The Temper of the Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, 30.—There are less than 30 members of Congress in the city. Among this number there is not a single one who advocates an extra session of the Forty-seventh Congress, or indulgence in any tactics to bring one about. The present outlook is that the coming session will be devoted almost exclusively, besides counting the electorial vote, to the passage of the regular appropriation bill, a funding bill, and perhaps an apportionment bill. It is not believed, despite the forthcoming recommendation of the President and Secretary of the Treasury, that there will be any legislation to affect the present status of the standard silver dollar with respect to its weight or amount of coinage. No amendatory tariff legislation will be anticipated. Undoubtedly an effort will again be made to put salt and paper pulp on the free list, but the whole subject of tariff revision will more probably be consigned to a commission as proposed by the Eaton bill. The general disposition is to keep politics out of debate as much as possible, especially in the House. If the republicans manifest a desire to make the session one of business only, the democrats will undoubtedly be disposed to accommodate them. The republicans may urge an extra session to enable their party to secure control of the organization of the House directly after March 4th. This will be frowned down by the leaders. All that could be gained by such control would be a few offices, and the disposition of republican leaders is to let the democrats hold on to them until December of next year. Of course there will be a special session of the Senate to confirm President Garfield's appointment. How long this will last will depend first upon the nature of the struggle that may take place over the matter of organization, and second, upon a possible contingency that the Chinese treaty may not by that time, have been ratified. If not, the Senate may doubtless remain in session as long as May in order to dispose of it. The Chinese question having now reached that degree of national interest that neither party will care to ignore it, there is also reason that in the event of the speedy ratification of the new treaty next winter some measure similar to the fifteen-passenger bill may be promptly enacted to make it effectual before the present Congress expires on the 4th of March by limitation.

The Census.

Gen. Francis A. Walker, superintendent of the census, has submitted his regular annual report to the Secretary of the Interior. He says that although the work of taking the tenth census is substantially complete, returns having been received from all but seven of the total number of 31,265 enumeration districts it will probably be two or three weeks before the office will be able to present statistics of the population of the country, and he therefore considers it advisable to postpone to a future report all mention of the enumeration, and also all discussion of the methods in use as well as any suggestions which may require to be made of changes of the census law, with reference to future enumerations.

The superintendent says every year and every month which can be saved in the compilation and publication of the census statistics, adds appreciably to their value, and recommends Congress be asked to authorize the printing by special contract, under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior, and if it be thought desirable also, of printing by the committee of the two Houses of Congress of the several reports of census as fast as prepared. The accounts of 28,140 enumerators have already been settled, involving a total expenditure of upwards of $1,820,000. Only about 1,200 accounts remain unadjusted, and there is no reason to doubt that the month of December will see all the enumerators paid for their services, except only in cases where suspension is required for reasons unmistakably connected with some fault of the enumerator.

A Crew of Life-savers Lost.

Capt. Worthen, of No. 8 Life-saving Station, reports that he picked up this morning the body of Capt. Atkins, of Station No 7, and the body of one of his crew. It is thought that Atkins and his crew, in attempting to board some stranded vessel during the night, were capsized and all were drowned, as no other bodies were found in the surf. Only the captain and two seamen were drowned. The crew had rescued three men from a stranded schooner and were about to take off the commander, when the schooner's boom struck and capsized the boat. The crew got ashore in an exhausted condition. The schooner drifted away with the captain and pilot.

Interview with a Congressman.

NEW YORK, 30.—The Times Washington special has a long interview with Congressman Berry, from which the following is gleaned: Senator Booth is visiting his parents at Terre Haute; Pacheco is in New York, both en route here. Berry believes Gen. Miller will undoubtedly be the republican choice for senator in California, but possibly the democrats will form a combination with disaffected republicans and reelect Booth or some other man opposed to Miller. Berry claims Miller's connection with the Alaska Fur Company is opposed by some republicans. Berry is not very sanguine of Miller's defeat, but rather believes he will succeed. The Coast democracy were injured rather than aided by the Morey letter, as they regarded Garfield's position on the Chinese question bad at any rate. Berry anticipates a stalwart administration with Grant, Conkling, Cameron and Gorham in the fore, and Gorham controlling the patronage of California.

The California Senatorship.

The Times San Francisco correspondent has no doubt of the election of Gen. Miller to succeed Booth. He adds: Booth's course in the Senate has not increased his popularity at home. When he was elected, great things were expected of him. There was no question about his ability or his brilliancy. But his indolence stood as a barrier to his fame. Californians saw with great disappointment that in the great controversy in the Senate over the sinking fund bill he allowed nearly all the serious work to be done by Thurman and others, contenting himself with one or two speeches. To-day Booth is regarded by the inhabitants of California as a man of splendid ability, but without energy to direct them to a useful purpose. The name of Judge Belden, of San Jose, is sometimes spoken of, but he will not receive more than the complimentary vote of his delegation.

The President Relief Fund.

The Sun says: Geo. Jones, of the Times, was asked yesterday whether subscriptions to the ex-President fund had really been made by Vanderbilt, Mackay and others. He said: "I do not feel at liberty to print the names of all the contributors at present. I believe the project was initiated by myself. The reason for it was the fact that Grant is at present not in very good circumstances pecuniarily. His income is only about $7,000 a year. The reason why he has not more is because when he was in office he lived generously and kept up the dignity of the office in his method of receiving guests. We are at present waiting for Boston folks, and I expect that the whole fund will be raised very soon."

The Erie Railroad.

The only ticket voted in the annual meeting of the Erie Railroad was the present list of directors. For the first time since the boom in stocks began, cash stocks are 2 to 2½ lower than "buyer five days" to "buyer 30." This is due to the tight money market; ½ per day has been paid beside the regular 6 per cent. President Jewell cast 800,000 votes, representing by proxy four-fifths of the stock. The annual report shows surplus earnings over $1,500,000 after the payment of all expenses, interest and fixed charges. The operating expenses are materially reduced through narrow guage track and heavier locomotives.

Mail Fraud.

PHILADELPHIA, 30.—The trial of Dr. John Buchanan for using the mails of the United States to defraud, was commenced this morning in the United States district court. After hearing the testimony, Judge Butler directed to the jury to acquit the defendant, upon the technical ground that there was no evidence to sustain the charge of using the mails to defraud. Those who purchased knew what they were getting, and intended to use it to defraud others.

A Wife Murderer.

FARM LAND, Ind., 30.—Last night Wm. Burris, who had been drinking all day and quarreling with everyone he met, especially with his family, took up a double barreled shot gun, and while his wife was sitting with the babe in her arms, shot her through the head, killing her instantly. He was arrested and taken to Winchester. He claims that he shot her accidentally. He came near shooting her once before with the same weapon, while drunk.

An Offer to Blaine.

CHICAGO, 30.—The Tribune's Washington special says: An intimate friend of Garfield's says Blaine came to Washington at the request of Garfield for a confidential conference. They breakfasted together, and there is little doubt that Garfield tendered and Blaine declined the Secretaryship of State and the Treasury portfolio. This information is given for what it is worth, which is probably very little.
