

BREVITIES.

Book-keeping in one lesson—Don't lend 'em.

The city tax of Leavenworth is seven percent.

The circulation of the London Times is only half what it was three years ago.

The debt of Chicago is more than three times as large as that of the State of Michigan.

Australia has discovered that kangaroos make the most delicious sausage ever eaten.

Dr. Cuyler says that "half the New York churches are dying of too much dignity and too little amenity."

In the picture gallery of a Jesuit convent at Lisbon is a painting representing Adam, in Paradise, in blue pants and Eve in full dress.

A Baltimore husband, while remonstrating with his wife, poured hot soup down her back by way of argument.

One of the "wealthy Americans," who recently married an aristocratic young lady at Milan, turns out to be a roving journeyman barber.

Strakosch pays $15,000 salary a month to the troupe which is performing Resonance Mass for him in Europe. Of this, Alboni gets $8,000, and Viennese $3,000.

The conundrum of the day is, Shall the franking privilege be abolished? Congressmen are not disposed to give it up.—New York Evening Post.

The New York Sunday Times knows a Congressman who always sends home, under his frank, enough public documents to sell for a couple of hundred dollars, as waste paper.

A Pittsburgh man suspected his wife followed her up and down the street—saw her meet and kiss a man—went for the man and knocked him down—found it was his father-in-law.

Forty thousand dollars' worth of French mirror plates have been ordered by the Leland Brothers for their new Union Hotel at Saratoga. The other appointments of the new hotel are said to be on a similar scale of magnificence.

"Great Heavens!" said a bar-room bully of Denver City, who shot a stranger for declining to take a drink with him, "Great Heavens! am I never to come to Denver without being obliged to kill somebody?"

Minnie Hauck sang in "Faust" at Moscow, and was called out ten times after the garden scene, fourteen times after the church scene, and six times at the end of the opera. The expense of the calling out is not mentioned by Miss Hauck's indefatigable manager.

After an intermission of eighteen hundred years, Langin re-opens the Pompeii Theatre with "The Child of the Regiment," and the continuance of the patronage bestowed on his predecessor, Marcus Quintus Martius, and promises to equal the efforts of that eminent manager.

A convenient preparation for taking out oil spots, and for cleansing articles of brass, silver plated ware and gold, is made by mixing together equal parts of caustic ammonia and spirits of soap; and this may be applied to a great variety of purposes in household economy.

The New York Sun, referring to the printing of the United States Agricultural Report, says: "The whole concern expenses not less than $1,000,000 a year, and all that it does is much better done by the agricultural periodicals. It is costly nuisance, which ought to be summarily abolished."

Twenty years ago a Connecticut man left a watch with a jeweller, to be cleaned and repaired, saying that he would be in town in a day or two and call for it. Last week the man called in at the jeweller's and asked: "Do you remember my leaving a watch with you a number of years since to be cleaned?" "Yes," replied the jeweller, and here it is.

A paper in Portland, Maine, tells this little story, which is too pathetic to cause a smile:

"A little girl, about three years old, lost a dearly loved sister not long ago, and as the Christmas season drew near began to miss her playmate more than ever, and at last on going to bed one night, prayed audibly: 'Good night, give her a little bedstead for Christmas, and let Louis, up in heaven, make a patchwork quilt for it.'"

Colonel P. G. Vought, of Freehold, N. J., while getting out mail at the pits at Hartshorne's Mills, last week, found a log of wood, from appearances part of a large tree, near the bottom of the pit, about eighteen feet below the surface. There were fifteen feet of mail above the log, and it was about two hundred yards from the stream of water.

A woman on Maine Prairie, Minn., is a practical advocate of woman's rights. Her husband having expended his means in buying a wild farm, and being sick, she cut the brush from eight acres, dug out the grub, broke and fenced it; put in two acres of corn and potatoes, and hoed and harvested them; as also one hundred bushels of turnips and one hundred and sixty bushels of wheat. She also, during the summer, dug a cellar for the house, and did her housework in a neat manner.

Private Malloy (goaded to madness by the goose step)—"Corporal O'Slaught-nessy, your honor! as I was to call ye a dirty spalpeen o'misery, that would I git!"

Corporal—"Faith, it would be a round dozen."

Private Malloy—"An' av I only thought it?"

Corporal—"Divil a harm, so long as ye don't spake it."

Private—"Thin, I only think it, corporal."—Judy.

Some People "fly completely off the Handle"

When an article is said to do many things; now for our part we esteem and appreciate preparation just in proportion to the amount of time and labor we can save by its use. The will remove with little trouble, every particle of Grease or Paint from your Coats, Vests, Pants, Hats, Dresses, &c., without injuring, in the most remote degree, the finest fabrics. It is also very useful in removing the grease and dirt from doors and woodwork, rubbing as it is on the hands. Besides this it will kill Bed Bugs as well as the eggs and fleas, and the head lice on a child, creating a fine lather and removing every vestige of dirt and dandruff in a twinkling. It does the hair no harm being principally composed of Nitrogen—the element which enters most largely into the composition of hair.

RENOVATING MIXTURE

OUR

WASHING COMPOUND

Causes a great saving of SOAP and LABOR as well as the wear and tear of clothing attendant upon so much washboard rubbing as is usually necessary to bring the clothes to a proper degree of cleanliness.

Some women are in the habit of using Turpentine, Alcohol, Ammonia, Camphor Gum, &c., in their washing fluids; but none of them ought ever to be used for such purposes (one woman lost the use of her arm for six months by using a fluid containing Turpentine). The Turpentine and Alcohol especially tend to open the pores of the skin and thus render the person more liable to take cold as also
