

KUROKI DEFEATS KUROPATKIN'S ARMY

All the Russian Positions East of Hain-Cheng Have Been Abandoned.

LAND ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR

Was Begun Yesterday Morning, Forces Driven South from Dalny Assisting Garrison.

FORTRESS NO DOUBT WILL FALL.

So Say Refugees from There—Russian Officers Are Desperately Gloomy.

London, June 1.—A special dispatch from Rome says a telegram has been received there from Tokio reporting that Gen. Kuroki has completely defeated Gen. Kuropatkin's forces near Somenz (probably Salmatza or Simat-si).

All the Russian positions east of Hain-Cheng have been abandoned, according to the telegram; several guns have been taken and whole squadrons of Cossacks captured.

It is possible the news received in Rome refers to the fighting reported in last night's Associated Press dispatches from Liao Yang and St. Petersburg. These did not indicate a general engagement but showed that a series of sharp engagements had taken place east of Simat-si, lasting from the morning of May 27 until daylight May 30, which resulted in severe losses on both sides and the retirement of the Russians upon Simat-si. The latter place is 35 miles north of Feng Wang Cheng.

LAND ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR.

Indianapolis, June 1.—A special cable from the staff correspondent of the Indianapolis News at Chefoo, dated June 1, says:

A Japanese land attack on Port Arthur was begun yesterday morning. Russian forces that were driven southward from Dalny and Kin Chou by the Japanese are assisting the garrison at Port Arthur and the Russian navy has joined in the movement to repulse the enemy.

"There may be several days of skirmishing and outpost work before the Russian city is taken, but it is the opinion of refugees who have arrived here from the beleaguered Gibraltars that the Russians eventually must succumb to overwhelming numbers.

"Dalny, Kin Chou, Tellenwan and Nan Shan have already fallen before the Japanese."

RUSSIAN OFFICERS GLOOMY.

Tien Tsin, June 1, morning.—A courier, who has arrived here from Newchwang says:

"While it is known that the Russians received reports from Mukden last night, giving the losses sustained by them during the fighting at Kin Chou and Nan Shan and the conditions prevailing, they will not talk on the subject. The officers are desperately gloomy. The press bulletin giving the results of the fighting on the Kwang Tung peninsula with the comments on the victory of the Japanese, was suppressed on its arrival, but was released when the Russians learned that two copies of it were in possession of the Japanese and were being shown to other people. The Tien Tsin newspapers, which reached Newchwang last night were eagerly snapped up. Knots of officers stood in the streets and in about the club eagerly scanning the papers.

"Six hundred junk loads of supplies, mostly beans and grain, purchased at Newchwang, were shipped to Liao Yang yesterday. These were the same supplies which the Russians ordered from the Chinese interior at the time of the second evacuation scare, saying the Japanese would confiscate or burn them. The Russians were compelled to pay four times the prices demanded a month ago.

"The Russians are again meditating with the telegraph offices between Newchwang and Shan Hai Kwan."

COMMANDERING SUPPLIES.

Seoul, June 1, 10:30 p. m.—The Russian bands scattered throughout Ham Heung province are encountering considerable difficulties. The countryside is fully supplied with food and owing to the bad crops of the past two years. Since the first Russian raid there has been no trade at Yensan and Ham Heung and consequently no importations of food stuffs. The Russian movements in Korea caused widespread starvation and they are now experiencing the same difficulties in obtaining food.

A detachment of 20 Cossacks with two Korean interpreters, yesterday ordered the governor of Ham Heung to arrange for suitable supplies.

A Japanese newspaper published here yesterday bitterly attacked the Korean home minister, Yi Yung Tai. The latter's sale of offices angered the prime minister, Cho Pin Sik, and a quarrel ensued, which resulted in the latter's resignation and resignation. The Japanese paper demands that the Korean authorities take action against Yi Yung Tai.

Lanning now represents the Fourth New Jersey district in the house of representatives, and succeeds the late Edward Mann. Jas. C. Crueson, N. M., to be assistant judge of the New Mexico supreme court. This is a new position created by the last session of Congress. The appointment was recommended by the state public organization of New Mexico.

MILES AND PROHIBITIONISTS. They Would Nominate Him if Identified With Them.

