[Early Dispatches.] New York, March 24 .- A special to the World from Washington says: The resignation of the Danish cabinet means two things of importance to the United States.

First: It is improbable that this country will be able to buy the Danish West Indies for four million dollars as provided for in the Gardner bill, now before the foreign relations committee of the House, or for any other sum.

Second: By the time this Congress shift received his injuries. He adjourns the German flag will be flying over the islands of St. John and St. Thomas of the Danish West Indies group by right of lease from the Danish government to the emperor of Ger-

Negotiations between this government and Denmark for the purchase of the islands were practically terminated by the resignation of the Danish ministry, headed by Prime Minister Hoerring.

The cabinet resigned because of the content of the great popular uprising against the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States.

King Christian and the cabinet of Denmark had consented to sell the islands to this country for $4,000,000. It was stipulated, however, that the sale should be made before the adjournment of the present session of congress. The Gardner bill was introduced at the latter of the President and Secretary. instance of the President and Secretary Hay, and had it been acted upon speed-ily, or even considered, the cabinet might have been forced to resign, but the bargain arranged would have been

The new cabinet will be made up of Danish politicians in favor of retaining the islands.

In 1867 a contract of sale between the United States and Denmark for these islands was entered into. The price was to be $7,500,000. The treaties failed by the refusal of the United States Senate to ratify them.

Germany has been trying to secure the islands; and while it is the deter-mination of Denmark not to sell them to any other country and not to sell them to the United States if it can be avoided, an option for a lease for a long term of years has been given to Ger-many for the islands of St. Thomas and St. John. If the United States does no buy them Germany will lease them and get control of the magnificent harbor at St. John.

EATEN BY CANNIBALS.

Awful Fate of Dutch Officers-Warship Sent to Avenge Crime.

Vancouver, B. C., March 23 .- By the steamer Warrimoo, which arrived to-day from Sydney, comes a shocking story from Dutch New Guinea of the capture by the natives of three officers the steamer General Pel. The captives were subjected to the most horrible tortures and were devoured while yet alive by the cannibalistic natives. While the General Pel was in Dutch New Guinea four of her officers went ashore and were about to take photographic views when they were surrounded by the natives, and three of the naval men were taken prisoners. The only man of the party who effected his escape was the General Pel's first officer, Ernest B. Weigand, who, however, was badly wounded by arrows. In spite of his wounds he lingered in the woods long enough to see his comrades tied to trees and used as targets by the natives, who subsequently sliced off portions of their living fesh and finally devoured all three, after roasting their feet and tegs.

The Dutch government has sent the man-of-war Sumatra to the scene to avenge these atrocities.

BISHOP SPEIRS SURPRISED. A Delightful Party Given in the Tenth

Bishop Adam Speirs was the recipient last night of a most delightful surprise party, at his home, 723 east Fifth South street. About twenty-five residents of the ward tiptoed over to the Bishop's house, and when he opened the door in answer to the bell, he thought he had fallen into the hands of a banditti, but his fears were soon dissipated and he demonstrated his ability to entertain in an impromptu manner. The evening in an imprompty manner. was spent in singing, and chatting. The most interesting feature of the evening was the presentation to the Bishop of a silver-mounted stik umbrella, given as a token of esteem. The Bishop re-

Waiters in London are bitterly complaining of the effects the war is having on their particular vocation. The men who, during the London season, gained a livelihood by waiting at ban-quets, balls and parties, given by the ellie in the West End, have earned practically nothing lately owing to the ab-sence of such festivities. It was re-solved at a recent meeting to ask the Lord Mayor to open a fund at the Mansion House for distressed waiters.

Mrs. Minnie Fiedler, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, says:

"I was afflicted for years with St. Vitus' dance. The first symptoms of the disease began in 1889, when the nerves began twitching in my left hand. I consulted physicians of this city, but none of them ever did me a particle of good. After I had suffered for two and one half years, the disease continuing to grow worse, I heard of Dr. Williams' Pirk Pills for Pale People.

"It was in 1891 that I was induced to try them, and I was surprised at my rapid improvement. I took only two boxes, and was entirely cured. It was hard to realize that I, who for over two years was scarcely able to walk, and who often found it almost impossible to talk, should be restored to perfect health and in full possession of all of my powers by two boxes of this wonderful remedy.

"I am happy to state that my health is still perfect and I have never had the slightest symptoms of a return of the disease, although it is eight years since was cured."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People ontain, in a condensed form, all the ele-ments necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered herves. They are an unfailing specific for such dis-cases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia rheu-matism, nervous headache, the after-effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in pack-ages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Wil-liams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

ELECTRIC RAILROAD FRANCHISE.

The petition of the Salt Lake Valley Railroad company for a franchise to construct an electric railroad from First South on First West north to the city limits came up before the laws and streets committee. No conclusion was reached, but the committees decided to pay a visit of inspection to the pro posed route Monday afternoon, The waterworks committee decided to recommend the purchasing of 21 water meters, in accordance with the suggestion of Superintendent Hines. The committee on markets will report adversely on the petition for the establishment of a stray pound in the south-west part of the city.

COST TOO MUCH.

The resolution of Councilman Thomas calling for the revision of the city or-dinances came up before the laws com-mittee. It was stated that the work would cost in the neighborhood of $2,when the committee whistled simultaneous whew. In all probabilities some young attorneys will agreed to do the work for a less figure, and the committee decided to let the matter rest for the present.

· REQUEST IS DENIED.

