ROBERTS IS FEARFUL.

He really felt in the night, to consider the matter on another day.

Robert's fear of the night was not a new thing. He had often been afraid of the night in his childhood.

After the earthquake and explosion, the night was even more terrifying to him.

He had been told that the night was the worst time to be in the house.

He had seen the night in the eyes of the people who had survived the earthquake.

He had seen the night in the eyes of the people who had survived the earthquake.

He had seen the night in the eyes of the people who had survived the earthquake.
