OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - NOV. 14, 1893.

News Agency at the Evenings. For terms and arrangements for subscription or for advertising, call or address the

The same is delivered by carrier or post and is for sale at the depot, on all trains and at all newsstands.

Fourth District Matters.

The suit in which Charles Wehl was plaintiff and the Pleasant Park Water company defendants terminated yesterday after occupying the attention of the court for three days. The jurors rendered a verdict of $1000 in favor of Wehl, who sued for $5000 damages.

John Hopkins, having been convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was sentenced to a term of three months in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $300.

The case of J. H. Holden against the Union Pacific Railway company was continued for the term.

In the case of James Thompson vs the Schnellbar Brewing company, the plaintiff was granted thirty days in which to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial.

The case of Thomas G. Abel against the Colorado and Utah Canning company was heard on the motion to dissolve the attachment that was set against the property. The case was not concluded when court adjourned.

He Sues for a Divorce.

Some two weeks ago G. L. Black of Kuna was arrested by Deputy Marshal Smith on a charge of adultery, and is now been committed with a fine, Capt. Black was arraigned before Commissioner Hemenway, but was released as the evidence was not sufficient to hold him. Black's wife in his case was granted a decree of divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion. Yesterday, however, Miller changed his attorney suit, in which Black is plaintiff, was filed in the Fourth district court, alleging cruelty, intemperance, immorality, and in fact a whole catalogue of evils.

Republican Jollification.

At 7:30 last night the Republican parade turned on Washington avenue, and at the word of command from Sam Cate, marshal of the day, marched to Twenty-first street, countermarched on Washington avenue to Twenty-fifth street, down Twenty-fifth street to depot and back to the Opera house, where an enthusiastic meeting was being held. The speakers on the occasion were John D. Patterson, E. B. Allison, Ben E. Rich, Cleon Cragun, C. S. Varian, Frank J. Cannon and Dr. T. C. Iliff.

Fire at Five Points.

About 11 o'clock last night the fire department was called out by telephone to Five Points where a fire was raging in Christoffersen's drug store. The fire being a very long one the building and stock were almost consumed as the insurance is small reach the sum of action. The Loss will probably reach $5000, which is covered by insurance. There is no information as to how the fire originated.

The Band Boys Celebrate.

The Union Opera house was filled last night with a merry throng, the occasion being a reunion of the members and ex-members of the Ogden City brass band, an organization that flourished for many years. The evening was most pleasantly spent in dancing and feasting. The party was not enclosed until a late hour this morning.

Notes and Personals.

The county clerk issued the following list of marriage licenses yesterday: John H. Roth, aged 24, of Layton, and Miss Martina Anderson, aged 20, of Kaysville; Joseph Nelson, aged 25, of Ogden, and Miss Sophia Mathiasen, aged 21, of West Weber; Joseph H. Lawson, aged 28, of Fair View, and Miss Mary L. Dowd, aged 19, of Hunstville.

Last night Mrs. Owen Riter and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt went to Salt Lake, where they had been summoned by a telegram announcing the death of their mother, Mrs. Benjamin Hodges.

Sheriff Bishop was a visitor to the capital yesterday.

Hon. Charles S. Varian was in the Junction city yesterday on legal business and participated last night in the ratification meeting.

Deputy Marshal Smith went north last night to attend to civil matters.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - NOV. 14, 1893.

In the District Court.

John G. Safsten, the Tintic rustler, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Smith to three months' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The case of the Fish Springs Mining Co. vs Geo. Ottoman et al, bringing into controversy the ownership of valuable mining property in the Fish Springs district, is still in progress. Every point is being contested and every technicality taken advantage of by the keen attorneys on each side. The jury is in charge of bailiffs when not in court.

Bad Canyon Roads.

Mountain travelers complain of the bad condition of the canyon roads. Heavy loads are being brought from the mountains down into the valleys, and in passing through the canyons a great deal of rocks and dirt is tumbled from the hillsides into the road.

Notes and Personals.

The following couples have been licensed to wed: Benjamin H. Brown Jr., and Louisa Jensen of Spanish Fork, James H. Clark and Mary A. Barnett of Springville, Silvester Theobalden and Mathilda Hjalmarson of Spanish Fork.

John Allen Jr., of Ironville, was fined recently, was taken to the county bastile yesterday, committed to jail for thirty days, and sent to the county poor farm.

Charles Rees, of Lehi, was yesterday arrested on the charge of fornication. The complaint was sworn to by Joseph Collings, also of Lehi.

Hair Death

Prevents Gray and Faded Hair. Restores it to its Natural Color and Beauty. Cures all diseases and humors of the scalp, such as dandruff, itching, scaly eruptions, and hair falling. Makes the hair grow upon bald heads (unless the roots are entirely destroyed or the glands atrophied or decayed from old age). Makes the hair soft, glossy, pliable, and easily handled. Nothing can be found to equal it for dressing ladies' hair as an ornamental hair dressing. It is the most elegant hair dressing in existence. Contains no sugar of lead, nitrate of silver, or any poisonous drug. Will not color the scalp, but leaves it white and pure as a child's. Prevents fevers in almost every case when used in time. Nothing can restore hair on faces where the roots are entirely destroyed or the glands atrophied or decayed from old age. Will create a luxuriant growth of whiskers on a smooth face in four weeks' time. Will positively prevent baldness. Is the best hair tonic ever used. Restores the hair in a few days to its original color when faded or gray. Is splendid for coloring gray whiskers or mustache. Is the most elegant hair dressing and tonic ever produced. Is the only hair preparation in existence that will stand analysis. Is endorsed by the highest medical authorities. Is recommended and used in the leading hospitals. Is the only hair preparation that has ever received a medal at any fair or exposition. Is the only hair preparation that has ever been indorsed by the state boards of health. Is the only hair preparation that has ever been admitted to the world's fair. Is the only hair preparation that has ever been indorsed by the boards of education. Is the only hair preparation that has ever been indorsed by the boards of education. Is the only hair preparation that has ever been indorsed by the boards of education