

NEW BUILDINGS BEING PLANNED

Salt Lake's Schools to be Further Enlarged to Accommodate Increase of Students.

MANUAL TRAINING FEATURE.

Eight Structures in Which to Teach Boys and Girls to Use Their Hands Will be Built at Once.

A new modern schoolhouse will be erected in the northeastern part of the city, near the L. D. S. hospital, according to the plans adopted by the board of education at its meeting held last night. The president and clerk of the board were authorized to close up the bargain for the purchase of the site, the consideration being $15,000. The land is known as block 122, Plat C.

The board also authorized the purchase of a tract of land on the west side of the Riverside school at a cost of $4,000, from J. A. and Eliza Williamson. An addition to the Riverside school will be placed on the site. A tract of land 10 rods square on the east side of the Webster school will also be purchased from Wilson and Samuel Simons for $5,000, and an addition to the Webster school will be erected on this land.

The Franklin school will be given a substantial addition to be erected on a tract 74x100 feet adjoining that building to be purchased from William R. and Emma J. Weston for $5,000.

MANUAL TRAINING.

Eight manual training buildings were authorized to be erected by the board, at an approximate cost of $1,750 each. These buildings will be located on the grounds occupied by the Grant, Hamilton, Jackson, Lowell, Quilrh, Washington and Webster schools.

The summer were authorized in the sum of $23,300. The amount to be expended in new buildings is estimated at $91,270.25.

The salary schedule for principals as adopted by the committee of the whole last week was approved.

Teachers were selected as follows:

High School—Mildred Tibbels.

Elementary Schools—Annie Kingsbury, Edna Lane, Ruby Smith, Florence Christensen, Pauline Vining, Margaret Moore, Martha Waters, Carrie Hamilton, Laura Young, Olive Baker, Anna Fouché, Louise A. Shiel, Laura Foster.

Experienced Normal Graduates—Carolyn Koch, Matilda Frazee, Carrie Christensen, Lucile Gilmer, Ethel Harvey, Lucy Quinn, Jessie Worthen, Polly Reynolds, Maud Smith, Corinne Christensen, Zillah Drake, Margaret Harrison, Mary Pickering, Mary Watson, Margaret Johnson, Pauline Vining, Myrtle Brain, Stella Brown, Jennie Gray, Lena Meyers, Florence Smith, Helen Isaub, Edna Wilkinson, Helene Plaster, Ivy Evans, Emma Hoff, Ethel Hayward, Lily Reiser, Ada Bransford.

The board passed the following resolutions of respect in honor of the memorial to Samuel U. Colbath.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe decreed that Samuel U. Colbath shall have passed through the valley and shadow of death;

Whereas, Mr. Colbath was a member of the school board of education from July 1, 1890, to Nov. 1, 1891, and during that time he was chairman of the committee on the school buildings, and secured the location and erection of some of our best school buildings, and

Whereas, Salt Lake City has lost in his death a loyal, useful citizen and his family a wise counselor, friend and companion, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to the surviving members of his family the sympathy of this board.

The board adjourned until June 22.

SPECIFIES AS TO DOGS.

Thomas Simpson Amends His Bill as to Beagles and Greyhounds.

Thomas Simpson has filed an amended complaint against Fred R. Jones, in which he specifies name and nature of the dogs which he alleges Jones wrongfully disposed of while keeping the beagles under a partnership pact between the two men. The arrangement was that Simpson should take care of the dogs and feed them and enter them for prizes, and the profits were to be divided up between the partners. In case of dissolution of the dogs, which consisted of greyhounds and beagles, were to be divided, the greyhounds to go to Simpson and the beagles to be the property of Jones. Simpson claims he furnished feed to the amount of $288, for dogs never less than six and never more than eight, that there was never an equitable division of the profits from prizes, etc., and that Jones sold dogs to the value of $200 and got prize money in the sum of $300 of which Simpson got nothing. The partnership was dissolved in November, 1907, when the dogs were divided as agreed, but Simpson wants a division of the money alleged to have been received by Jones as prize money.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The famous New York Symphony orchestra, headed by the no less famous musician and conductor, Walter Damrosch, makes its first and only appearance in this city tonight at the theater. The program is one of the highest merit, and the visit is one that has long been eagerly anticipated by musicians throughout the entire west. Manager Poyer is in hopes that a record breaking attendance will greet the organization.

