EASTERN DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.—The British colonists favoring annexation held a meeting last night, and decided to communicate with the colonists of Buffalo, Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans, with reference to choosing influential men to co-operate with the annexationists in Canada.

Friends of four missing men are in communication with detectives, seeking their recovery. Nothing has been heard of the Louisville insurance agent, George M. Pevy, and few think now that he is alive.

Nearly three hundred Italians are now at Castle Garden, defrauded of all their money by a band of emigrant swindlers. It appears that they were induced to leave home by stories of advantages awaiting them in Buenos Ayres, and told in Marseilles that a vessel would be at New York to take them to Rio. They arrived here on Wednesday to find they were robbed. The authorities here have informed the Italian ambassador in Washington.

The report of the secretary of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, now in session here, states that the profits of late years do not average ten per cent.

CHICAGO.—Special dispatches from Winona, Minn., contradict the report that 800 tracklayers on the extension of the Winona and St. Peter's railroad, blockaded by snow, are in danger of starvation, or even suffering. The snow is not so heavy as reported, the blockade of the railroad being caused by drifts in cuts and ravines.

NEW YORK, 22.—This p. m. at the suit of P. H. Watson, president of the Erie Railway, J. Gould was arrested on a warrant issued by Judge Fancher, of the Supreme court, which is based on an affidavit which charges Jay Gould with wrongfully taking to his own use, while in control of the Erie road, nine millions and a half of dollars, in money belonging to the Erie stockholders. Gould gave bail.

Col. Blood was again arrested to-day in a civil suit brought by Challis, and in default of $3 000 bail, was lodged in Ludlow street jail. He had just given bail in another suit when he was arrested.

Mayor Hall recommends the common council to give Stanley, the discoverer of Livingstone, a public reception.

The board of directors of the Northern Pacific Railway to-day, unanimously elected Wm. A. Howard, of Michigan, land commissioner for that company.

The silk manufacturers of Patterson have resolved to pay no more wages, nor to hire the strikers at any price, unless they return to work this week. The strikers refuse to do this and there is no prospect of a settlement.

The jury awarded Mrs. Putnam five thousand dollars damages, for the loss of her husband, who was killed by Foster on a 7th Avenue car.

The national board of underwriters have adopted a report recommending the adoption of the tariff of '63 and '67, and suggesting that in all cities of not over 50,000 people, at least thirty per cent may be added to present rates, and not less than fifty per cent in places where the population exceeds fifty thousand. They also unanimously resolved to charge an advance of fifty per cent on all non-fire proof mansard roofs.

Wall Street was the scene of great excitement this afternoon, caused by the extraordinary advance in Northwestern common stock, under the operation of a corner, from 95 to 200. The corner is the closest since that made in Prairie du Chien stock, several years ago. Unless wealthy men were short of the stocks it is not probable that the clique would so run up the price, as so great an advance would cause the suspension of ordinary dealers unfortunate enough to be on the short side. Rumors speak of several failures, but names are unauthenticated. Late in the day the street became aware of the arrest of Jay Gould at the suit of President Watson. Gould is said to have entire charge of the Northwestern pool, and his arrest caused a panic among the bears, who bid up the price against themselves.

COLUMBUS, O., 22.—The full official vote of Ohio gives Grant's majority 7,551.

NEW YORK, 22.—Jay Gould presented himself at the Sheriff's office, accompanied by Augustus Schell and Horace Clark, who consented to become sureties on his bail bond, the bail being fixed at one million for each bondsman, whereupon Gould was released by the sheriff. The counsel for the Erie Railway will object to the sureties on the ground that they should not have been justified in agreeing to one million each. The affidavit of President Watson, of the Erie Railroad, avers that the company has cause of action against Gould for more than $9,726,541, 26 cents, to which interest is to be added; that such cause of action arises from fraudulent detention, embezzlement and misappropriation of means of the said company, and that Gould, while acting as president and treasurer, said the corporation was guilty of the fraud for which this action is brought.

It has been ascertained that the Gould clique have a call on 80,000 shares more than the whole capital stock of the company, so that the Northwestern is virtually not purchasable at any price, except with the good will of the holders. The expectation is that a general move in some direction will be attempted on the part of Smith and allies to obtain from the Supreme Court writs of injunction against the Stock Exchange to prevent the buying in of the stock.

A reception was given to H. M. Stanley at the Lotus to-night. Among those present were Whitelaw Reid, Pres't. of the club, and Mayor Hall. Speeches were made by Reid, Stanley, Mayor Hall and Dr. Bellows.

The arrest of Gould is the result of a corner in Erie, a short time ago, by which Smith and Gould, then working in union, were heavily squeezed. Both vowed to be revenged upon the Drew clique and proceeded to lay their nets, but a sudden disagreement opened a bitter quarrel between them and war to the knife was declared. In his anger Smith is said to have remarked to one of his friends that he would make that little monkey, meaning Gould, grind an organ yet for his living, and to have further said that he would ruin him in a week. In the meantime, by skill, Gould managed to get both Smith and Drew short on the Northwestern, and then run up the stock, as was done today, to 200. Smith, finding himself short, asked Gould to let him have 50,000 shares of that stock, threatening to proceed against him in case of his refusal. Gould, however, would not accede to the demand, hence this suit and the present arrest of Gould, who left his office to give bail at the sheriff's office. He gave orders to his brothers not to sell a share of stock at any price. Travers & Duncan, who became sureties and ordered first, are said to be short on the Northwestern to a considerable amount. Henry N. Smith is said to be short 40,000 shares and Daniel Drew 10,000 shares in the Northwestern Common.

The celebrated stallion Socrates, owned by Mr. Ralphs, Philadelphia, and valued at $40,000, and the noted trotter Cameron, owned by L. Meyers, Boston, and valued at $20,000, died to-day of dropsy.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY, WASHINGTON, Oct. 21, 1872.

Whereas by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The Deseret National Bank of Salt Lake City" in the City of Salt Lake, in the County of Salt Lake and Territory of Utah, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3rd, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking under said Act.

Now, therefore, I John S. Langworthy, Acting Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The Deseret National Bank of Salt Lake City," in the City of Salt Lake, in the County of Salt Lake and Territory of Utah, is authorized to commence the business of Banking under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of office this 21st day of October, 1872.
