

REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION.

Chairman Spry Affirmed that Only to the Workers Will Fall the Favours

DOZEN SPEECHES DELIVERED.

Prominent Members of the Victorious
Party Delivered Ringing Addresses
In Salt Lake Theater.

The Republicans of Salt Lake gathered at the Theater last night to ratify, and to take an even dozen of speeches to it, and they were reeled off at the rate of one per five minutes. The house was well filled with jubilant voters, and the speakers stretched from the center of the ceiling to points far back on the stage and around the dress circle. As a background to the speakers a huge American flag replaced the usual drop curtain. At the center of the third gallery a motto hanging bearing as its legend the creed of the Republican party, "Peace, Prosperity, Prestige." Flags and bunting of all sizes and all shapes and every where. Portraits of the party leaders stood on the corners of the stage, for everything was set for the night of victory feast.

At speaking there was a plenty. Every phase of the election was touched on. The history of the campaign of the two parties from their beginning in convention was traced out, and in conclusion gratitude was bestowed on the workers of county and state and on the victors. The remark was made that the election was a triumph for the Republican party, and the future of the nation was enfolded in glowing colors.

SPRY'S ULTIMATUM.

State Chairman Spry in calling the meeting to order after an opening number by the band made the significant statement that in the future all people who expect party favors must pay for them in party service. "The state committee will stand for this policy from now on," he declared, "for no man is greater than his party and no man can expect favors from this party in the future except as he works up to the future of the state. The remark was considered by the audience to be a serving notice upon senatorial candidates to look to their party record and was heartily applauded.

He introduced E. H. Callister as permanent chairman of the evening. Mr. Callister, after a few remarks congratulating the party, called upon Senator Reed Smoot for the first speech of the evening.

SENATOR SMOOT HAPPY.

Senator Smoot was happy. He dealt first with the great Republican victory, then with the state and local matters, and finally with the future of the nation. "I am happy in Salt Lake City," he said, "and I have been loyal to her people, loyal to my state, and loyal to my country. The Republican party in this state has honored me with a great political office, the greatest in her gift. I will never live long enough to slap the party or the people in the face that conferred this great honor upon me. I represent the Republican party, but I want it understood that, as a senator from the state of Utah, I represent every soul in all my heart and soul. I am loyal to my party; I am loyal to my state; I am loyal to my nation, and I am loyal to all that that dear old flag represents."

THE GOVERNOR ELECT.

Governor-elect Cutler followed Senator Smoot. He read his brief speech, which dealt mostly with the outlook for commercial growth in Utah, and for continued prosperity under a Republican administration. He thought that the Democrats and Republicans would meet in the victory just won, because the people would call upon them equally with the Republicans. He referred to the conditions prevailing throughout Utah, as he found them in his recent visit over the state, as indications of great and substantial growth. "As governor," he continued, "I shall try to bring about harmony and peace. There are different classes of people here but I shall know no creed in my administration of the affairs of state. In regard to capital and labor I am in hearty accord with President Roosevelt's policy of giving a square deal to both the trader and the laborer." He concluded by saying that he considered a public office as a public trust, and that he would accept his office as such.

COOL SQUIRES ON PARKER.

George B. Squires was then called upon. He too was very happy and showed it by a speech rippling with joyful allusions to the Democratic party, which he characterized as the greatest ally of the Republicans in their late victory. He stated that Mr. Parker's speech was the first occasion in American history where a candidate had the temerity to personally assail the president of the United States. "That arraignment," he declared, "called out one of the most remarkable letters ever written to the American people, in which Mr. Parker got just what he deserved." He characterized the administration of Gov. Heber as a lack of Democratic had ever had the temerity to attack it either from the platform or in the press. The present

HON. GEORGE SUTHERLAND.

