Louisiana—The House Investigating Committee.

NEW ORLEANS, 21.—Before the House committee, ex-Governor Wells testified that in canvassing the electors of the board of supervisors, he had been told by the supervisors that the tally sheets of the commissioners, he gave further testimony to the commission. He did not count the tally sheets, but he was elected by the votes thrown out. He declined to furnish the original papers, which were State property. They canvassed only such votes as were received of the supervisors, and if, as in the case of Grant parish, the commissioners of registration, and not the supervisors, forwarded the votes, they were not counted. The tally sheets of the State had a democratic commissioner as the law required; did not know of any democratic supervisor on the board, excluded three boxes from the tally sheets for good reasons; did not tell Frenet in 1874 that the republicans had the machinery of the government, and I had claim against the government and that my action in the returning board must be governed accordingly. He believed the law required the board to fill vacancies, but the board could not agree this year, even on Dr. Kennedy, who was an irreproachable man and a friend of witness. Kennedy's was the only name presented; he did not vote; nobody was much opposed to Kennedy, but the tally sheet showed a disagreement in the board. The minute book did not show the doing of the secret sessions; the returns came by paid mail and express, the law required that they should come by mail; the greater portion were not marked to show how they were received; he did not believe that the board had any other receipt book.

Chas. Abell, assistant secretary of the returning board, said he was a native of Rhode Island; came here in 1868; was not always present at the sessions of the board; received the returns; in no case were the amended returns delivered to me; the Baton Rouge and Concordia boxes were given me by the clerk of the board; he had no record of the date, no official receipt for it. Witness gave an account of the various returns, none of which seemed to have been very lucrative. He refused emphatically to answer a number of questions concerning his private business of the board, but he said he had heard no talk about counting Tilden out by the republican board.

The Senate Investigating Committee.

James Gallagher, an Irishman, aged 50, of Ouachita parish, witnessed the first disturbance on the 4th of July last, at the Methodist Sunday School; squads of rifle clubs under McLeod, Ruffington and Theobald, visited Whitely, for whom witness worked, to induce him to join the democratic club; four days later nine bulldozers followed Whitely several miles; his house was continually beset by these ruffians; negroes were compelled to join the club, and the distribution of the republican tickets; when poll four closed at noon the republican vote was announced in city square, but at night it was only twenty-eight; the negroes disliked the democratic clubs and were afraid of them.

Jas. R. Hall, of Ouachita, testified that all was quiet until July 4th; was at Lacombe school-house when it was reported that negroes were organizing on the island, and an attempt was made to organize the school; he waited a while, then waited on witness to get him to join a rifle company; their paper had an article saying that those refusing to join would be considered traitors and left to protect themselves; they insisted on Whitely joining; a meeting was held to organize a club, nearly every white man in the parish was present, and nearly all joined; a committee was appointed to secure arms; they then began to raid the country at night; they would shoot into the quarters of witness; bulldozers followed Whitely and compelled him to leave his house; there was a full shortly after the election, though the rifle men continually rode about the country, and they were armed with guns; he port with a horse and gun as the negroes were rising, and there would be trouble.

George Hamlet, of Ouachita, testified that the parish was generally peaceful until the election for mayor in 1875, when a report was circulated that the negroes were rising, consequently many of them were kept away from the polls, fearing trouble; changing the result of the election; resolutions were adopted declaring that those who would not vote the democratic ticket would not get work; he had been advised to leave Ouachita on account of his being unsafe.

From present indication neither of the investigating committees will complete their work here before the 1st of January.

Trouble Approached.

There is considerable apprehension of trouble on the 1st of January, when the Governor is to be inaugurated. Both Packard and Nichols will be inaugurated. The republicans will not oppose the inauguration of Nichols, but they will attempt to exercise the functions of the office he will in all probability, be resisted, and a call will be made for troops, 1,000 of whom are now stationed here.

A Meteor.

St. Louis, 21.—A very large meteor, presenting numerous and brilliant colors and having a long tail like a comet, passed over this city to-night from south-east to north-east. The same passed over Lawrence, Kansas, from west to east.

The Jewelry Case Dismissed.

New York, 21.—The complaint of Mrs. Euzella Fitzgerald against Mrs. Bertha Schneider was dismissed to-day, Judge Bixby and the accused discharged. Mrs. Fitzgerald was very indignant, and threatened to bring up her case extensively. Bixby said the testimony of and for the complaint was very contradictory and conflicting, and would not warrant him in holding the accused.

Brooklyn Theatre Benefit.

