

VOTING FOR U. S. SENATOR.

Joint Session of the Legislature Continues the Work Today.

HOW THE BUSINESS WENT ON.

Legislators Hold Two Sessions in the Effort to Complete the Job—Proceedings in the Senate and House on the Twenty-seventh Day.

An air of expectancy that something new would happen in the senatorial contest seemed to pervade people's minds this morning. A large crowd gathered at the hall, in anticipation of developments. During the first ballot, Representative Johnson did something unusual among the supporters of Mr. Clifton. He made a speech in behalf of the man of his choice. It was an eloquent and able piece which would probably win him two votes. On the first ballot, Mr. Clifton, the independent Republican, broke away from his colleagues and voted for Mr. Cannon, making a speech in which he declared his intention to vote for him to the end. This kept up the vote of Mr. Cannon at the only variation that has yet occurred in it being the absence of Hiramwood and the absence of Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson returned to his first choice, A. W. McCune, having King with 11 votes and raising McCune to 25.

The joint assembly reconvened at 3 p. m. and immediately began to ballot for United States Senator. The first ballot showed Cannon, 31; King, 11; McCune, 27; Brewer, 2; Richardson, 11. Law and Taylor voted for Cannon; Senator Cannon and Representative Hiramwood and N. E. Harris were absent. There was no change on the 14th and 15th ballots.

Either moved that when the assembly divides it be met at 11 a. m. on Monday. Carried. Cannon moved an adjournment. The motion was voted on. The result was Cannon, 31; King, 11; McCune, 27; Brewer, 2; Richardson, 11. Cannon having come in. The 17th ballot gave King, 11; McCune, 25; Wheeler, 27; Richardson, 11. The motion was defeated, 42 yeas, 42 nays. A majority of 42 yeas to 42 nays was required to adjourn to Monday. The 18th and 19th ballots showed no change.

OFFICIALS IN ASSEMBLY. Two speeches were made in this session. First Cannon, and then King. Cannon's speech was very able and was well received, as it was of great interest.

LAW GOES TO CANNON. Representative Law of Cache, the Independent Republican who came here for his party caucus, and who has the support of the Independent Republicans, was separately and apart from them in the matter pertaining to the senatorial contest. He said that he was not going to vote for either of the candidates, but that he would vote for the man who he believed to be the best man for the job.

JOHNSON'S TRIBUTE TO CANNON. Representative Johnson said: Since the senatorial contest began three weeks ago, I have been in the hall, and I have seen the men who are running for the office. I have seen the men who are running for the office, and I have seen the men who are running for the office. I have seen the men who are running for the office, and I have seen the men who are running for the office.

JOHNSON'S TRIBUTE TO CANNON. Representative Johnson said: Since the senatorial contest began three weeks ago, I have been in the hall, and I have seen the men who are running for the office. Diretti as a Flibber-London Cabbies Have a Grievance—Welcome for Choice.

London, Feb. 4.—[Special cable copy, rights, by the Associated Press.]—Queen Victoria is to return to Windsor from Osborne on Tuesday next and will receive the new Order of the Bath. Mr. Joseph H. Chamberlain will present his credentials before her majesty starts for the Riviera. Mr. Chamberlain's reputation as a wit and a smart after dinner speaker has preceded him. The newspapers are full of his witty sayings and the stories credited to him, some true but mostly untrue. In fact from the report he was sent for on Tuesday night, Mr. Chamberlain will be expected to outshine the other guests.

Panama Canal is Being Rapidly Pushed to Completion.

IT WILL COST $262,000,000

Thirty-six Miles of Annual Water in the Big Ditch—2,000 K. H. Horses Working.

New York, Feb. 4.—The Herald says: Reports of extensive work on the Panama canal are brought by Charles L. Doolittle, an English civil engineer, who has just arrived here from Colon. Mr. Doolittle said: "I have visited the canal on several occasions since 1897, but I have never seen anything like the activity which is at present going on. The French are evidently in earnest and are proceeding at a wonderfully rapid rate. They are concentrating their energies on the great locks, the most serious obstacle now. The whole canal is being pushed forward. The canal is being pushed forward. The canal is being pushed forward."
