L. B. MATTHEWS, formerly of "Matthew & Johnson," announces to the Farmers and Freighters of Utah, that he is "general agent" for the "Matthew Farm, Freight and Spring Wagons." I ask of those who are wanting wagons, to examine the New Patent Steel Sheets, sent only on the "Matthew Wagons." My stock of Spring Wagons will be complete, from the largest, down to the most stylish top Buggy. I shall carry a full line of the famous "Champion Reapers and Mowers" which are too well known to demand comment. I will mention the "Champion Haymaker Mowers" something new in Mowing Machinery. Call and send for a catalog. I have just received the agency for "Russell's" "Matthew, Wm. Threshing Machines" and "Portable Steam Engines," and will furnish them to buyers good terms. For further particulars call or address.

It is well known.

Many grocers sell Dr. Price's Crest Baking Powder at the same price as the cheaper kinds, and as they are more for it, make less money. Hence, they never sell it unless the purchaser demands it. Pure articles can be made as cheap as those that are adulterated.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Friar's Good Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the Priests of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, will be held in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, on Saturday, March 2nd, beginning at 11 a.m.

It is expected that each Ward in the Stake will be represented by the Bishop and his Councilors, and also the presidents of quorums, so far as they can conveniently meet.

SARUS M. CANNON,
D. J. CALDER,
J. P. TAYLOR,
President of the Stake.

High Council.—All the members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House on Wednesday morning, the 27th inst., at 10 o'clock A.M.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Agreeable Surprise.—Brother James E. Taylor, Superintendent of the 31 Ward Sunday-school, had an agreeable surprise last night.

The teacher and a number of the pupils called at his residence, in the capacity of a surprise party, and presented him with a large, handsomely bound Bible, as a testimonial of the respect and esteem in which he is held by the donors.

Filmoro's Library.—Joseph D. Smith, of Filmoro, writes, on the 20th inst., a friend in this city—

"The people here are generally feeling well. We are having a large quantity of snow deposited in the mountains this winter; more than we had for several years.

Our Young Ladies' Association is doing well and improving.

Our Sunday school is well attended, and a general spirit of religion seems to be working in the minds of the children.

Letter-day—This is encouraging to me, and to all who have to take an active part in the matter.

Art Specimen.—Mr. Dan Wegeland has just finished a couple of excellent portraits, one of the late Hon. Joseph A. Young and the other of Hon. John W. Young. The first is a more striking picture of the two, being a remarkably truthful likeness. It is so lifelike that, at first glance, a person is apt to imagine himself in presence of the original. In fact, we have not seen a more truthful or better executed portrait in this Territory.

The artist was guided in his work by his recollections of the original and a small photograph of him, and the inspiration that animates the genuine painter. The details of the painting are carried out with great delicacy and earnestness, and exaggeration in every respect has been happily avoided. The finely cut, handsome features of the deceased gentlemen, etc., above all, his natural expression, are depicted in excellent relief. We congratulate the artist upon this, in our view, his greatest artistic achievement.

The portrait of Hon. John W. Young is also an excellent likeness, well painted in every particular. It is a copy, however, from a life-size oil painting, and therefore so much credit for it as smart specimen can not be accorded to Mr. Wegeland if it had been an original picture, the work of the first artist naturally taking precedence in point of merit. However, it is an excellent copy of the picture from which it was taken.

Scribner.—The paper in the March Scribner to which most readers will probably turn is Noah Brooks' "Personal Recollections of Lincoln" culminated from the Midwinter number. Of a similar interest is "Life Days of Edgar A. Poe," by Mrs. Maria Archer Wright, who knew Poe intimately in Richmond. Of the illustrated papers, at least may be said to deserve unusual attention, viz., "An American in Normandy" and "A Trip to Central America." The illustrations, a striking amount of artistry, and a wealth of historical information, etc., will be found in the former.

Hill said he was compelled to leave the city before the final vote was taken on the silver bill, and his purpose was to pass on the Senate amendments. He had said that with certain amendments he would vote for the silver bill, and did not intend to say in advance to which he would vote against the bill.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Michael Shugrue, of Mississippi, has been nominated Marshal for Utah.

Variety Shows Raised.

NEW YORK, N.Y.—The Columbia Opera House and Egyptian Hall, two of the principal variety places of entertainment, were raised, last evening, by the police. All the actors and employees were arrested and the audience dismissed.

Breaking Up Illicit Distilleries.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—United States Marshals, Collector Davis has returned from breaking up fifteen illicit distilleries in Dekabry, White and Putnam Counties, and arresting 14 men.

The Poisonous Well.

RICHFIELD, Vt.—A young woman, named Button, is the fourth death from drinking the water of the poisoned well. Other deaths are expected.

Terms of Peace Unintelligible.

CHICAGO, Ill.—The Times London special says: There were very excited discussions, yesterday, over the terms of peace. The conservative organs agree in denouncing the clause relating to the New Bulgarian and Egyptian tribute, which are to be met by the Bulgarian and Egyptian tribute, has aroused a storm of English indignation. The Egyptian tribute is already employed and the morale is epitomized. The poetry is by Celia Thaxter, Bayonne, Caroline A. Mason, and Emma Lazarus. In "Topics of the Time," Dr. Holland discusses "An Epidemic of Dishonesty," and "Fiction," and establishes a niche for "Editorial Correspondence." Articles in the other departments are generally of greater length than usual.

Heber City.—"Arctic" communications from Heber City. He says the winter there has been unusual, not enough snow for sleighing, but a superabundance of mud. The place has been liberally supplied with amusements, imported and local. Some of the former are scarcely worthy of mention. The Heber City Dramatic Association were regaling the lovers of the dramatic art; a free lecture is delivered on Thursday of each week. The latest was on "Geography," by Mr. M. J. Shelton, which was listened to by a large and attentive audience.

Mutual Improvement.—At a recent meeting of the Mutual Improvement Association of E. T. City, the following were elected officers for the ensuing term of one year:

President, James Maxwell; counselors, William E. Moss and Thos. J. Evert; secretary, Wm. T. Maxwell; treasurer, Brigham Davis.

The young men of the settlement are improving, the association excelling a most salutary influence over them.

The second annual meeting of the Salem, Utah County, Association took place recently. The forenoon was occupied in the rendition of various intellectual and religious exercises, and the time in the afternoon and evening was spent in the capacity of a ball, in which the members of the Young Ladies Association participated.

Previous to the annual meeting the regular election of officers took place, with the following result:

President, David R. Taylor; counselors, Heber C. Reed and P. A. Peterson; clerk, John N. Edmans; assistant clerk and corresponding secretary, Daniel W. Jackson; treasurer, Wm. Bahr; librarian, Joseph N. Curtis.

There are 26 members in the Association. The library at present consists of 36 volumes which cost about forty dollars.

The Association is in a thriving condition, and the members seem to be desirous of fitting themselves to be useful members in the Church and Kingdom of God."

The Heber City, Wasatch County, Association holds weekly meetings. It has a good library, which is being improved. An addition of $30 worth of books has been recently sent for.

The Young Ladies' Association of the same place has also sent for a quantity of books.

Mischief Work.—Mr. Hawkin, of the 11th Ward, complains that two boys have recently annoyed him greatly by smashing his windows and otherwise damaging his property. He states that, on Sunday night, he had a few "street" arrests, by way of examples, might remedy the matter.

The original resolution was agreed to, and Ferry was escorted to the President's desk by Thurman. Before taking the chair he said: Thanking you Senators for another proof of your confidence, and relying on your generous support, I will at once enter upon the duties to which you have chosen me.