At the theatre to-day, the performances, in aid of the sufferers from the Brooklyn fire, realized about $19,000.

Butler's Views of the Situation.

The Herald's Washington special says B. F. Butler was at the Treasury Department to-day, and in conversation concerning the presidential trouble, stated that he did not believe it possible for any coalition of the present condition of affairs to be effected. He said there had been so much taint attaching to the legality of the proceedings in several of their main terms, that in his judgment, it will be impracticable for either party to purge itself of the wrongs alleged against it, so as to satisfy the consciences of the people, who are anxious to see right prevail in the contest. Neither party would be content to believe, by any possible showing, that the other is not entirely in the fault, for the present condition of affairs. The general suggests that Congress go to work at once and pass a special election law, calling for a new election, to take place in May. It is the main plank of the acting Vice-President of the United States could conduct the government, and step out upon the inauguration of the candidate chosen.

More Incendiarism.

LITTLE ROCK, 21.—A fire broke out at seven o'clock to-night on the corner of Second and Fifth streets. It was of incendiary origin. This is the sixth fire here in six days. Midnight.—The fire is out. The best buildings were saved; loss only about $12,000.

Aid for the Hampton and Simpson Government.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 21.—At an immense meeting of conservative tax payers to-night, resolutions were unanimously adopted recognizing Hampton and Simpson as lawfully elected, pledging them their moral, financial and material aid.

Claims Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, 21.—In the Court of Commissioners on the Alabama claims the claims of Geo. M. Roberts, Secretary of the Navy, for $150,000 for the loss of the Hatteras, destroyed by the Alabama, and for $25,000 for the loss of the Greenland, destroyed by the Florida, were dismissed.

Sitting Bull on Bark Creek.

St. Paul, 21.—The following was received at Headquarters, Department Dakota, to-day:

"Fort Peck, M. T., Dec. 5.

"Yesterday a force of a hundred and fifty of the Fifth Infantry followed and drove Sitting Bull's camp 190 miles, south across the Missouri River near the mouth of Bark Creek. He resisted my crossing for a short time, and then retreated to the Bad Lands. Sitting Bull is in camp on Bark Creek, with over 5,000 warriors.

(Signed) FRANK D. BALDWIN, Lieut. 5th Inf. Comdg."

Will Support the House in its Constitutional Right.

A meeting of the leading democrats, from various points of the State assembled in this city, to-day, on the invitation of the chairman of the State Central Committee. The meeting was secret, but it transpired that it adopted resolutions declaring a firm conviction of the election of Tilden and Hendricks, and that the House has equal rights with the Senate in the settlement of the question, and propose to support it in the exercise of its constitutional right.

Will Maintain Their Constitutional Right.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., 21.—The democratic central committee met here to-day, and appointed a sub-committee, who reported resolutions affirming the constitutional right of the House to participate in the election of the President of the Senate to conduct the count alone; also declaring that mass meetings should be held, in each county in the State, on Dec. 30th, of citizens, in respect of party, for the selection of delegates to the convention in Springfield on January 8th, and expressing the belief that all good citizens will join in the movement for a free government, and that the proceedings of the convention will be in harmony with the gravity of the occasion.

Death of a Valiant Soldier from Ill Treatment.

CHICAGO, 21.—Col. Jas. S. Hayes, formerly an Indiana State senator, and a brave soldier during the war, and lately confined in an insane asylum in this State because of an inoffensive insanity, was, on Tuesday last, badly mistreated by a doctor, and died of the result. His name was put out of joint. Before it could be set, the doctors in attendance resorted to chloral, whiskey and laudanum, and other means, and the poor fellow died. His name was put out of joint. Before it could be set, the doctors in attendance resorted to chloral, whiskey and laudanum, and other means, and the poor fellow died.

No Intimidation.

The New Orleans special to the Democrat from Baton Rouge says the House sub-committee is at work there. The most important witness examined was D.M. Longe, a colored republican. He testified that he had canvassed the parish for the republicans, that there was never any intimidation of colored republicans. In no instance were the troubles in the parish during the past year attributable to politics.

WESTERN.

Another Applicant for the Lick Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, 21.—Another petition for letters of administration on the Lick estate has been filed by William H. Lick, nephew of the deceased James Lick. The petition, with others, is set for a hearing on January third.

FOREIGN.

RUSSIA.

Students Arrested.

St. Petersburg, 21.—Eleven women and twenty men, students at the School of Medicine and Technical Institute, have been arrested for shouting "Liberty" and unfurling a red flag bearing the inscription "Union and Liberty" at the service in Kassin Church.
