FRAGMENTS.

Go and hear Gough at the Theatre to-night.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock to-night, in the Social Hall.

"Bunch of Keys" will unlock the doors of laughter at the Opera House next Tuesday night.

Mr. Thomas W. Jennings is erecting a very handsome and substantial residence on the site of the old one, in the 15th Ward.

Solicitations for donations for the erection of an independent school-house in the 15th Ward, are meeting with a liberal response.

Higgins, the favorite actor, plays in "Hearts of Oak" next Monday and Tuesday nights, at the Theatre.

Four indictments were brought in by the Grand Jury last evening, one found under the laws of Utah, the others under the United States laws.

Deputy Marshal Sprague brought in from Birmingham, last night, J. L. Loftus, charged with unlawfully interfering with property. He will have a hearing before Commissioner Sutherland on Monday at 11 a.m.

James Jensen, of Pleasant View, Weber County, was robbed by highwaymen while going home yesterday from Ogden, between ten and eleven o'clock Wednesday night. The robbers got about $10, and bolted on hearing footsteps approaching.

To-day, the scholars of St. Mark's School, to the number of over 600, spent a pleasant time at Fuller's Hill. They took advantage of the excellent facilities for enjoyment, and were well pleased with the "out." The gardens are open to the public and are blooming with spring beauty.

Returned.—President John Taylor and party returned from Logan last evening. The party are all in excellent health, and have much enjoyed their visit and the pleasant duties they have been engaged in during the past week.

Fell Dead.—A special to the News from Logan, states that James Naukerville fell dead in Thatcher Brothers' mill, at 3 p.m. yesterday. A post-mortem examination revealed the fact that his death was caused by fatty degeneration of the heart.

Caledonia Society Sociable.—The Caledonia Society will meet in the Social Hall to-morrow evening for recreation and business. Books, pictures, parlor games and other resources for social enjoyment and instruction will be provided. Members and ladies and invited guests are requested to be present at or before 8 o'clock.

Notice to Teachers.—The Teachers' Association of Salt Lake County will meet in the 13th Ward Assembly rooms, at 11 a.m. to-morrow. Following is the programme: School Government, Wm. M. Stewart; Are Public Examinations Advisable in Our District Schools? Miss Kate Sneider; Drawing in District Schools, Horace Cummings; Song, A. S. Geddes; Manners and Morals in School, C. F. Wilcox; Critic, Miss A. Winters.

John H. Gough.—This famous orator arrived this morning by the D. & R. G. Railway, the train being eighteen hours late. Apart from the anxieties incidental to the journey he feels quite well, and from the report of his triumphs in route given by his agent he seems still in his prime and those who go to hear may rely upon much a feast of grand oratory as only J. H. Gough can furnish. The Troupers of Honor will appear on the stage in full uniform. The feature will commence at half past 8 sharp. Ticket office open all day.

A Re-liable Sheet.—To the regular readers of the Salt Lake Tribune, it is needless to say that it is the most unimpeachable sheet published in this or any other part of the world. Even its own supporters cannot halt the time what to believe and what not to believe, of the heterogeneous loads of irresponsible rubbish emptied daily into its columns. The following is one of the latest samples of its inaccuracy:

"John Buckle, the celebrated fallor, died suddenly last evening at 5:30 o'clock, at his store; in fact, at his work."

Now, "in fact," there is not a word of truth in the above statement. Mr. Buckle is alive and well, but is considerably annoyed over the false report, and his family have been bothered ever since, answering telegrams and messages of condolence from all parts where the error has yet penetrated, and it is regrettable to note that the statement, made more maliciously than the above, notably, the putting of profane words into the mouth of a lady, Mrs. Rounly, by the unprincipled scamp of a reporter who by his claims to have heard her use them in the vicinity of the Federal Court room last evening, but did not take the pains to speak further of the disreputable and scandalous event we have depicted too much in even mentioning.