The Hon. George Sutherland was next introduced. Like most of the speakers he had a funny story to begin with. It dealt with a horse that to ride was to get on and always recover consciousness. The application of the moral was in the parallel example of the recent attempt of the Democrats to monkey with the Republican elephant. "The solid south was broken," he declared, "and even Missouri, having been shown, came into line. The victory by the Republicans was the most sublime harmony that had ever been heard of since of old the morning stars sang together."

LOUIS COHN REJOICED.

Louis Cohn was introduced as a prominent merchant. He said that he knew the election was the victory of business men in Utah, Democrats and Republicans alike, when he rejoiced in the victory of President Roosevelt, for it meant commercial prosperity for four years more.

HOWELL GETS A HAND.

Congressman Howell was roundly applauded when he appeared. His remarks were frequently interrupted with applause, for he spoke of the two campaigns tracing their history from the two conventions and assigning causes for each critical turn in the affairs of the two parties till the great landslide proclaimed Republican victory. A gentle personal reference to the aid which Roosevelt had given the state ticket was made in a remark that he considered himself mighty lucky in having been on a ticket headed by so popular a man as the president. Quoting the oft heard remark of the great landlady, he said, "I wish that Utah could be like the rest of the Union," he said. The returns convince me that Utah is like the rest of the Union only a little more so."

"CYCLOON" BOTKIN.

Judge Theodosius Botkin was announced as a "great political cyclone." He told a couple of war stories which he turned upon the present situation with telling effect. The moral of the first was that like the old color sergeant in the war, who took the flag ahead of the regiment, and when ordered to bring it back, answered, "The colonel could bring the regiment up to the flag if he wanted them together, Theodore Roosevelt had now advanced the flag beyond the Democratic party and they were calling for him to bring it back. The present election was a command from the people for the Democratic party to come up to the flag if they wanted to advance with it.

The other speakers were H. E. Booth, James T. Hammond, Judge Rives, and Judge Frick. All of them spoke in glowing terms of the victory recently achieved, and of the bright future stored for the people by the victory. He referred to the present policies and remains as efficient in public service as it has been in the past.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. E. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot get without it. It cures all kinds of coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. JUVENILE BURGLARS.

Boys Boasted of Their Mysterious Wealth and Arrests Followed.

The police arrested two more young burglars last evening. They gave their names as William Duncan and Andrew Broadbeck. They are but 15 years of age. Both boys now occupy cells in the county jail, and will have to face the charge of burglary.

When arrested by Detective Raleigh, the youngsters admitted that they had burglarized the Fair store on East Temple street on four occasions, stealing therefrom at least $100. They took nothing but money. Broadbeck has been employed as a messenger for the Utah State bank. He had been employed at the store for a time, and knew the situation thoroughly. He secured a pass key and with this the youthful thieves had no trouble in gaining entrance to the place.

Suspicion pointed to them because they have been so free with money of late. They purchased revolvers and bicycles and boasted of their money. When arrested they broke down and made a full confession.

HAUL BY BURGLARS.

Simpson Residence Visited and Cash, Silverware and Clothing Stolen.

Another burglary occurred last night. The place visited was that of W. B. Simpson, 6 Brown avenue. The thieves secured $18 and a quantity of silverware and clothing. The robbery occurred about eight o'clock, while the family was away from home, entrance being gained through a small window in the rear of the house. The burglar turned on the electric lights and evidently took his time in searching for valuables. The matter was quickly reported to the police, and a description of the stolen property furnished them.

CHARITY BUREAU

READY FOR WORK.

J. D. Wood of the Salvation Army Will Devote Himself to Success of Association.

PURPOSE OF ORGANIZATION.

Will Establish a Clearing House in This City for Investigation Of Cases of Poverty.

The filing of the articles of incorporation of the Salt Lake Charity association today completed the preliminary work of the organization, and it is now ready to begin its active duties. As already understood, the purpose of the association is to take charge of the organized charity work of Salt Lake and shut out grafters. If a business man is appealed to for aid, he can now refer the case to the association, with the information that he contributes to the central bureau, and that if the applicant will apply there he will receive proper attention.

