

ELKS PURPLE DAY TO BE A BIG ONE.

Will be Characterized by Time
Races and Jubilation at Saltair.

MANY NOVELTIES PROMISED.

Whole Occasion to be One of Mirth-
Making and General Jollification
—Antlers Are Coming.

Salt Lake will celebrate Elks' purple day on July 27 as never before. Plans are being matured already to make this purple day the purple day of all purple days.

The first feature of the afternoon will be the great races that will be run by the western racing circuit at the state fair grounds. To show the magnitude of this circuit it need but be stated that there are now 600 horses at Denver racing on this circuit. The very best of these horses will be on the program for this great day.

But in addition to this exceptionally attractive list of races the Elks themselves will put on as the feature two additional races. These races that the Elks put on will be the bright illuminating of the afternoon. One will be a mile race, in which the horses will be driven by prominent Elks, while the other will be a quarter mile race, participated in by the big bunch of the order. This one feature alone will be better than any similar races that have been witnessed in the big amphitheater in Salt Lake.

One of these races will be watched with the greatest interest, for as mirth makers they will do much to drive away all signs of care. If anyone who wishes to see these races doesn't latch until there are no more ribbilities to flick, then something is the matter with his view of life.

But aside from this the regular racing program will be by long odds the best ever given in the intermountain country. The list of horses that will participate will include some of the speediest horses in the country.

After the races the Elks will go in a body to Saltair. They will be taken from the fair grounds direct to the lake by special cars. At Saltair the greatest novelties will be shown. These novelties will be kept "mum" until the night of the gala celebration at the lake.

The whole pavilion will be trimmed in the purple of the Elks. The royal purple if you will. There will be the greatest list of attractions that it is possible to embrace in one night's entertainment at the lake for the distinguished Elks on this "purple night." There will be feasting and fun and frivolity and everything that a good Elks should have. It will be a purple day and a purple night in full truth, and everyone who attends either the races or Saltair will thank his stars that he is an Elk.

HANDSOME PROGRAM.
The local Elks lodge is in receipt of a handsomely compiled pamphlet program of the forty-first grand lodge session and night, which will be held at the P. O. B., at Buffalo, N. Y. The pamphlet contains a full list of committees and sub-committees connected with every phase and feature of the celebration, and the daily order of exercises will be as follows: Sunday, July 6, reception of grand lodge members and automobile riding; Monday, July 10, excursions on Lake Erie; Tuesday, July 11, grand lodge session in Tack theater, with addresses by Governor Higgins of New York, Mayor Knight of Buffalo, Exalted Ruler Tickler of the Buffalo lodge, and Grand Exalted Ruler O'Brien; annual election of grand lodge officers; preliminary hand contest; Wednesday, July 12, annual parade of the order, and business session of the grand lodge; Thursday, July 13, business session and installation of officers, and picnic at Park Lake, followed by excursion trips to places of note in the vicinity of Buffalo; Friday, July 14, excursion to Niagara Falls.

The pamphlet also contains in detail the awarding of prizes for the various features of the parade and band contests, with half notes of decorations, public buildings, scenes of special interest, and a variety of information that will be read with interest by every member of the order.

IDAHO PROJECTS PRONOUNCED GREAT

Congressional Party Delighted
With Minidoka and Twin Falls Schemes.

ARE ENTERTAINED AT BOISE.

The West, a Revelation to Most of Them, to Whom the Trip Will be Of Great Value.

Special Correspondence.

Boise, Ida., June 22.—The Congressional party, which is out in the interest of irrigation and the redemption of arid lands in the Western country under government supervision, arrived in Boise yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the Minidoka and Twin Falls region, where those mighty irrigation projects were inspected and pronounced by the party as being among the greatest of their kind within the United States. Governor Gooding and others joined the party at Minidoka and accompanied it to this city.

A special committee appointed by the chamber of commerce met the visitors at the station and conducted them to the Idaho hotel for breakfast, after which carriages were provided and they were conveyed to special points of interest that go to make up the great irrigation works of this region. They were driven out to the Barber Dam and then to the New York and Hudson canal, which come under the reclamation scheme known as the Boise-Payette project.

PARTY ENTERTAINED.
The party rested during the afternoon and was entertained at the Nottolordium in the evening. Speeches were made by Mayor J. H. Hawley and Governor Gooding and responses by Congressman Brewer of Kansas, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Congressman Cooper of Pennsylvania, Congressman Jones of Washington and Senator Dulles of Idaho. A sumptuous banquet prepared by the Columbian club concluded the day's program.

THE WEST A REVELATION.
Members of the party repeatedly declared their trip through the west to be a continual source of revelations. "Boise," said one, "was thought to be a fertile spot in a great desert waste of country, but to our surprise, we find that the mighty hand of man has made it to blossom as the rose." The unanimous feeling is that the information gained by this trip will be of incalculable value to them in their future work on the question of irrigation. They left the city this morning for a west, intending, of course, to make numerous stops along the road between here and Portland.

