EXPRESSIONS FROM THE PEOPLE. "THE GREAT BLOT ON THE AMERICAN ESCUTCHEON."

SALT LAKE CITY, November 1, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

This is a favorite expression that is used by unprincipled writers, for want | the deeds done in the bodyof logical argument, against the plural or Abrahamic order of marriage. We are gravely told that to allow the members of the Church of Christ-called Latter-day Saints—to practice the

Let us calmly reflect upon this important question, and not let passion usurp the throne of reason, for if we do the consequence will be most disastrous to us as individuals, and we cannot afford to be unkind to ourselves. Now we think that is the conduct of the American nation towards the Latter-day Saints.

"THE GREAT BLOT UPON THE AMERI-CAN ESCUTCHEON"

Reader, do not be angry, but calmly hear us for our cause; "He that judgeth a matter before he heareth it is not wise." MONOGAMY WAS THE HEATHEN INSTI-TUTION.

Now, what is the matter with the Latter-day Saints to-day? They love the living and true God and keep His commandments. These are the incontrovertable facts of the case, as it stands before the heavens. The Latterday Saints have been gathered, in the providence of the Almighty, from all nations, and from all sects and creeds. They are men and women who have this generation, and sent angels to dared to think for themselves. They commune with man. The Latter-day Saints manifest their faith by their works, because they love God, they keep His commandments. God has commanded all men to have faith and repent; they have done so. He commands all men to be baptized. to be "born of water," to fulfill all righteouness; they have done so, and been rewarded by the gift of the Holy Ghost. They might have believed and theorized until doomsday, but unless they had performed the necessary works they never would have the promise, because and works are inseperable. It is just so with regard to the magnifying of the Priesthood, tithes and offerings, the gathering, patriarchal order of marriage, building temples and the work for the dead. Anything more infamous can hardly be conceived of, but there is no villain like the educated villain, for he can smile and murder while he smiles. It was for the express purpose of entrapping a class of men whose shoes they were unworthy to black. To break up the peace, harmony and happiness of the domestic hearth. To separate loving, virtuous men and women who were living a higher law. To force them to commit adultery or prostitute themselves and to bastardize innocent children that had been born in holy wedlock. To force them to employ legal talent to defend themselves in vexatious lawsuits and make work for the hirelings of government, and so make money, and then have their unfortunate victimsidespoiled in fines and imprisonment, while the authors of the law waxed fat in the spoils and political capital made from the oppression of an innocent God-fearing people, (for no others would put up with it,) who had been rendered unpopular by the base, wicked and cruel misrepresentation of heartless and corrupt men. These are the incontrovertible facts. Time will prove them, and it will also prove that "the great blot upon the American escutcheon" is the heartiess persecution of the Latter-day Saints, who are true to their God, their religion and their URIEL.
