

One of the elaborate affairs of the week was the dinner given on Thursday night at the University club by E. M. Allison in honor of Dr. J. C. Critchlow. The event took place at the University club in the private dining room, the table being decorated in pink and white carnations and ferns. Present besides the guest of honor were E. B. Critchlow, Waldemar Van Cott, Senator George Butherland, E. A. Wedgwood, David E. Burley, Dr. F. S. Buscom, A. M. Howard, R. S. Joyce of Ogden, John S. Critchlow, F. C. Schramm, Benner X. Smith, Tod Goodwin and D. S. Spencer.

22

The High school cadets will give a danchig party at Saltair next Frida. night

A & A

On Thursday Miss Zora Snow gave delightful luncheon in honor of Madama Swenson, her guests numbering 10. The decorations were marguerites and ferns, and the place cards were decorated with tambourines, and other musical instrutambourines, and other musical instru-ments. Present besides the guest of honor were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. W. A. Kirkham, Mrs. Beattle, Miss Carter, Miss Birdie Schmerer, Miss Nalks, Misses Kate and Edna Menistrop and Miss Lenora Morris.

Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Sr., and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Jr., were hostesses this after-neen at a large Kensington, about 60 guests being entertained. The rooms were decorated in pink carnations and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Miss Geneve Horlick was hostess at a pretty tea on Monday afternon, given in honor of Miss Ada West, whose mar-riage takes place in the near future. The rooms were prettilly decorated in different colors, the parlor in white, the library in purple, and the disingroom in pink. Lifacs and carnations were the flowers, while the chandeliers were shaded in green, and pink ribbon streamers were used effectively in the table decorations. The guest of honor was presented with a beautiful lunch cloth, and musical numbers were a feacloth, and musical numbers were a feature.

Mrs. George P. Holman entertained the "500" club at her home this week.

Mrs. Seton Lindsay entertained at cards on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. T. Bishop of New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. H. T. Cleaver entertained a few Triends delightfully at luncheon on Tuesday, covers being laid for 10. Li-bacs were the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace en-tertained at dinner this week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. T. B. Davis, Their guests numbered . . .

Mrs. J. W. Merrill entertained at a tard party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of rMs. A. H. Thompson of Lo-hosteases at a buffet luncheon on Wed-nesday at the home of the former, about 40 guests being present. The rooms were prettily decorated in purple and white blacs and iris, and the af-fair was altogether enjoyable.

Mrs. Hanauer and Miss Fannie Han-auer were hostesses at a delightful bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. T. Snyder and Mrs. P. Mc-Pherson entertained the 500 club of which they are members yesterday, the fternoon being most enjoyable.

Mrs. Clarence Warnock entertained

WM. LOEB, PRESIDENT'S

SECRETARY.

As the official scapegoat of the ad-As the official scapegoal of the 64-ministration the papers have had a lot of fun with the president's scretary, William Loeb. Mr. Loeb is now unde-shably mixed up in the love affairs of Mae Wood and Benator Platt, and the people are wondering if this, too, is a "me too job" in which Loeb must be sarrificed for the old war horse of the empire state. empire state.

the Third Street Card club on Wednesday at her home.

Tonight Mrs. F. S. Richards will give a celebration party in honor of the ninetleth birthday analyersary of her father, Nathan Tanner.

Mrs. Don Coray was the recipient of a delightful supprise on Thursday afternoon when about 40 of her friends gathered unexpectedly at her new home and showcred her with numerous household articles useful and artistic. The affermoon was most enjoyably spent, and refreshments, which were brought by the guests, were a part of the pleasant features.

On Turnlay at the Country club Misses Ruth and Mose Kirkpatrick entertained at uncheen in honor of Miss and Mr. Scalian of Buite, Mont. The table was prettily decorated in whity and purple place, and covers were laid for eleven. . . . Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson entertaine is in the city, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Egbert Roberts.

DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1905.

....

. . .

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Fisher, who have spent the past few weeks in New

FDDING

...

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bints announce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Alberta June, 18 Mr, John C. Daly, The wedding will take place next wedding will take place next

York, are expected home today.

Mrs. P. J. Quealy of Kemmerer, Wyo., is at the Knutsford for a few days. Miss Laura Thier of De Lamar, Nev., is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Parsons.

Mrs. W. B. Throckmorton and her lit-the daughter have returned from a visit to the southern part of the state.

