LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—There was another large audience on Saturday evening to see Mr. Joe Murphy in "Help." The interest of the audience culminated in the many character performances of Murphy. He is a wonderful master of the "bones," and this portion of the entertainment was worth the price of admission for once.

This evening "Help" will be presented for the last time.

FIRE.—About four o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire broke out in the barn of Mr. Thomas Taysum, 17th Ward. There were three or four dwelling houses in close proximity to the burning building, but fortunately the wind was blowing from the south, sending the flames among the fruit trees, numbers of which were greatly scorched. Had the wind been blowing from the east or west nothing could have prevented some of the residences from taking fire and being destroyed. A number of citizens lent willing aid by endeavoring to subdue the flames and prevent them from catching other buildings, among the most energetic of whom was Mr. Marshall, of the firm of Marshall & Carter, who threw off his coat and "pitched in" with a will. The barn was entirely destroyed.

ARRIVED.—The officers of the U.C.R.R. ran a special train to Ogden yesterday afternoon to meet the honorable delegates Wm H. Hooper, Geo. Q. Cannon and Frank Fuller on their arrival at Ogden. Mayor D. H. Wells, Hons. Brigham Young, jun., Joseph F. Smith, Hon. Thos. Fitch, Wm Jennings and S. A. Mann, H. S. Eldredge and H. B. Clawson, Esqrs, General Barnum and a number of other gentlemen and ladies, friends of the delegates, met and welcomed them at Ogden. Those gentlemen looked and felt highly pleased at the reception and seemed overflowing with good-humor and happiness at returning after their prolonged absence. Though doubtless somewhat fatigued with the journey, they never looked more rugged and healthy.

The party all returned on the special train about half-past six o'clock in the evening.

NEW BRAKE.—On the special train that ran the delegates at Ogden yesterday a new railroad brake, the invention of Mr. S. Y. Clouser, now a resident of this city, was tested. The success of the trial was highly gratifying to those interested in it. Experienced railroad men say this brake is sure to supersede all others now in use. For simplicity and effectiveness it far surpasses the air brake, which is generally considered the best used, as the former can be worked by one man with but slight exertion. The brakeman is only required to raise an iron lever with his left hand, as he sits at ease in the front car, which lowers a moveable shaft around which the brake chain winds, and on which is a large wheel, until the latter rests on a friction wheel attached to the axle of the car, causing a revolution of the large wheel and the winding up of the chain to any desired extent, when it can be as easily locked in its place by moving a lever with the right hand. The use of this brake will obviate the necessity for so many brakemen as are at present required and will be especially valuable for passenger trains, which do not require uncoupling very often. The inventor has applied for a patent for this brake, both in the United States and England. A company has been incorporated in this city, composed of some of our most influential citizens, for extending the use of the new brake, and Mr. Clouser will leave for the east in a few days for the purpose of having his invention patented, and extending its use on the different railroads throughout the country.

EMIGRANTS FROM GREAT BRITAIN.—By a private letter from Elder George Reynolds, now in Liverpool, England, to a gentleman in this city, who has courteously given us the item, we learn that it was expected that the first company of English and Swiss Saints for this year's emigration would start from Liverpool June 15th, and the second company, mostly composed of Scandinavians, probably on the 1st of July. There will be about twenty emigrate from the Swiss and Italian mission. The number of Saints emigrating this season it was thought would not be so large as that of last year.

SPIRIT LIQUOR SELLING.—John R. Turbitt, who keeps a drinking saloon on Second South Street, and his two bar tenders, were arrested last evening for breaking the ordinance against selling liquor on Sundays. At the time the arrest was made there were from twenty to thirty men in the saloon, a number of whom were drinking. It is asserted that Turbitt frequently signified his intention of defying the City ordinances, and it is supposed that he had a number of his friends around him yesterday, who were pledged to "see him through" in the matter. Himself and bar tenders were taken to the City Hall and placed in the City jail to await examination.