The Miller Engagement—A big sale is going on at the theater for the opening of Henry Miller and his company in "The Great Divide," tomorrow night. Mr. Miller appears in Oden this evening, going up in his own automobile, which he personally handles. His machine, a very handsome car, bearing its own New York number, attracted considerable attention about town and at the country club, yesterday. Mr. Miller taking out several friends during the afternoon.

Orpheum—Katherine Grey and her charming company in the interesting play entitled "The Truth," drew a second good audience last night, the interest evoked by the performance being fair to keep the attendance up throughout the week.

Grand—"The House of Mystery" goes for the last time tonight. Tomorrow evening the Burgess company in "The Heart of a Storm." The next attraction at the Grand will be a big moving picture show, entitled "The Autograph," another recent invention in which real men and women act out the scenes shown on the canvas.

Lyric—The crowds continue to go to the Lyric. The new program seems to be giving entire satisfaction. A complete change of bill is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Hurry
A Little.

Special for a few days.

Ladies' Low

Footwear.

Tans, blacks,

Money-back kind.

$5 grades, $2.95.

$3.50 " $2.35.

DAVIS SHOE CO.

LIEUT. KNIGHT REMOVED

Man in Command at Fire Station No. 4 Is Discharged from the Service.

Lieut. Walter Knight of fire station No. 4 has been removed from the department "for the good of the service," by Chief Vail. The order, according to reports, removing Knight was issued yesterday, and next Monday night the chief of the department will send a communication to that effect to the city council.

The cause of Knight's removal dates back to about a week ago, when two firemen, Handley and Smith, engaged in a fight at the station while on duty. On this occasion Fireman Shoemaker was injured by a fall and for several hours was unconscious and was expected to die. Smith received a severe cut in the hip and was unable to attend to his duties. He was suspended by Chief Vail for striking Handley. The removal of Knight is brought about because he did not prevent the trouble but it is alleged, permitted the men to fight, contrary to the rules and regulations of the department. The captain of the station was away when the trouble started, and Lieut. Knight was in command.

Any skin itching is a temper-temper. The more you scratch the worse it itches. Doan's Ointment cures piles, eczema—any skin itching. At all drug stores.

DESERET NEWS DAY.

58th Anniversary of the Paper to be Celebrated at Lagoon Tuesday Next.

The Deseret News was founded on June 15, 1850. Its fifty-eighth birthday will occur on Monday next, and in accordance with an annual custom of years' standing, the establishment will take a half holiday to celebrate.

Monday, however, is publication day of the Semi-Weekly News, and the event has been deferred until Tuesday, the 16th.

visit the Lagoon; last year's celebration took place at Wadsworth. The committee invited all old friends and ex-employees to meet them at the Lagoon on Tuesday next.

Buckle is chairman of the day and a number of sub-committees have been appointed on program, sports, finance, refreshments and other features.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe decreed that Samuel U. Colbath shall have passed through the valley and shadow of death;

Whereas, Mr. Colbath was a member of the school board of education from July 1, 1890, to Nov. 1, 1891, and during that time he was chairman of the committee on the school buildings, and secured the location and erection of some of our best school buildings, and

Whereas, Salt Lake City has lost in his death a loyal, useful citizen and his family a wise counselor, friend and companion, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to the surviving members of his family the sympathy of this board.

The board adjourned until June 22.

SPECIFIES AS TO DOGS.

Thomas Simpson Amends His Bill as to Beagles and Greyhounds.

