The arguments were lengthy. The court took the matter under advisement.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Andrew J. Proudfit, the wellknown bleycle dealer, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon by being sicked in the chest with a horse. Mr. kicked Proudfit came out of his place of business on Twenty-fourth street and was rossing the street, he passed by a saddle horse tied to a pole in front of his store, when the animal kicked with both hind feet at Mr. Proudfit, striking the gentleman in the breast, knock ing him down. Several gentlemen, who were passing by, quickly picked Mr. Proudit up and carried him to the drug store near by. Dr. Gordon was called and examined the injured man, but found that no bones were broksa. The breast was terribly bruised, and it is feared that the heavy blow may have caused some internal injury, which the physician cannot locate. Mr. Preudh. was taken to his home, and is resting as well as can be expected. The owner of the horse could not be located.