Mrs. Robert B. Harkness left Thurs-day for the east with Mr. and Mrs. William G. Sharp and Mrs. Thomas Davis. . . .

Mrs. M. A. B. Lloyd is back from Los Angeles, where she spent the wintor.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard are back from their wedding trip.

Miss Maud Hapgood is in the city, the guest of Mr, and Mrs. Charles Hoag. She will leave shortly for San Francis-co, where she will spend the summer.

. . . Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte is the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. K. Lewis of this city.

Mrs. Shepard A. Benson is the guest of Mrs. L. L. Downing during her stay in this city.

Miss Bessie Hodson left Tuesday to pass the summer months in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richards are now

Mr. and Mrs. John Holt announce the engagement of their daughter, Vir-ginia, to Dryden R. Coombs, the marat home at 340 east First South street. Mrs. Robert MacDougall has arrived | risgo to take place in June.

month,

ton entertained Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the Virginia, Euchro was the principal pleasure of the after-noon. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. S. W. Badcon Mrs. Hone and Mrs. Armstrong. After cards, delicious re-freshments were served, and music was enjoyed for a short time. There were present forty-four guests. Car-nations with forms were the principal decorations in the parlors. Mrs. James X. Ferguson leaves on Monday for Terminal Island, Cal., to pass the summer months there, Mrs. Moses Kirkpatrick and her three daughters have returned from Butte, and are at the Knutsford. decorations in the parlors.

Mrs. Joseph S. Peery has invitations out for an afternoon at her home Mon-day, when she will entertain in honor day, when she will entertain inda next of Miss Luiu Peery, who weds next month.

Mrs. Frank M. Driggs is giving a five hundred party this afternoon at her home, which is being attended by large number of her lady friends,

Mrs. Elwood Nelson will entertain Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Hon. Thomas Hull was a Salt Lake visitor this week, the guest of George W. Larkin and family. Mrs. Kate Y. Hall announces the engagement of her daughter Henrietta to Mr. Henry E. King, the wedding to take place in the near future.

At noon Wednesday Miss Kathrine M. Greene became the wife of Mr. W. J. Shealy. The ceremony was per-formed at the home of the bride's uncle at Petersburg, Illinois, in the presence of only the relatives of the contract-ing parties and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Shealy will tour through the east for a couple of weeks, returning home about June 1 to Ogden. The bride is a young lady of preposeesing personality and very charming ways. Mr. Shealy is chief clerk in the office of Supt. Scott of the Southern Pacific. The Ladies' Aid society of the Luth-

The Ladies' Aid society of the Luth-eran church entertained Thursday af-ternoon at the home of Mrs. F. O. Lund on Twenty-first street. One of Lund on Twenty-first street. One of the interesting events of the afternoon was a lecture by Rev. O. A. Elinquist. There were present a large number of non-members of the society as well as members.

. . .

Thomas C. Brantley and wife, who have been visiting in California during the past month, returned home Tuesday.

The Elks' club rooms were thrown open Thursday alternoon and evening to the ladies, who spent several hours most pleasantly, listening to the rendi-tion of a pleasing program and in social chai. Dainty refreshments were gerved.

The Union Fraternal league gave an enjoyable card party Thursday evening at their hall, which was participated a by many friends.

E. E. Stewart returned home this week from an extended business trip cast.

The members of the local postoffice clerks' association were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Waiter Richey on Madison avenue. Cards were played, and light refresh-ments served. The guests outside of the association members were Post-master Davis and wife and Mrs. Rich-ard Tavior. ard Taylor.

John Powers, who is studying medicine in California, returned home this week to spend the summer with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Powers.

LEHL.

Monday evening a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw in honor of Miss Rowena Tanner, shaw in honer of Aliss Rowens Tailler, a popular young lady of this place, and Mr. David Hodge of Sugar City, Ida, who were married Tuesday at Salt Lake. A large number of the many

WYNNE ALSO ACCUSED.

PRINCE'S RANSOM IN PEARLS.

MRS JOHN W. MACKAY WEARING $840,000 WORTHOF PEARLS PHOTOGRAPHED AT WICKES-HAVEN WEDDING.

