LEVAN, Juab Co., July 24, 1868.

The dawn of this welcome day was announced by the firing of a salute by Capt. G. Ellison's company of infantry, who also saluted the national flag, which was unfurled at sunrise.

At ten a.m., the citizens of Levan assembled in the newly erected bowery, and were called to order by the Marshal of the day, Bro. Isaac Pierce. After singing and prayer, an oration was delivered by Father Abraham Palmer, on the history of the church; also one from Elder Jacob Hofheins, on the travels of the Mormon Battalion, (of which he was a member.)

Songs, toasts, singing from the choir and prayer by the chaplain closed the morning exercise.

In the afternoon there was horse racing and a dance for the juveniles. At 8 p.m., the citizens joined in the social dance.

Union and good order prevailed throughout the day, and notwithstanding the citizens have had all their crops destroyed by the locusts, excepting a few potatoes, they are determined to build up the settlement.

Committee of arrangements William Morgan, William Palmer, Isaac Pierce.

PROVIDENCE, July 25, 1868.

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Brother,—Yesterday was a day of rejoicing to the Saints in this settlement. The first rays of the dawn of day were welcomed by the firing of guns, and the raising of flags on the liberty pole. About 7 a.m., the choir with their leader, Thomas Horsely, rode through the principal streets serenading. At 9 a.m., the Sunday and day schools formed a procession and marched through the settlement, superintended by James Bullock and Milton D. Hammond. About half past ten the people assembled in the Bowery. Meeting was opened with singing by the choir and prayer by the Chaplain. E. Stratford, as Orator of the day, delivered an excellent discourse, showing the blessings enjoyed by us to-day as the fruits of the labors of the Pioneers who led the way to these valleys. J. U. Stuckie spoke upon Sunday and day schools, and was followed by Bro. Jabez Woodard and our Bishop, whose speeches were filled with spice and variety. We also had songs, toasts, etc., from several of the brethren.

In the afternoon the people assembled again, when a variety of games were introduced. In fact it was a day of rejoicing in every sense of the word. In the evening we had a party in the school-house, where the young folks principally joined in the dance.

Committee of Arrangements, John F. Maddison, George Marler and James Bullock. Marshal of the day, Milton D. Hammond.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES BULLOCK.

SPRINGVILLE July 27, 1868.

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Sir.—The 24th was very spiritedly celebrated here. We had all and everything that goes to make a good time. The military, Mormon Battalion, pioneers and aged fathers all turned out in Sunday clothes and smiling faces. Mothers in Israel were numerous, respectable and happy. Their banner was an honor to them, and boys and girls in homespun, young men in black, young ladies in white and blue, (as pretty as usual) and last, but not by any means least in numbers, the Sunday School children very prettily and tastefully dressed. All this company marched in procession to the Bishop's residence, and escorted the Chaplain, Orator, Ecclesiastical, civil and military authorities to the bowery. A short address of welcome was delivered by the Marshal, A. G. Sutherland. Music from martial band, songs from the choir, oration from C. D. Evans, speeches short, pointed and spicy from the leaders of the different companies, all went to make the morning pass joyfully. A public dance at 2 p.m., in the bowery gave all the chance of enjoyment. The Female Relief Society took advantage of the people's happy frame of mind, by issuing tickets for two dances in the evening, which were both well attended. From early dawn on the 24th till 2 a.m. on the 25th, all went quietly and peaceably, everybody appearing to find enjoyment in making others realize the importance of the occasional. No jars nor discord, no drinking or fighting, only warm and honest hearts doing honor to the memory of those who pioneered the way to this our country.

Everything moves along well here, crops look first rate, harvesting has begun.

Yours truly,
A. J. SUTHERLAND,

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Brother:—Although our dam has been washed away by the high waters, and we are left high and dry; and for this and other causes it has been considered expedient to leave this location for higher ground, our people determined to enjoy themselves upon the 24th, and throw, at least for that day, all care away. And if one might judge by their looks and actions they were remarkably successful, for probably in our most prosperous days no holiday time was ever spent with greater zest and enjoyment.

