

*His Condition
Less Favorable.*

Doctors Find Young Roosevelt's Lung, Hitherto Clear, to be Affected—This Gives the Case a More Serious Aspect—Respiration and Temperature Higher but Pulse Better—Crisis of the Disease Will be Reached Wednesday.

Groton, Mass., Feb. 10.—The condition of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., was slightly more favorable this morning but not beyond what was to be expected. For the time, his lungs, hitherto clear, were found by the doctors to be affected by the influenza, but the coughing and the temperature were higher, but the pulse was better.

While the medical attendants claim the condition is not so serious as it was alarming, no attempt is made to conceal

White House for the President's private use. All the presidential mail comes to Groton by way of Worcester and Ayer.

It was learned today that another child in the school, John E. Thayer, Jr., is ill with what is in his home called "the grippe." The other two boys, Howard E. Potter of New York, and William Gannett of Providence, who are in the home building with the same disease, were reported slightly improved this morn-

President and Mrs. Roosevelt were with the sick boy all the forenoon. Young Theodore asked for his father early in the day, and seemed anxious that he should remain with him.

A special messenger arrived from Washington at 10:30 bringing documents, urgent in the extraordinary situation.

The visit of father and mother seemed to brighten up the patient considerably.

From the statements of the physician, Dr. George D. Shattuck of Boston, it appeared that the course of the disease will be reached on Wednesday the next two or three days are likely to show some seemingly unfavorable change, but it is not probable that anything more than the regular course of the

No plans have yet been made for the return of President Roosevelt to Washington. He can remain in Groton for ten days at least, so far as the pressure of public business is concerned. It seems probable that it will be a week before he leaves. Every facility has been made available.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 10.—The City Savings bank did not open for business this morning. At 10 o'clock the following notice was posted on the door:

"This bank is in the hands of George L. Maltz, banking commissioner.

"And the caption for the suspension Mr. Maltz said:

"Frank C. Andrews, vice president of the bank, a renaissance collector, is the reason. The bank had total de-directors of the City Savings bank make the following statement: Early on Saturday morning we learned for the first time that the vice president, cashier of the bank, had allowed Frank C. Andrews to overdraw his account to the sum of over $50,000, and had, without consideration, certified Frank C. Andrews' checks for over $700,000. The bank's checks were all outstanding. The bank was $700,000 posts of something over $3,000,000 and Andrews had more than a third of this money out on certified checks and overdrafts and checks in the hands of the bank and checks and bills in overdrafts. Henry R. Andrews, cashier of the bank, advanced this money to Frank C. Andrews without the knowledge of the directors. "You are a selfish man," said the latter, when he learned of the bank's condition, I closed it. I do not know," he said, in answer to another question, "whether any steps will be taken by the directors toward legal proceedings against the members of the bank." I will issue a statement this afternoon on the bank's condition. The

10.—General Andrae, the former president of Venezuela, who reached this island recently, embarked on board the revolutionary steamer Libertador during the night of Feb. 7-8. The Libertador some days ago landed a force of insurgents on the Venezuelan coast and they subsequently took possession of

The village of Cumarebo, situated near LaVela De Coro, The Venezuelan gunboat General Crespo, which attempted to prevent the landing, was fired upon and badly damaged by the Libertador. The Crespo had her propeller shaft broken.

The success of the Libertador, has caused a sensation at Caracas, where great commotion prevails. The news

Te-Cannonading has been heard here from early morning to the direction of the Venezuelan coast. It is believed that the Libertador has been engaged with another Venezuelan gunboat.

The report of the engagement between the Libertador and the General Crespo appears to be confirmed. It is further asserted that the Crespo sank in the roadstead of Cumarebo.
