen chairman, and Frank Rabone, secretary.

"The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be, the taking of necessary steps for the election of a recorder, that office being vacant.

"On motion of Mr Satherland, it was ordered that notices be posted in three conspicuous places, that an election would be held, in this district, on the 12th day of June, 1873.

"On motion of Adam Wilcox, the following resolution was adopted:

"That whereas, the mining interests of West Tintic district are at a stand still, by reason of the absence of a recorder, and,

"Whereas, the claims not recorded are in danger of relocation, on account of the absence of said recorder, therefore,

"Be it resolved, That an election for the office above mentioned be held at this place, on the 12th day of June, 1873, and that the present incumbent be notified to deliver the old records on that day, to his successor in office.

"On motion of John Steele, the Secretary was ordered to furnish the DESERET NEWS with a copy of the proceedings, with a request that the same be published.

"WM. M. PIPKIN, Chairman
"FRANK DABORN, Secretary."

PERSONAL.—We had a call yesterday from Mr. J. B. McDonald, representing the firm of Sweet, Dempstey & Co., dealers in Hats, Caps, Furs, Straw Goods, etc., 229 and 232 Madison street, Chicago; also from Mr. Smith, who is here in the interest of Messrs. Degreth, Bassett & Hills, Chicago. Both these firms are highly reliable, and have done a large amount of trade with Utah.

Messrs. McDonald and Smith are at the Townsend House, where they can be seen by those wishing to do business with them.

FLOWERS.—We have received, from E. Parsons, florist, Sacramento, Cal., a couple of very large and beautiful carnations. It is claimed that the plants raised by Mr. Parsons are all grown in the open air, and adapted to this climate. S. Maltese, 88 East Temple street, is agent in this city for the flowers and plants.

UTAH.—"Here is how "Rolt" writes, from San Francisco, to the Albany County, N. Y., Democrat:

Utah is beautiful and those energetic, ambitious "Mormons" have made a garden of it. They are as fine a set of people as I have ever met. Hospitable, intelligent and happy, and believe in Grant as to "Let us have peace," but claim (which is true) a better state of society than the district of Columbia—in fact, I like 'um. It was my pleasure to stop with a "Mormon" who has five wives and 42 children, and it did me good to see them dancing at home while Uncle Winslow played the violin.

CAPACIOUS.—The capacious wooden building erected for the use of the Z. C. M. I. wagon and machinery department, west of the Council House, is nearly if not quite completed, and a large stock of wagons, wagon timber, buggies, &c., is being moved into it.

SPECIAL TO THE "DESERET NEWS," PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

WESTERN.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—A dispatch just received from Yreka, May 20, says that Hasbrouck left Boyle's Camp, May 7th, and has been scouting since. His command consisted of eighth battery B, fourth artillery, troops B and G of the first cavalry, and the Warm Spring Indians, 210 men in all. Jackson had charge of B and G. He harrassed the Indians, and soon found that his men fought well in every instance, and paid little heed to hunger. The Indians were vanquished. Captain Hasbrouck specially praises the gallantry of B troop and a portion of G. In the charge at Dry Lake, the men scaled a ridge of twenty feet high in the face of the Modocs, and drove them away. Captain Jackson led the right, Lt. Moss the left, and Lts. Boutelle and Kyle held the other bold positions. Capt. Hasbrouck has not lost a man since the Dry Lake engagement. Artena Chokus, Long-legs, One Eyed Dixie and two Modocs returned to this ranch last evening and were interviewed. Five women were captured by Capt. Hasbrouck's command, and from them were gleaned interesting accounts of the Modoc operations during the last few months. The captives were Mrs. Wachmetel, Boston Charley's two sisters, mother of Black Jim, and one maiden whose relatives have attained no notable distinction. They report that Shac't Nasty Frank, Shack Nasty Jake, Shack Nasty Bill, Steamboat Frank, Ellen's Man, Hooka Jim, the father of Boston Nick, and several other Modocs have been killed and many wounded. Curly Headed Jack carried a piece of lead in his body for several days, and when last seen he was apparently booked for the happy hunting ground.