The particular passion of Mrs. John W. Mackay, in the line of gems, is caris, of which she possesses one of the most complete collections in the world. This picture shows Mrs. Mackay arrayed in pearls valued at $840,000. she appeared at a wedding in New York city recently wealing this vast fortunin gems, and which are only a part of the collection she possesses.

many priends in Provo, who join in | time was given to Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry, who gave a talk on her trip abroad. Miss Hazel Taylor gave sevwishing them every success. Miss Eva Hudson of Salt Lake City, was the guest on Saturday and Suneral choice musical selections. The guests of the club were Mrs. Sama Schwab, Mrs S. R. Thurman and Mrs. Clift.

day of Miss Helen Grace. A very successful and pleasant sur-prise party was given last evening, for Miss Susa Talmage, by her school pupils, in the training of the B. Y. university. The rooms were arranged into cosy corners, rugs and rockers, notted plants and spring blossonms. Games, music and dancing were the evening's pleasures. Miss Talmage expects to leave soon for Colubbit col-lege, and the affair was given as a farewell.

farewell. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thueman nounce the engagement of their daughter Margaret to Mr. A. R. Ir-the marriage to take place in June, . . .

Mr. Phil Speckart is spending a few weeks in lilinois, visiting his parents.

Clark will be interested in knowing of her successes, and of some of the of her successes, and of some of the excellent criticisms written of her con-cert work for leading London papers. The following is a portion of a clipping taken from the Dainly Graphic: "A most pronounced success was won last night by Miss Arvilla Clark, a young American singer, who made her first London appearance at the Bechstein Hall. Not often does the conscientious concert goer encounter so fine a voice, and so unmistakably a talent in an ar-and so unmistakably a talent in an ar-ust, unheralded by puffs, preliminary or by advertisement of any kind. Miss Clark's is a voice not easy to describe. You hear her in a scene from Aida and you write her down confidently as a dramatic soprano of the best operatio

A jolly crowd of young people spent

Monday in Slate canyon. With well filled luncheon baskets, about 20 boys and girls, chaperoned by Miss Hazel Taylor and Birdie Cluff, left the city

Taylor and Birdle Chur, left the chy about nine o'clock in the morning, ar-riving in the canyon at 11. Many inter-esting events occurred during the day to A ike the trip a happy one. Hunt-ing, fielding, games and feasting were among many pleasures.

Miss DeLilly Cluff entertained a party of friends at a vaudeville party on Wednesday night.

LOGAN.

The many friends of Miss Arvilla

Miss Clara Colburne gave a delightful entertainment on Wednesday night at Rowland hall, the feature of the even-ing being a recital of poetical selections written by recent American poets. The program was a delightful one, and fol-lowing refreshments were served.

. . .

Mrs. Orson Howard entertained the members of her 500 club this week, a number of outside guests being pres-ent. The rooms were prettily decorated, and prizes in the contest went to Mrs. Frederick Earls and Mrs. W. W. Hall, while guest prizes were swarded Dr. Lucha P. Miles, Mrs. Joseph Tay-tor and Mrs. Mansfield Snow.

. . . The Woman's club will give their annual breakfast on Tuesday, June 6.

The first social affair in the new Presbyterian church took place on Thursday night when the Ladies' Aid bociety gave a dinner.

The charity card party given by the Council of Jewish Women on Tuesday was the usual enjoyable event,

On Monday evening Mrs. Mayne Meeks entertained at cards in honor of Mrs. Charles West. The rooms were decorated in Blacs, and "63" and flinch were the games, prizes being won by Miss Mayer and Mr. Jack Berkhoel, Miss Helen Bamberger entertained the Sewing club yesterday.

A pleasant event of the week was the celebration parties on Thursday given in honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Bev, and Mrs. Wake, the occasion being honored at the home of their son, Mr. George Wake.

Mrs. W. H. and Miss Sarah Alexan-ler with Mrs. Wing B. Allen were at a double double function yesterday in honor of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Bishop of New Hayen. It was a combined bridge and lunchson party and was delightful throughout.

Mrs. Haskell will entertain at cards next Wednesday,

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Putnam entertained delightfully at supper last night in henor of Rubin Goldstein.

Mrs. Viola Pratt Giller arrived in the city on Wednesday of this week, and on the following day left for a short business trip to California. She will re-turn in a few days and spend two or three weeks visiting with her parents, Mr, and Mrs. Milando Pratt.

Miss Bessie Hodgson left this week for California, where she will spend the summer.

Miss Joanna Sprague is in Milwaukee and will remain there till about the middle of July.

Mrs. Shepard A. Benson is the guest of Mrs. L. L. Downing during her stay in the city.

....