The petition of Thomas Oakey, ask-ing that the city withhold $200 from Painter William T. Knapton until some settlement had been reached between the family of John Bain and Knapton, was considered by the committee on control and City Attorney Stephens, with the result that a recommendation adverse to the petitioner will be made to the Council. Bain, it will be re-called, was injured in the joint building through the falling of a scaffold. He died a few days ago from the re-sult of the injuries. The committee and attorney discovered that the ac-cident occurred on the county's side of the building, and that therefore the city had no jurisdiction in the matter.

SMALLPOX AT HOYTSVILLE Twenty-four Cases in a Small Town Near Coalville.

Twenty-four cases of smallpox are now flourishing in Hoytsville, according to a report from that place. The little town is about three miles south of Coalville, and the disease is in the familles of Joseph Stonebraker, George Daniels, A. Winters, William Spriggs and John Brown. The stricken ones in the Brown family are seriously ill, but all the others have it in a very mild form. Dr. Vike, the health officer for Summit county, has charged the people of the infected town to maintain strict sanitary measures, and to keep the town closed against all traffic until all danger of the spread of the disease has passed away.

BEN ROLAND A VICTIM. Benjamin Roland, whose brother just went through a siege at the pest house, has been seized with smallpox and taken to the isolation hospital. The two brothers lived together at No. 5 Rob-erts' court, which runs from Fifth to Sixth West near First South, and it is likely that Ben caught the disease from his brother as they occupied the same bed. Mr. Roland is 36 years old, and the attack is in quite a malignant form, but the doctors hope that he will be able to go at large again before long. There are now ten cases in the isolation hospital,

FRANK ERNE WINS FROM JOE CANS

The Title of Lightweight Champion of the World.

REFEREE ENDS THE FIGHT.

In the Twelfth and Last Round Erne Panches Gan's Eye from Its Socket and Blinds Him.

New York, March 23 .- Frank Erne of Buffalo successfully defended his title of lightweight champion of the world against Joe Gans (colored) of Baltimore before the Broadway Athletic club tonight. Erne did most of the heavy fighting, displaying greater judgment apolmore skill than his opponent. Cans received his punishment gamely until the twelfth round, when his left eye was started from its socket by a terrific right-hand swing from the Buffalo boy. Gans was helpless and there was no alternative for the referee but to award the decision to Erne.
The contest drew an enormous crowd to the Broadway Athletic ciub. There were many who wagered large sums of money that Gans would carry away the championship. There was so much Baltimore money in sight that Gans was made a favorite at 100 to 90 a week ago, and tonight the choice of the Maryland people was so well liked that they bet on their man at odds of 100 to There was a strongly money lader contingent from Buffalo at the ring-side, and every man of the party bet heavily on the little lad from their city, taking every bet offered by the Marylanders. One hundred to seventy on Gans was the price offered, and the Buffalo people snapped this up so quickly that the price rose to 100 to 80.

Erne's seconds were Frank Zimpfer, Joe Fitzpatrick and George Salter. Gans was accompanied by Al Herford, Harry Lyons and Caleb Bond.

Before the men were introduced it was announced that George McFadden.

was announced that George McFadden of this city would challenge the winner. The men agreed to have a return match, no matter who won. Straight Queensbury rules governed.

MIXED IT LIVELY.

Erne began rushing in the opening rounds, forcing Gans into his corner, but he was unable to land a telling blow. In the second, third and fourth rounds Erne continued to force the fighting, repeatedly driving the negro to his corner, but Gans blocked cleverly and avoided heavy punishment. The first hard blow was landed in the fifth round, when Gans put a light left to the face and Erne returned a jolt from the left straight on the face. In the sixth round, after Gans had been forced to break ground he stopped suddenly and swung his left to Erne's right eye, cutting it. Gans then went sending right and left swings to the head and Erne surprised everybody by replying with similar blows, continued to slam both hands on negro, reaching the latter's head half a dozen times, stopping Gans' rushing and forcing the negro to back away. Erne was bleeding from mouth and

Erne jumped right to his man in the eighth. He put a straight left to the face and hooked it again to the ear. Game failed to counter, and Erne reached the body and head with left, forcing Gans to break ground. Gans stepped in after falling short with the left and uppercut Erne on the face with Erne rushed again in the ninth, sending his right over to the head. Gans landed right and left on the head. This started Erne, and both men let their arms go like windmills, Erne having decidedly the better of the mix-up. Erne hooked three lefts to the ear, and Gans reached the body with left lightly. Erne had all the better of this round. Erne tried for the head in the tenth, and Gans slipped and almost went through the ropes. Erne stepped in, sending a hard left to the stomach, and Gans failed to reply. Gans then swung left to head and Erne countered. Erne rushed hes man across the ring and planted a heavy left to the wind. Then he sent a straight left to the face and swung his right to the face, but too high for a knockout at close quarters.

Erne opened the twelfth with a left smash on the eye, and followed with one on the other optic. Then he smash d his right to the stomach, and Gans started towards Frank's corner, staggering blindly. He complished his hands to his side, and Referee White, seeing that the negro was in distress, caught hold of Gans, who said: "I'm blind; I cannot see any more."
White threw up both hands and told

Erne to go to his corner. He then led the colored man to his corner, and for the first time saw that Gan's left eye was out of its socket.
"Erne wins," shouted White, as Dr. Creamer jumped into the ring and re-placed the injured optic. "My right did the trick," said Erne as he left the ring, and the Buffalo crowd carrier him to his dressing room