An important step in assuring the success of the new movement was taken today when it was announced that J. D. Wood would give his entire time to the association, and as soon as practicable would sever his connection with the Salvation Army headquarters of this city, which he has been engaged for some time past. Mr. Wood will retain his membership in the army, but will not be actively engaged with the local branch. He has done a great deal of personal charity and relief work outside of the regular work carried on by the army while he has been here, and he is well fitted to enter actively into the work called for by the bureau of charities it is proposed to establish. The officers of the association are: President, Dr. T. B. Beatty, secretary, J. H. Evans; treasurer, M. H. Walker. Rev. E. J. Galt, Simon Bamberger, F. A. Druell, Joseph Geoghegan, W. Montague Perry, W. H. Tibbals and J. D. Wood.

The objects set forth in the articles of incorporation are:

"First—Every department of its work shall be completely severed from all questions of religious belief, politics and nationality.

"Second—One of its objects shall be to become a center of intercommunication between the various charitable relief agencies in Salt Lake City, to foster harmonious co-operation between them, and to check the overlapping of relief work.

"Third—To investigate thoroughly, and without charge, the cases of all applicants for relief which are referred to the society for inquiry. To render persons having legitimate interest in such cases full and complete information of such investigation. To provide visitors who shall personally attend cases needing counsel and advice.

"Fourth—To obtain work for needy persons who are capable of being wholly or partially self-supporting.

"Fifth—To discourage the growth of pauperism and grafting by the above means, and by the prosecution of imposters.

"Sixth—To promote the general welfare of the needy by social and sanitary reforms, and by the inculcation of habits of providence and self-dependence.

"Seventh—To undertake the care of all charity cases that are not cared for or are reported as needing assistance.

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA

Captains Willneff's Remarkable Escape Shows What to do in Time Of Trouble.

For many years, Captain Willneff, says the Times of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester fleet. The catarrhal troubles with which he suffered for fifteen years made him dread the nights at sea, being unable to lie down and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal dripping. Captain Willneff went to two different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomei outfit for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for ten years. Captain Willneff says "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomei and have been cured by the remedy."

Hyomei kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. F. C. Schramm sells Hyomei under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

MRS. GEO. VAN DUSEN AND DAUGHTER.

NEGLECTED COLDS LEAD TO CATARRH. NEGLECTED CATARRH BECOMES CHRONIC.

Mrs. George Van Dusen, Mohawk, Herkimer Co., N. Y., writes: "Having derived so much benefit from your grand medicine, I felt as if I must write to you and tell you what a great help it has been to us. "My little daughter when but two months old took a severe cold and it settled in her head and continued to get worse, and in a few months terminated in the worst case of catarrh that has ever been known in this part of the state. "After doctoring with the best doctors for three years and receiving no benefit, we were persuaded to try a widely advertised catarrh cure, and at first we thought it was helping her, but after using twenty or more bottles she was as bad as ever. "As a last resort we began with Peruna, and she is now nine years old, and for the past year has been the healthiest child you ever saw. The catarrh has entirely disappeared. No discharge nor odor at all, but we keep the precious bottle in the house, and at the first appearance of cold with any of us we immediately take Peruna. We know there is nothing like it. In our estimation it is priceless." Mrs. George Van Dusen.

ONE of the greatest foes with which every family has to contend is our changeable climate.

To protect the family from colds and coughs is always a serious problem, and often impossible.

Sooner or later it is the inevitable fate of every one to catch cold. Care in avoiding exposure and the use of proper clothing will protect from the frequency and perhaps the severity of colds, but with the greatest of precautions they will come. This is a settled fact of human experience.

One is liable to catch cold in any season. Everybody must expect to be caught somewhere or somehow.

Perhaps it will be wet feet, or a draught, or damp clothes, or it may be one of a thousand other little mishaps, but no one is shrewd enough to always avoid the inevitable catching cold.

Pe-ru-na Contains no Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotics of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates the catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.