Thomas Simpson has filed an amended complaint against Fred R. Jones, in which he specifies name and nature of the dogs which he alleges Jones wrongfully disposed of while keeping the beagles under a partnership pact between the two men. The arrangement was that Simpson should take care of the dogs and feed them and enter them for prizes, and the profits were to be divided up between the partners. In case of dissolution of the dogs, which consisted of greyhounds and beagles, were to be divided, the greyhounds to go to Simpson and the beagles to be the property of Jones. Simpson claims he furnished feed to the amount of $288, for dogs never less than six and never more than eight, that there was never an equitable division of the profits from prizes, etc., and that Jones sold dogs to the value of $200 and got prize money in the sum of $300 of which Simpson got nothing. The partnership was dissolved in November, 1907, when the dogs were divided as agreed, but Simpson wants a division of the money alleged to have been received by Jones as prize money.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The famous New York Symphony orchestra, headed by the no less famous musician and conductor, Walter Damrosch, makes its first and only appearance in this city tonight at the theater. The program is one of the highest merit, and the visit is one that has long been eagerly anticipated by musicians throughout the entire west. Manager Poyer is in hopes that a record breaking attendance will greet the organization.

The Miller Engagement—A big sale is going on at the theater for the opening of Henry Miller and his company in "The Great Divide," tomorrow night. Mr. Miller appears in Oden this evening, going up in his own automobile, which he personally handles. His machine, a very handsome car, bearing its own New York number, attracted considerable attention about town and at the country club, yesterday. Mr. Miller taking out several friends during the afternoon.

Orpheum—Katherine Grey and her charming company in the interesting play entitled "The Truth," drew a second good audience last night, the interest evoked by the performance being fair to keep the attendance up throughout the week.

Grand—"The House of Mystery" goes for the last time tonight. Tomorrow evening the Burgess company in "The Heart of a Storm." The next attraction at the Grand will be a big moving picture show, entitled "The Autograph," another recent invention in which real men and women act out the scenes shown on the canvas.

Lyric—The crowds continue to go to the Lyric. The new program seems to be giving entire satisfaction. A complete change of bill is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

SENATOR SMOOT GUEST OF HONOR

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates Entertain Distinguished People at Home.

INTERESTING SPEECHES.

President Joseph F. Smith Tells of Senators He Has Met and Says He Is Not in Politics.

Never was "O My America!" sung with more genuine enthusiasm than last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates, where a number of personal friends of Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot were gathered, at the invitation of the host and hostess, to welcome the senator and his wife home to Utah. During the evening an excellent program, consisting of music by an orchestra, recitations, songs, and ex-tempore addresses was rendered, and refreshments were served. Mr. Thomas Hull acted as master of ceremonies.

INTERESTING PROGRAM.

After prayer by President Francis M. Lyman, Mr. Gates welcomed the guests. President John G. McQuarrie of New York spoke of the splendid services rendered by Utah's representatives in Congress, and especially Senator Smoot. A recitation by Mrs. Belle Salmon Ross followed. Mrs. Reed Smoot gave an intensely interesting picture of social life in Washington, contrasting home life in Utah with official life in the nation's capital. Elder Heber J. Grant led in the singing of "O My America," and all present joined the chorus. Senator Smoot then spoke for a short time. He was heartily applauded as he rose to speak, and was listened to with intense interest throughout.

Senator Smoot said that when he was in Washington he decided to make his home there as comfortable and elegant as he could, in order that no one would be ashamed to enter it, but he also decided to make it a typical Utah home. He believed he had succeeded in this. It was a home in which prayers were daily offered up for the nation, the government, and the people. After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

President Smith depicted very feelingly the scenes of persecution in the Latter-day Saints have passed through, and in which he had seen those near and dear to him fall the victims of the fanaticism of mobs. He spoke of the hatred manifested in the past toward his people, although we have always, peace, and love, and good will. Such experiences had, perhaps, a tendency to make us somewhat bitter, but he said it is our duty to forgive, and to bear all with patience, and be completely kind to his adversaries, and by which he had won many of them.