Mrs. H. Burmester and daughters will go to Portland to spend the summer. Miss Lucile Yates left this week for i few weeks' stay in California.

THE VERY LATEST.

Mie Wood first came into public notice when she threatened to sue Senator Platt of New York for breach of promise. This was hushed up, and the senator married another woman. Now Miss Wood has brought suit against Robert J Wynne, consul-general to London; William Loeb, secretary to the president, and J. Martin Miller, consul to Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany, alleging that they obtained possession of certain letters and manuscripts from which she was preparing a book to be known as the "Love Letters of a Bess."

in the city from Japan, and is at home with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brownlee at 227 Eleventh East street.

J. A. Reeves left this week for a short visit with his family at Ocean Park, Cal. . . .

Miss Van Sant left via the Salt Lake Route for the coast.

Mrs. Willis and Miss Laura Willis have gone to pass the summer months in California. Mrs. Percy T. Sadier, and children leave on the 14th of this month to pass the summer in California.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Edwards Casady of Seattle are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. 15. E. Casady of this city, . . .

Mrs. James D. Davis of Denver is in the city, the guest of her auni, Mrs. John Lollin,

. . . Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Parsons have gone Mrs. Edward Resenbaum will leave to El Paso, Tex., for a short time. late in the week for Portland, where uation of her daughter, Hollister, and Wednesday afternoons at her pret-ty home on Twenty-fourth street, which ty home on Twenty-fourth street, which were participated in by a large num-ber of her lady friends. The prizes at Saturday's party were won by Mrs. R. T. Harris and Mrs. A. J. Warner. The winners of the prizes at Wednes-day's party were Mrs. Albert Kiesel and Mrs. Van Allen. After cards at both parties, delicious refreshments were served. The home was a pro-fusion of purple and white lillacs, art-istically arranged.

The Virginia hotel was the scene of brilliant social event, at a tea party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George W. Perkins, assisted by several of her lady friends. Some sweet vocal and instrumental music was rendered and a most pleasant afternoon was spent. Tables were spread for forty guests, who partook of a most sumptuous lunch. The parlors and dining room were profusely decorated with lilacs, paims and evergreens.

OGDEN.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George At the hone of Mr, and Are. George W. Jones on Monday afternoon, their daughter, Miss Bessle Jones, was mar-ried to Charles W. Lowry. The cere-mony was performed promptly at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Miss Jones is a bright and accomplished humber of relatives and mends, align Jones is a bright and accomplished young lady, and the groom is a pro-gressive young business man. Mr. and Mrs. Lowry left Ogden the latter part of the week for Omaha, Nebraska, where they will make their home at 1615 Burt street.

Mrs. E. M. Conroy and Mrs. Brough

here.

denne lace and ribbon. were received. The young couple have quality, but stay, she sings you Brahm's "Sapphische Ode" and you are ready to take your affidavit that she is a contraito of the purest water. The truth is that her voice is as exceptional Miss May Thurman left yesterday for American Fork where she will be the guest of Miss Millar.

Mr. Donovan has purchased the resi-dence of Mrs. Clark, and during the past week, become comfortably located, Mr. and Mrs. Donovan will be at home in compass as it is in quality. Her tone coloring and subtler emotional effects, is something altogether out of the cen-mon. On the whole the recital can only be described as a triumph for the gifted young singer." to their many friends at their beautiful new home next week.

The Girl's Art and Literary club met Thursday evening with Misses Dalsy Nelson and Sarah Hurbert, at the home of Miss Doring. After the regular pro-gram, games and refreshments made the remaining hours happy ones.

The Card club met with Mr. and Mrs. The Card club met with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith on Thursday evening. Their pretty home on Fourth North street plainly told, by its appearance, of the arrival of spring. In different parts of the house artistically arranged banks of blossoms were to be seen. The banks of blossoms were to be seen. The game of Five Hundred was played, and during the evening a dellelous lunction was served. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Blersach, Mr. and Mirs. R. R. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bag-ley, Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Sain Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Sam King, Mr. and Mrs. Speckart, Mr. and Mrs. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. Havercamp, Mr. and Mrs. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. Don-ovan, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

The Sixth ward choir gave a charac-ter dress ball in the ward hall on Fri-day evening. A farowell party was given Mr. Heber Miller and Mr. Will Frisby in the Third ward meetinghouse on Monday evening, a program, supper and hand shake, with many sentiments for the success of the departing mission-aries were among the evening's pleas.