Chicago, June 1.—Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the National Prohibition committee, said today:

"Gen. Miles would without a doubt be nominated by the Prohibitionists at Indianapolis, June 29, if he were known to be identified with the Prohibition party. It is one of which Prohibitionists are proud. They confess to a great admiration for him. If he were to identify himself with the Prohibition party, he would be a patriotic citizen, he would support the Prohibition party and support its ideals. It is my belief that there would be no other name proposed in the national convention. However, Gen. Miles has made no public statement to the effect that he intends to co-operate with the Prohibition party. He has suggested that he postpone our convention until after the national Democratic convention at St. Louis on the ground that possibly the Democratic party will make a nomination which will make a nomination by the Prohibitionists unnecessary. This is unsatisfactory to the rank and file of the Prohibition party. We are confident the Democrats will make no such move and propose to go ahead with our convention and make our nomination. Gen. Miles is not with us to the extent of least being willing to make an open public statement to that effect. It is necessary to the conviction of the most thoughtful Prohibitionists that we must look elsewhere for a nominee. It is my belief that the convention at Indianapolis will be more largely attended than any gathering ever held by the Prohibition party."

MINERS AND LABORERS.

Committee's Report on Affiliation Of Two Now Ready.

Denver, June 1.—The committee on affiliation of the Western Federation of Miners and the American Federation of Labor has completed its report. W. D. Haywood, of the Western Federation of Miners, said today that the committee report is ready for the miners' convention this afternoon. ## Heavy Rain in Kansas.

Kansas City, June 1.—Two inches of rain fell in southern Kansas today, and it is probable that all streams which had been receding in the past few days will again rise and overflow their banks.

Hutchinson, Kan., June 1.—This section and all southwestern Kansas was drenched by a heavy rain accompanied by hail. Between Bucklin and Mead on the Rock Island road hail did much damage to crops. Hail broke nearly every window on the north side of an eastbound Rock Island train and broke out glass cut several passengers. Miss Foster, of Fowler, was so severely cut that a physician's attention was necessary.

OKLAHOMA DEMOCRATS.

Determined Fight Will Be Made Against Hearst Delegation.

Anadarko, Ok., June 1.—Before the Oklahoma Democratic territorial convention, to elect six delegates to the national convention, was called to order here today, the indications were that a determined fight would be made against instructions for Hearst. The strength of the delegates for and against instructions for the New Yorker, however, seemed about evenly divided. Leslie G. Niblack, editor of the Guthrie Leader, leads the Hearst faction. The argument against instructions is made principally on the ground that Oklahoma, fighting for statehood, would lay itself liable to attack of the eastern wing of the party in case it instructed for Hearst and he were defeated.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS.

Canvass Shows Delegates Are Against Hearst.

Detroit, June 1.—Shortly before the opening today of the Democratic state convention to elect delegates to the national convention at St. Louis, it was stated by a prominent anti-Hearst leader that a canvass had been made of the counties with the result that 80 per cent of the delegates were found to be against instructions for the state delegation. The same tabulation showed, according to the informant, a predominating sentiment in favor of the unit rule and 75 per cent of the delegates to be anti-Hearst.

Lewis G. Stevenson, a Hearst leader, stated on the other hand that six of the 12 congressional districts were solidly in the Hearst column, and that there was little doubt of the Hearst people being able to carry another district, making seven for instructions for Hearst.

William E. McKnight of Grand Rapids made the claim that the Hearst supporters would elect 14 out of the 24 districts, and at least two of the four delegates-at-large.

NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS.

Only Contest is for Delegates-at-Large.

Omaha, June 1.—Nearly all of the 1,500 delegates to the Democratic state convention arrived on the early morning trains caucused and district conventions were held early. William J. Bryan, to whom everybody looked as the central figure of the convention, did not arrive until noon, although the Lancaster delegation came in earlier. Former Supreme Court Justice Sullivan announced that his recent endorsement for the vice presidential nomination by his party in Nebraska was unauthorized by him, and he stated that he would be forced to withdraw his name if it should be presented in the convention.

The convention was held at the University club by Elmer B. Jones in honor of President Eugene Satterlee of the Stromberg-Carlson Manufacturing company of Rochester, N. Y. Among the guests were Senator Thomas Kearns, Frank Knox, George T. Odell, S. F. Fenton, Perry G. Heath, J. H. Young, E. B. Cretshaw and S. V. Shelp. After lunch Mr. Jones showed the party over the new building of the Independent Telephone company on State street.

Mr. Satterlee is one of the most prominent attorneys in western New York, and a graduate of the University of Rochester, 1887. ## IS THIS KINGSLEY?

Provo Man Thinks He May Have Discovered Missing New Yorker.