Later in the evening a crowd of men, numbering about thirty, went to the City Hall and requested Turbitt's release, offering to give bonds for him. They were informed they must apply to the city prosecuting attorney. The crowd next visited the residence of Judge Z. Snow. The latter was not at home, and the ladies of the house were much frightened at the appearance of so large a body of men at so late an hour in the evening. We are informed that the crowd next went to a certain young person who once got snubbed for insulting ladies at an election, and that he, with the assistance of another individual, made out a writ of Habeas corpus, which was taken to Judge McKean, whom, we understand, the crowd waked out of his nocturnal slumbers that he might sign the document. As the crowd did not, however, return to the City Hall, it is safe to say that the Judge had too much good sense to give the writ his judicial endorsement.

We are told that the crowd made sundry bombastic threats about running the city, &c., but, of course, this amounted, as is usual on such occasions, to so much wind. They were, however, quite orderly at the City Hall.

The city is not going to be run by lawbreakers, and we advise that class of individuals not to try it.

The case was to come up before Justice Clinton at four o'clock this afternoon.

AN IMPUDENT ROBBERY.—A rather impudent robbery was committed in the 15th Ward yesterday, of which Mr. Joseph Chamberlain was the victim. Mr. C. was in an upstairs room of his dwelling, and was the only person in the house at the time. Hearing his front gate opened, he looked out of the window and saw a man entering, whom he supposed to be a companion of his sons making a usual call. As there was no one below stairs Mr. C. expected to see the supposed visitor leave, but not doing so, he descended, when he found that a thief had been at work, for the drawer of a bureau was open, and from it had been taken a pocket-book containing a few dollars in money, and several due bills, amounting in all to about two hundred dollars. Mr. Chamberlain thinks that when the thief heard him descending the stairs, he made his exit in a hurry from the front door of the dwelling, as that was left open. The proceeds of the robbery will be of slight benefit to its perpetrators, for the due bills are for grain, and payment will be stopped; but the transaction shows the increased necessity for precautions against thieves that now exist in Salt Lake City.

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—As the Democratic Territorial Central Committee were not appointed at the Democratic Convention, at the City Hall, on Saturday till after we went to press, we herewith give the names of the gentlemen who were chosen:

H. D. Johnson, A. Minor, E. M. Barnum, J. Gordon, C. Walker, J McNeil, S. M. Blair, J. E. Johnson, R. C. Chambers, H. B. Clemons and M. R. Meyer.

MEETINGS AT MILL CREEK.—Two days' meetings were held on Saturday and Sunday, June 15th and 16th, in Mill Creek Ward, Bishop Reuben Miller presiding on Saturday and President Joseph Young on Sunday.

On Saturday the meeting was addressed by Bishop S. A. Woolley, on the first principles of the gospel, and the necessity of the Saints being self sustaining; Elder Isaac Groo, on resisting the powers of darkness, and the necessity of making homes attractive to the young to prevent them going in the ways of sin; President Joseph Young, on the discerning of spirits; W. G. Young, on the gift of healing, and the proper training of children, and Milo Andrus on individual preparation for inheriting future blessings, President Joseph Young concluding the day's services with a few appropriate remarks. The Mill Creek Sunday School is in excellent condition, having 225 scholars and thirty two teachers; brother David McAllister Superintendent. Addresses were delivered to the scholars by Bishop L. D. Young, Pres. Jos Young and Elder R. F. Neslen.

The Sunday meetings were addressed by the following brethren:

Bishop Reuben Miller, Pres Jos Young, Bishop L. D. Young and Elder David Candland; on the emigration of the poor from the nations; Elder R. F. Neslen, on the emigration of the poor abroad, and the necessity of paying up indebtedness to the P. E. fund, Elias Smith bore testimony of the truth of the gospel; Milo Andrus on the course pursued by the enemies of the Saints; W. G. Young on the emigration of the poor; Bishop L. D. Young, on the necessity of faithfulness. The proceedings were concluded by a few timely remarks by Pres. Joseph Young.

BURIED. — The remains of Henry Broughton, the young man who was drowned in Jordan a week ago yesterday were interred yesterday morning.