The programme of the day was as follows: the stars and stripes unfurled at daybreak; salute of musketry by Capt. Peter Lovell's company; at 8 o'clock the school pupils left their school-house and promenade the city, visiting as many of our citizens as convenient, and entertaining them with songs, &c., for which they were very hospitably entertained by some of the brethren.

At 10 o'clock meeting in the school-house. After prayer and singing, an oration was delivered by Elder Martin Littlewood, the orator of the day, which was followed by a number of volunteer speeches, songs, toasts, &c.

At 2 o'clock the juveniles met and enjoyed themselves in the dance, and in the evening the adults passed a pleasant time in the social dance until a late hour.

Committee of arrangements—H. Roper, G. Lovell and H. Anderson.
Marshal of the day, J. McMahon.

The people of Deseret have really toiled and suffered to build up this place. It is now nine years since the first attempt to settle here; during that time the dam has washed out three times, the last time was on the 15th of this month, just when the people felt that the dam, at least, was safe, whatever else was unsafe. It is now considered wise to make a general move to Oak Creek, some twenty miles east from here, on the benches, which is probably one of the finest locations for a settlement in the mountains.

Yours respectfully,
T. MEMMOTT.

BLOOMINGTON, RICH COUNTY,
July 25, 1868.

Editor of the News:—We celebrated the 24th of July in this valley in the following manner:

At sunrise, a detachment of cavalry, under the command of Lieut. T. Sleight saluted President C. C. Rich, by the discharge of 22 guns, 21 in honor of our 21 years in the mountains, and one for the U. P. R. R.

At 11.30 a.m. President C. C. Rich, accompanied by Col. Jos. C. Rich and staff, reviewed the Bear Lake regiment of the Nauvoo Legion. At two p.m. the brethren and sisters from the different settlements in the valley gathered under a spacious bowery in Paris, where, after singing and prayer, President C. C. Rich delivered a discourse on the circumstances and events connected with the day we celebrated. He contrasted the present circumstances of the Saints with those which surrounded them 21 years ago. He referred briefly to the difficulties they have had to contend with in settling this valley and the providences of God in their behalf.

Addresses were delivered by Elders Jos. C. Rich, James Hart and George Osmond. A dissertation, written for the occasion, by L. B. Hunt, was read by Elder James H. Hart. Songs and recitations were interspersed through the afternoon exercises; and "Hard Times" and "In our Lovely Deseret," were well sung by the Paris Sunday School children. At night the people enjoyed themselves in the dance in their respective settlements and all went off as merry as that famous marriage bell, spoken of by Byron. Committee of arrangements, Col. J. C. Rich, Lieut. Col. J. H. Hart, Majors Jonathan Pugmire, jun. and S. Hale. Marshal of the day, Edwin Austin.

Health of the people good, appetites of the grasshoppers voracious, Indians peaceable.

Yours, etc.,
GEORGE ASMOND, Reporter.

COALVILLE.

At daybreak the citizens were serenaded by the brass and martial bands. At nine o'clock the people assembled at the meeting house, where speeches, an oration and toasts finished the forenoon service.

At two p.m. dancing commenced, and continued until the grey morning dawned.

Bishop Cluff asked the people for a donation to raise means to buy instruments for a brass band, and raised over $100 in a short time. All was peace and joy.

SPECTATOR.

SANTAQUIN, July 27, 1868.

At 8 o'clock a.m., the people met on the Public Square, when the following procession with appropriate flags, banners and mottoes was formed: Martial band, Mormon Battalion, Pioneers, 24 fathers; 24 young men; 24 mothers; 24 young women; then followed the school children. This procession marched to the President's house under the direction of John E. Forsgren, Marshal of the day, and were joined by President Holladay and his Council and associates, and marched to the schoolhouse where they were received by the Committee of Arrangements and seated.

After the usual devotional exercises an oration was delivered by the Orator of the day, David H. Holladay, Esq., on the subject of the advent of the Saints and the declaration of liberty. After songs, speeches, music and other exercises the meeting was dismissed, until 3 o'clock when dancing commenced. The day's sports were concluded by a foot-race between Scotland and America, in which neither party was victorious, it being declared a drawn race.