. . . Miss, Sadie Broadbont will leave soon ures. for Idaho, where she expects to make her future home.

Mr. A. Ray Irvine, of Salt Lake City, spent Sunday and Monday in Provo the guest of Miss Margaret Thurman. Miss Ada Dusenberry spent Tuesday in Salt Lake City, the guest of Miss

Reah Nibley, Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse returned Sunday from California, where they have been seeking rest and health for the past six months. Many friends welcome Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse to their home again. Prof. Arnold of the A. C. gave a most interesting lecture before the A. C. Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Champ lust Monday afternoon. An invitation was extended to the members of the Beacon Light society to be pres-

cnt. After the lecture considerable time was devoted to business, final arrange's ments being made for the reception to be given at the college next Monday evening and a decision reached to fal-Mr. and Mrs. Fay Holbrook returned from the east on Thursday, where Mr. Holbrook has been at the university studying medicine.

Mrs. R. W. Caruthers is expected home from Sacramento, California next week. She will spend the sum-mer in Provo with her sisters. up Germany as given in the Bay Vise course for next year's work. The Beacon Light society held II last meeting for this year in the E. Y college on Friday evening when the following program was given: Musi-

The Mutual workers of the Third ward entertained on Friday evening at the first ice cream social of the seafollowing program was given: Music. Prof. Harris; paper on art, Mrs.Wright: music, Prof. Robinson: paper, Miss Homer; reading, Miss Hill; vocal music, Miss Jones; music, Miss Oliver. About 40 guests enjoyed an evening of merry pleasures,

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Holbrook joined the excursion party in Salt Lake City last Saturday, and will spend a few weeks in California.

Miss Amanda Olsen was hostess at a very pleasant evening party at her home on Tuesday. The Sorosis club met on Wednesday afternon with Mrs. Rob Irvine. The to attend the farewell party given for Mellin's Food - an infant food without an equal except Mother's Milk. A food that feeds, a food that gives satisfaction, a food that has been used for many years with best results, a food that makes the babies grow strong. Send for a free nample. Heilin's Food is the ONLY Infants' Food, which received the Grand Prise, the highest sward of the Louisiana Pur-chase Exposition, St. Louis, 1994. High-er than a gold medal.

Mrs. A. B. Rector of Hannibal, Mo., MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

OUT SHOE TIES

Ogden, Utah, May 13.--Mrs. J. S. Lewis was hosiess at two very enjoy-abl eachre parties, given on Saturday velop a gengation.

friends of the young couple were present and the evening was most pleas-antly spent playing Flinch and other games. Beautiful flowers decorated the depart.

Monday for an extended visit in the east with relatives and friends.

Postmaster Evans of Samaria, Ida., was shaking hands with friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Steed of Cardston, Canada, is visiting relatives here.

Prof. Eastman of the B. Y. U. was a Lehi visitor Wednesday.

Messrs. James H. Gardner and M. W. Ingalis arrived home Saturday after a two weeks' visit in the cast.

Mrs. Isaac Cooper, Mrs. James South-wick, Mrs. Rufus Norton and Mrs. Elander Marton of Ammon and Iona, Ida., are visiting relatives and friends

A pretty weding reception was given by Mrs. Hardy Wednesday evening, in by Mrs. Hardy Wednesday evening, in honor of the marriage of her daughter Florence, to Mr. Willard Peterson. The spring blossoms were used for decora-tion, the dining room was a picture of spring blossoms were used for decora-artistically arranged with violets and lillies, and together with the china, lin-en, and dainty service, was a perfect success. The bride wors a gown of fine white mushin trimmed with valien-cience lace and ribbon. Many beautiful and useful presents

Robert J. Wynne, now consul-general to London, is one of the defendants in a suit for $35,000 brought by Mac Wood of Omaha, who charges that Wynne, with William Loeb and J. Martin Miller. conspired to, and did obtain from her a lot of love letters written to her by Sen-ator Platt of New York. The suit is to be tried in Omaha and will probably de-velop a separation. Robert J. Wynne, now consul-general

Mr. S. I. Goodwin was a Salt Lake visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Greene will leave

Miss Zina Larkin of Ogden was visit-ing relatives here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Worlton will shortly move to Sugar City, Ida., where Mr. Worlton will have charge of the public schools. A reception will be held Monday night in their honor before they

...

Mrs. Emma Suidson of Ogden is visit-ing with her sister, Mrs. Annie Goates.

PROVO.