The personnel of the party includes Congressman F. W. Mondell of Wyoming, Congressman and Mrs. W. L. Jones of Washington, Congressman and Mrs. W. A. Heaton of Kansas, Congressman and Mrs. A. F. Cooper of Pennsylvania, Senator Fred T. Dubois of Idaho, Congressman and Mrs. Burton L. French of Idaho, J. L. Parker, representing the secretary of the Interior, and wife, P. H. Newell of Washington, D. C., representing the United States department of agriculture, C. J. Blanchard, representing the reclamation service, and others.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A pleasant reception was given last evening to the M. and M. club by Miss Hazel Calder, at her residence, 123 K street, in honor of Miss Eva Hudson, a favorite member of the club, whose marriage is to take place next week. The occasion was called a handkerchief shower, and enough fine handkerchiefs were rained down upon the prospective bride to last a lifetime. It was one of the most enjoyable gatherings ever held by the club, and the general wish was that it might have lasted several evenings longer.

The hostesses at the County club today are Mrs. Jamerson, Mrs. John Woodward, Miss Salisbury and Miss Judge.

Miss Fern Tamin and Mae Walsh of Denver are expected today. They will visit at the home of their cousin, Miss Georgia Hamilton, of 1134 Princeton avenue.

The Reapers' Social club will hold a special meeting at the Exposition office on Monday, June 26. All members are requested to attend, as the business is important.

DONT'S, FOR SPEAKERS AND WRITERS.

(Written for the Saturday News BY EDWARD B. WARMAN, A. M. Author of "Practical Orthodoxy and Critique," "The Voice," "How to Train It," "How to Cure It," etc.)

(Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Author's Note.—It is one thing to record errors, quite another to avoid them. He who waits for the faultless one to cast the first critical stone waits in vain; therefore, as one of the many working for the betterment of the English language, I shall be pleased to receive kindly criticism, if, perchance, I, too, have erred.

Don't say "custom" for "habit."
Example: "That is his custom."
Should be: "That is his habit."
Note.—When speaking of custom we infer national traits; but habit has reference to individuals.

Don't say "cut on the bias."
Example: "I had it cut on the bias."
Should be: "I had it cut bias."
Note.—The words "on the bias" are superfluous. The words "cut" to the contrary notwithstanding, we would not say "cut it on the square" or "cut it on the round."

Don't say "dangerous" for "in danger."
Example: "He is ill, but not dangerous."
Should be: "He is ill, but not in danger," or, "He is ill, but not dangerously so."
Note.—The first expression might be true if said of an insane person.

Don't say "demean" for "demeanor."
Example: "Do not demean yourself."
Should be: "Do not demean yourself," or, "Do not demean yourself."

NEW EQUITABLE HEAD.

This is an excellent picture of Thomas F. Ryan, who has bought out Jas. H. Hyde, vice president of the Morton Trust company, which, it is expected, will assume much the same relations with the Equitable that have been held by the Mercantile Trust company and the Equitable Trust company. Mr. Ryan is also planning to build a new office building in opposition to those of the Interborough company, of which August Belmont is president.

WOMAN TO DASH OVER ICE OF LACRADOR.

Mrs. Leonidas Hubbard, widow of the explorer who lost his life in the north, will take up the work her husband left undone. At Sillsport, on the Labrador coast, Mrs. Hubbard will organize a party including five white men, several Indians and guides, and then start on the trip for the interior of Labrador. Dillon Wallace, who was with Mr. Hubbard when he died, and helped drag his body back over 600 miles of ice, will be one of the party. About 2,400 miles of the journey will be made by dog teams, and on foot. On reaching the interior, Mrs. Hubbard hopes to find a tribe of Indians unknown to the civilized world.

of today after a three weeks' trip to the coast. After spending a week in Portland and at the fair, they visited San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Ocean Park, Pasadena and Los Angeles. They were delighted with the fair, and enjoyed their trip throughout.

Mrs. William McCaskell entertained today at luncheon at the County club in honor of Miss Stella Salisbury.

Mrs. A. B. Gresson and daughter have arrived from Indiana, and are now located in the home recently purchased by Mr. Gresson on Second street.

Miss Christine Fox of Lehi, a popular member of the Lehi tabernacle choir, was married Thursday at the residence of her grandparents, to J. W. Russell, a compositor on the Herald, by Bishop Andrew Field. The young couple will make their home in this city.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained at a delightful luncheon today in honor of Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. J. E. Ong and daughter, Mrs. Van Buren of Grand Junction, have come to Salt Lake to spend the summer as the guests of Dr. Riley.

A quiet but pretty wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Gertrude Gurley and Clarence Dalton, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Gurley.

The rooms were bright with flowers, and the relatives and intimate friends were present to extend best wishes.

Harold Fabian returned today from Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coombs have returned from the Portland fair, and will remain in this city.

The wedding of Miss Annie Wade and Thomas A. Martin took place on Thursday, the ceremony being performed at St. Paul's, with Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating, and the young couple leaving immediately after for Seattle. They will return here to reside.

Torture of a Preacher.
The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. Price 25c. C. S. I. Drug Dept. Price 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

will be seen that the word "don't" is superfluous.
Example: "I don't think he is not coming."
I don't think it is not true.
I don't think they will not let him go.

Don't say "drove" for "driven."
Example: "I have drove seven miles today." should be "I have driven seven miles today."

Don't say "drowned" for "drowned."