Committee of Arrangements, W. McBride, Wm. Greenhalgh and Eli Openshaw.

PLAIN CITY, WEBER COUNTY,
July 25, 1868.

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Sir.—The anniversary of the day, of all others auspicious in our history, was very agreeably celebrated by our citizens. Although somewhat oppressed with grasshopper nightmare, smiling morn of the 24th was greeted by them with the customary demonstrations. Simultaneous with firing of musketry and the sound of martial music, the national flag was unfurled and waved proudly in the morning breeze. A spacious bowery tastefully decorated with flowers, &c., and an attractive programme, with the following gentlemen as officers of the day, gave the assurance of a pleasant Jubilee day: Marshal of the Day, Major Wm. Sharp; Orator, John Spiers, Esq.; Chaplain, Elder Thos. Clemens; Committee of Arrangements, Wm. Geddes, Wm. Skeen and H. Petersen.

At 8 a.m. our Sunday School formed procession with appropriate banners and mottoes, in charge of their superintendent and teachers; 9 a.m. firing of salutes in honor of the justly-esteemed leaders of Israel; at 10 a public meeting commenced, in which, after the usual devotional exercises, and a few introductory remarks by Prest. W. W. Raymond, an oration was delivered by John Spiers, Esq., then a number of pithy toasts and excellent songs by Messrs. C. Weatherston, D. and H. Booth, assisted by our choir. Benediction by the chaplain closed the morning's exercises.

The afternoon was variously occupied in horse racing, cricket, and dancing by our juveniles. The evening was spent most agreeably by our citizens in the dance, interspersed with songs, glees, recitations, etc., under the direction of Jonathan Moyes. Unity and good feeling, characteristic of all our social gatherings, prevailing throughout.

Respectfully,
EDWIN DIX, Reporter.

FOREIGN.

Shanghai, July 4.—News from Japan says that a compromise is being expected between the Dominicans of the north and south, which will probably lead to a speedy termination of hostilities between the Mikado and Tycoon.

London.—Parliament was prorogued to-day. The Queen was not present; her speech was read by the Lord Chancellor. It speaks of the foreign relations of Great Britain as most friendly and satisfactory, and says that there is no reason to fear war in Europe. No reference was made to the United States. The Abyssinian expedition has vindicated the honor of the Crown, and the cessation of attempts at rebellion in Ireland renders the further use of exceptional power granted by the two Houses, needless. The Queen thanks the Commons for the supplies voted and congratulates them on the passage of the Irish and Scotch reform bills, the public school bill, the bill for the purchase of the telegraph wires, and others of a less important character. The speech also announces that a dissolution of Parliament will soon take place, in order that the people may reap the advantages of the more extended system of representation recently provided, as she is confident of their fitness for their new duties and that their voice will be for the perpetuation of civil and religious freedom.

London.—The pending political troubles in Spain have resulted in a ministerial crisis. It is understood that the distinguished Liberal statesman, Espartero, has been summoned to form a new cabinet, and has gone to Madrid for that purpose. Discontent continues to prevail in Spain, and threatens to break out into an armed insurrection at any moment. Disaffection is also apparent among the officers of the fleet.

St. Petersburg.—Under the preliminary arrangement for peace, made with Bokhara, the Russian troops are to leave the country at once, the Khan paying the Russian government half a million silver roubles as an indemnity for the expenses of the war.

St. Johns; N. B., 1.—A strong anti-union meeting was held at Yarmouth yesterday, at which resolutions were passed expressing indignation at the refusal of the Imperial Parliament to redress the wrongs of Nova Scotia, and threatening to take high handed measures to secure the deliverance of the country from its present position.

Montreal.—A dispatch from Halifax says, that Mr. Lowe has published a letter rebuking the violent articles published by the anti-Union party in Nova Scotia, and advising the people to give the Canadian members now on the way to Nova Scotia a courteous hearing.