The cause of the disaffection of the Modocs after the battle was the interesting fact that Jack had consulted a stolen chronometer, and after sundry gestures and exclamations he promised his followers that they should shed rifle bullets as a duck does water, and escape unharmed. The confidence this statement inspired was rudely dispelled by Hasbrouck's encounter, when several Modocs were killed and others wounded. Indignation reigned supreme in Jack's household, and the Cottonwood branch of the tribe from Fairchild's decided to fight no more. This resolution led to Jack's clandestine departure. The Cottonwoods, numbering 20 warriors and fifty women and children, hurried to the snow mountains, at the southern end of the lava deposit, preparatory to traveling to the Yalnox reservation, and imploring pardon of the great fathers at Washington. The sudden and unexpected advent of Hasbrouck's cavalry and the Warm Spring Indians disturbed these peaceful meditations and caused them to run. During the stampede, Mrs. Hendricks, alias Limpy, threw her babe, six months old, to the ground, in hope of escaping, but she was soon after killed by the Warm Spring warriors. The babe was brought hither and turned over to a local squaw. Artena also learned from the Modoc women that the Cottonwoods earnestly desired any action looking to peace. About this time the gentle Warm Springs outside the interviewing apartment commenced singing one of their national melodies, and drawing bright knives across their neat moccassins, which caused an uneasiness among the squaws and terminated the consultation. Capt. Hasbrouck said he was willing to have the Modocs surrender and he would offer them every facility for so doing. Artena, Chokas, and Dixie, who have hitherto been of great service to the government, caught the idea immediately, and wanted to be employed as emissaries. They were provided with horses and provisions for two days and were sent after the Modocs, and early this morning they start on their mission.

In a dispatch from Fairchild's Artena says the Indians are fifty miles from here; they number fifteen warriors and fifty squaws and children. The Great Spirit had caused their hearts to bleed for the whites, and they all wanted to return to the fold and live at peace among the whites, for their lines prevented them from appearing within reach of the army. They wanted a peace talk with the great white chief meaning Gen. Davis. They wanted him to come out and see them and have a long talk over matters. No Modoc would surrender without a peace talk. Dixie corroborated the statement of Artena. General Davis told Artena and Dixie to go to the Modoc camp to-morrow, and tell the Indians that he should not come out for a peace talk; he did not believe in peace talks away from his men. The Indians must come to him if they wanted talk. He would allow them to surrender, and he gave them until Friday morning to appear at headquarters. After then he should shoot every Modoc he found with a gun. The women told Fairchilds they should not return to the Modoc camp.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA, 20.—The arrest of Price, the correspondent of the New York Herald, and the refusal to allow his counsel and friends to communicate with him, has revived the question of the power of the government to try prisoners according to Spanish law, by which the testimony of the witnesses and prisoners is taken by the judge, without publicity, and the prisoners are compelled to answer written interrogations without knowing the charges against them, or who are their accusers. It is reported that a court-martial is to be convened in this city to try O'Kelly.

OUR FATHER'S HOUSE—THE UNWRITTEN WORD.

BY DANIEL MARCH, D. D.—Author of Night Scenes in the Bible.

THIS Earth is one of the Mansions of OUR FATHER'S HOUSE and all the forms and forces of the physical universe are revelations of God's UNWRITTEN WORD. The author, in this new volume, goes from room to room in the great house that God has built, showing us the riches and splendors stowed in every department, making the whole journey of life a happy walk of children with their Father—going out into open fields, listening to the singing birds, the whispering winds and murmuring forests; looking with ceaseless delight on green landscapes and grazing flocks, on beautiful flowers and springing grass, gazing with awe at the wonders of the mighty deep, walking beneath the shade of ancient mountains and climbing sacred heights. Wondering at the great Earth wheel turning beneath our feet, watching the storm with cloud on cloud in billowy darkness rolled, lightnings answered in thundering voices, and again the beautiful bows hung out on the retiring cloud.