After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

President Smith depicted very feelingly the scenes of persecution in the Latter-day Saints have passed through, and in which he had seen those near and dear to him fall the victims of the fanaticism of mobs. He spoke of the hatred manifested in the past toward his people, although we have always, peace, and love, and good will. Such experiences had, perhaps, a tendency to make us somewhat bitter, but he said it is our duty to forgive, and to bear all with patience, and be completely kind to his adversaries, and by which he had won many of them.

After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

President Smith depicted very feelingly the scenes of persecution in the Latter-day Saints have passed through, and in which he had seen those near and dear to him fall the victims of the fanaticism of mobs. He spoke of the hatred manifested in the past toward his people, although we have always, peace, and love, and good will. Such experiences had, perhaps, a tendency to make us somewhat bitter, but he said it is our duty to forgive, and to bear all with patience, and be completely kind to his adversaries, and by which he had won many of them.

After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

President Smith depicted very feelingly the scenes of persecution in the Latter-day Saints have passed through, and in which he had seen those near and dear to him fall the victims of the fanaticism of mobs. He spoke of the hatred manifested in the past toward his people, although we have always, peace, and love, and good will. Such experiences had, perhaps, a tendency to make us somewhat bitter, but he said it is our duty to forgive, and to bear all with patience, and be completely kind to his adversaries, and by which he had won many of them.

After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

President Smith depicted very feelingly the scenes of persecution in the Latter-day Saints have passed through, and in which he had seen those near and dear to him fall the victims of the fanaticism of mobs. He spoke of the hatred manifested in the past toward his people, although we have always, peace, and love, and good will. Such experiences had, perhaps, a tendency to make us somewhat bitter, but he said it is our duty to forgive, and to bear all with patience, and be completely kind to his adversaries, and by which he had won many of them.

After another song, led by Seymour B. Young, the program closed with prayer by Elder George Albert Smith.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

GENERAL'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Charles R. Bubb Under Arrest at Seattle Charged With Irregularity.

Seattle, Wash., June 10.—Charged with appropriating funds of the Northern Pacific Railway company, Charles R. Bubb, chief clerk in the company's local freight office, was arrested yesterday and is now a prisoner at police headquarters. He is the son of Brig. Gen. J. W. Bubb, U. S. A., retired, of Galesburg, Ill. A wife and one child live at 604 Eleventh avenue. Bubb, when accused, denied the charge and attempted to bring blame on other members of the clerical force at the freight depot.

Gen. John W. Bubb was at Fort Douglas as colonel and commanding officer of the Twelfth infantry from May 10, 1902, until Feb. 24, 1905. He was appointed brigadier general April 3, 1906, and was retired by operation of law. He enlisted as a private in the army and rose steadily to his high rank after a service of 45 years. While at Fort Douglas he was visited by his son Charles R. Bubb, who became quite well known in a wide circle during his brief stay here.

The speaker also related an incident proving that public sentiment is changing toward Utah. Formerly, he said, anyone who came with a lurid tale about Utah would get it into the newspapers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in his appreciation of the work of Senator Smoot and the other Utah representatives in Congress for the State of Utah, and he said he believed this was the general sentiment of his fellow citizens. He had met and mentioned especially Senators Foraker, Dillingham, and Hoar. President Smith said he was not entering that field, but as a citizen, as an American, he had a right to state his opinion that those who go back on true principles, political or otherwise, in obedience to the behests of cliques formed for selfish purposes, are cowards.

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CEREAL FOOD

is a perfect food, as it contains the most essential elements to supply energy for the performance of the various body functions. Its daily use tends to strengthen and regulate the bowels.

10 cents a package
For sale by all Grocers

papers without question. Anything to cause a sensation about Utah! But this is no longer so. When scandal-mongers come to the respectable newspapers, the editors will make inquiries. They will come to me, or to the other representatives of Utah, and learn the facts before rushing into print.

After the address by Senator Smoot, Miss Maud Haddock gave a recitation with her highly artistic finish, and then President Joseph F. Smith briefly addressed those present.

President Joseph F. Smith, in