Nellie White.—Miss Nellie Maria White, the heroine of the hour, who is now imprisoned in the Penitentiary for refusing to answer certain questions before the Grand Jury, by a native of Salt Lake City, and not yet 30 years of age. She was born in the Sixth Ward, of English parents, who emigrated from London in 1842. When Nellie was about one year old her parents moved to Smithfield, Cache County, where they resided till the spring of 1850, when they moved to East Porterville, Morgan County, where she has spent the greater part of her life. For the past few years she has been living in Summit, Co., teaching music, and was back and forth between Councilville and Wanship, in the latter of which places she has been teaching a day school since last April. She boarded in the family of Bishop Rounly, whose daughters were among her pupils. She is an accomplished musician, plays skillfully upon the organ, is well educated and naturally bright and intelligent. She is tall, handsome and womanly in her appearance, and notwithstanding her youth, she is the possessor of a true woman's heart and will. She is well treated at the Penitentiary, (notwithstanding the inhuman suggestions from certain quarters that she be ill-used for the sake of extorting from her what her inquisitors demand), and it is to the credit of Marshal Lyman and his assistants that such is the case. Her mother and sister, and one or two other ladies, paid her a visit to-day and found her cheerful and composed, the recipient of all due attention from the lady warden and other attendants.

COMMITTED FOR CONTEMPT.

NELLIE WHITE SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY FOR REFUSING TO ANSWER QUESTIONS BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

For several days past the Grand Jury have had before them an alleged case of polygamy, in which Bishop Rounly, of Wanship, Summit County, and Miss Nellie White, formerly of Morgan County, but who has lately been teaching school at Wanship, are charged with being the principals. Following is the full text of a report made by the Grand Jury to the District Court yesterday afternoon:

To the Hon. John A. Hunter, Judge of the Third District Court:

The grand jury heretofore empaneled in this court and sworn as Grand Jurors of the United States of America do respectfully represent and report to the Court:

That on the 22nd day of May, 1884, the said grand jury were examining into and investigating the charge of alleged violation of the Act of Congress approved March 22nd, 1882, relating to polygamy and the crime of bigamy, and in the course of their investigation and examination evidence was introduced by the said jury that one Girard Rounly and one Lovisa J. Rounly were husband and wife, and that the said Girard Rounly while he was so married as aforesaid and undivorced and while his wife was living, he said Girard Rounly married and took to wife one Nellie White, the said Nellie White was regularly subpoenaed as a witness in such behalf, and such witness on the day last aforesaid appeared before the grand jury, was duly sworn and testified in the matter of the said investigation and examination.

That pending the examination of the said Nellie White, the following questions were propounded to her by the grand jury and her answers requested:

"Have you ever gone through a rite or ceremony of marriage with Girard Rounly?"

"Are you in accordance with any religious rite married to Girard Rounly?"

"Did you at any time marry Girard Rounly in plural or celestial form for time or eternity, or both?"

"Are you his wife in plural marriage?"

"Are the relations existing between yourself and Girard Rounly those of husband and wife?"

"Do you decline to answer because it is a fact that you are his wife, or are his wife?"

"Did you ever go through the Endowment House in this city with Girard Rounly for the purpose of assuming or undertaking any covenants of marriage with him?"

"Have you ever been in the Endowment House?"

"Do you know who are the officiating priests or officers in the Endowment House?"

To answer the foregoing questions and each and every of them, she, the said Nellie White, declined and refused on the ground that said questions, and each and every of them, were not proper questions. Whereupon the said grand jury now present the said questions and the refusal to answer the same, together with the said witness, to your honor, here in open court, that she may be interrogated in all the premises. And the said grand jury respectfully pray the judgment of this court, whether she, the said Nellie White, lawfully may, or not, to answer the questions aforesaid, or any of them.

JOHN TRYMAN, Foreman Grand Jury.

Miss White was brought before the court, but there signified her determination not to answer any of the questions. Judge Hunter told her the questions were proper to be asked and answered, but she still persisted in her refusal. The judge then issued an order to the effect that she be placed in the custody of the United States Marshal until she answered the questions or until the further order of the court in the matter. Miss White was accordingly taken to the Penitentiary about 5 o'clock last evening, where she remains.

BADLY SCARED.

TWO GIRLS CHASED BY BUFFALOES.

About midnight on Wednesday, residents on Canon Road, 18th Ward, were aroused from sleep by terrific screams from their neighborhoods. One gentleman springing from his bed and rushed out into the street, but could hear nothing further, nor see any unusual object, and soon returned to the house where himself and wife passed the rest of the night in anxious cogitations over the cause of the fearful sounds they had heard, which seemed to be the cries of one or more female in distress.

Some moments before the gentleman emerged from his dwelling, his neighbor a little further up the road had done likewise, and was just in time to rescue two young ladies, (one of whom had fainted away and the other was running up the road,) from two villains, who, seeing the rescuer appear, took to their heels and vanished in the darkness. The story elicited from the girls, as soon as they had recovered from their fright, was as follows:

On the evening in question they had asked and obtained permission to go visiting at the house of a friend, but instead of doing so, repaired to the Skating Rink, where they remained till after 10 o'clock and then started for home. They had reached the Temple Block when they were overtaken by two men, who were followed by two men who had dogged their steps from the Pavilion there approached and offered to escort them home. The offer was declined, but the men continued to follow them. When near the Eagle Gate, the two fellows crossed the street and pretended to go back in the direction they had come.