The item in last night's "News" concerning the mysterious disappearance of Henry Baxter Kingsley, a wealthy New Yorker, for whose apprehension a reward of $10,000 is offered by relatives, may be the means of determining the old gentleman's whereabouts. In this connection the "News" today received the following from G. W. Hyde, proprietor of the Hyde House at Provo:

Provo City, Utah, May 31.—Having noticed in this evening's "News" an article concerning a wealthy New Yorker whom Salt Lake detectives are searching for, I was quite forcibly struck with the same. Last Sunday night an old gray-headed man called at my place of business for supper and bed. He was rather a curious looking man, and I was anxious to know something about him, but he did not learn much as I was so busy. I soon learned or noticed, however, that he was somewhat demented. Upon taking him to his room, he said he wished it perfectly private, that he had lots of enemies and four men had tried to assassinate him. He stated that he had come from New York, and was a wealthy business man, that he had lost two fortunes and was endeavoring to avoid his enemies, who thought he had lots of money. At this point our conversation had to cease, and I was anxious to know more but did not. He claimed to be 80 years old but I would judge he was 60 or 70. He carried a knapsack and a cane across his shoulder and an old cane.

I don't know whether this information is correct or not, but it seems to me that I have thought considerably about the old gentleman.

Yours respectfully, G. W. HYDE.

Only one committee reported, that from the Utah & Salt Lake Canal company, which represented the company as being entirely agreeable to the plan of exchange of primary rights already secured. The other committees reported that there could not be an expression of opinion reported from their various companies for the present as that annual elections were pending in which there might be changes in the directorates.

BLAME THE MILLERS.

Flour and Grain Dealers Say They Are Responsible for Short Weights.

A prominent local grain and commission dealer says that the shortage in flour weights must be laid at the door of the mills, and calls attention to a recent weighing of sacks just for the purpose of finding how far this shortage might go. One sack was found to weigh 32 pounds, when it should have weighed 48, two pounds being allowed for the sack. The man who milled this flour, it is said, had made a boast that he was underselling the market, and this is the way he was doing it. He had undersold at 10 cents, but with six pounds of flour saved at 2 1/2 cents, he could undersell the market and still make five cents. A "News" reporter had several sacks of flour weighed some time ago in two commission houses, and a number of bags were found running from one to eight pounds and one bag was nearly eight pounds behind the stenciled figure on the package.

OLD RAILROADER DEAD.

Former Vice President Union Pacific Succumbs to Operation.

New York, June 1.—Samuel R. Callaway, president of the American Locomotive company and former president of the New York Central railroad, died today, following an operation for mastoiditis, aged 74 years.

Mr. Callaway was vice president of the Union Pacific in the eighties and had been connected with other railways.

President Callaway was known to all the old railroad men in the west. Although he was never located in this city, he often visited here, from Omaha, and many of the Union Pacific men of today remember him distinctly. He was born in 1830 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He was a general manager, as well as the Union Pacific. He either preceded or succeeded T. J. Potter in that capacity. The news of his death is generally regretted among railroaders in Salt Lake.

Mr. Callaway was born in Toronto, Ont., Dec. 24, 1850, and entered the service of the Grand Trunk in 1864. He was superintendent of the Detroit and Milwaukee road in 1874 and in 1876 became manager of the Chicago & Grand Trunk. In 1884 he became vice president of the Union Pacific and from 1887 to 1895 he was president of the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City. From 1895 to 1898 he was president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and from 1898 to 1901, when he became the head of the locomotive works, he was president of the New York Central.

Mr. Callaway is supposed to live in his New York home, which is at 718 Fifth avenue.

HEATH MAKES DENIAL.

Says He Is Not Going to Quit the Tribune or Salt Lake As Reported.

The report has been current for two or three days that Perry S. Heath, publisher and manager of the Tribune, was about to leave the city for good, relinquishing his business relations with Senator Kearns, and move to Nova Scotia. Mr. Heath vigorously denies the rumor.

It was said that Mr. Heath had given up his home, a fact that gave color to the report, and it was further reported that Senator Kearns had selected any other man as manager of the Tribune.

Mr. Heath was seen at his office this morning. Said he: "I do not know what particular scandal gave such a report circulation. Every time I turn my back, some one seems anxious to make a sensation of it and he like to try about me. The facts in the case are these. For the last 20 years I have taken a summer vacation of five weeks, except last summer when I was too busy engaged with other matters. Because Mr. Heath's health is better in that climate, I purchased Dewey's island near Hilo, Hawaii some years ago and that is where we spend our vacations. Next month we expect to go there for about five weeks, but will first visit with friends in Indiana. That is all there is to it.

"About the house-yes, we will give it up. I have lived here for 13 years, and I leased