The young ladies, however, had not proceeded far, after passing through the Eagle Gate, when they suddenly became aware that they were pursued. The villains closed upon them, and began to speak in a threatening manner. One of the girls, in a moment of desperation, screamed and ran away from the other, who was seized and dragged into a dark place.

The moral of this incident is to a parent to require comment. We have repeatedly warned young people to be on the lookout for frequenting such places as the Skating Rink, where all sorts of characters congregate at night, some of them for the most immoral purposes. We scarcely think the young girls who were so terribly frightened on Wednesday night will need much more argument to deter them from the true character of some persons that are in the habit of prowling about the resort referred to, seeking the ruin of the innocent who are thoughtless enough to be inveigled there.

Credited in Connection.—Election appears the latest notice of Sister Edith Jones, wife of George F. Hillings, of Mant, and a niece of Apostle David W. Patten, who fell at Crooked River, Missouri, in a battle with the mob. She was born in Green County, Indiana, March 15, 1832, and in the summer of the same year her parents removed to Council Bluffs, Iowa, where she resided until the fall of 1853. In 1854 she with her family left Nauvoo in the car of the Rocky Mountains, after father died at Winter Quarters, leaving a widow and four children, who reached Salt Lake in 1855. She deceased leaves a numerous family to mourn her loss. She died as she had lived, faithful and true.

Quorum Meeting.—The monthly meeting of the First Quorum of Elders will be held in the west wing of the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

GEORGE H. CANNON, Secretary.

More Floods.—Thomas A. Judd, of Graniteville, informs us that high water has been experienced there for the past two weeks. It has put about two feet of sand on some of the meadow land, and is still running through the streets of the town. The people expect the water to raise considerably yet, and do not think they will when the flood reaches its height.

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter, on Friday, May 22, 1884:

People, etc., vs. Joseph Biddlecome, murder; trial still proceeding.

Admitted citizen—John Kelly, formerly of Scotland, now of Salt Lake County.

The Grand Jury came into Court and presented three indictments, one found under the laws of the United States, and two found under the laws of Utah Territory.

The April "Contributor."—Though unavoidably delayed till now, the April number of this valuable magazine comes forth with more than usual interest. Following is the table of contents: History of the Book of Mormon. Contents of the Records, VI. George Reynolds: The Gift of Memory, Samuel Smiles; To Scotland, Chas. W. Stainer; Conspiracy of Chas. W. Stainer; Crossing the Medway; The Power of the Pope, Ed. E. Brainer; Ireland and the Irish, Robt. S. Spence; The Magnetic Needle, James H. Martineau; Editorial: Statistical reports; The habit of Grumbling, Edward H. Anderson; Trinity Church, James H. Hart; The Power of America; Intelligence: Semi-Annual Conference; Answer to Questions; Publication received: Tallidge's Quarterly; Cran's Atlas.

All the articles are interesting; we trust it will not be thought tedious to refer to one or two in particular. The "Conspiracy of Nauvoo," both for its historic value and the graphic manner, in which it is written will take rank among the very best things in the number. It is a true story, there being records in the Church to substantiate it. The only poetry in the number is an elegantly written tribute "To Scotland," by Chas. W. Stainer. Taken all in all the April number is a gem.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Those troubled with rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are unrelieved, will certainly obtain relief within three days by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who has never lost a patient whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; no external application can permanently cure rheumatism, which is a disease of the blood. Britannia is prepared with the greatest skill and a teaspoonful being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately sends its way to the blood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable preparation in Utah, tell us that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.

"Prickly Ash Bitters" is an invaluable specific for all complaints arising from a derangement of the functions of the liver. It purifies the blood and induces new life into the system. Taints in the side, general uneasiness, loss of appetite, headache, bilious attacks, &c., &c., are sure indications that a corrective is needed. "Prickly Ash Bitters" is especially adapted for these complaints. It cures a torpid liver, constipation and restores it to a healthy condition.

The sunken eye, the pallid complexion, the dispirited expression of the face, indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expect the worst, and you will get it. "Prickly Ash Bitters" is a powerful purifier of the blood, and does it.
