EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY. - A gentleman named Augustus Taskey, convicted at the June term of the District Court in this city. of an assault with intent to kill, for which ne was consigned to the fatherly care of Warden Rockwood, the urbane keeper of the Penitentiary, for two years, has, for terest is manifested; over 100 persons aundry, divers, good and weighty reasons, rise for prayer daily. There are morn-been found a fit subject for Executive clem-ing prayer meetings in all churches, sipient of a document with a large seal, bearing the signature of the Governor of this Territory, containing his pardon.
Augustus is an extremely lucky individua,, and if he be half as wise as he is lucky he will never have occasion to be the subsect of Executive clemency again.

HOME MADE IRON.—There is no mistake about it this time, it is an accomplished fact | CAPITOLA. at last. We really had the pleasure of be- Major Warneld holding a specimen this morning, manu-factured in this city, by Mr. Hadyn Smith, a metallurgist and a life long worker in ron, from hematite specular iron ore, dug somewhere on the Weber. Mr. Smith says the oar will yield sixty per cent of exceltent Iron. The specimen he showed us commenced had been manufactured by Naylor Bros., into a staple, which felt as hard and looked as strong as such things usually do. It is to have a comfortable niche in the museum of Bro. John 'W. Land Investigation .-- The Supreme Court and Appellate Jurisdiction.

CHICAGO, 10. - Stewart, yesterday Men's heavy Kip Boots, offered, in the Senate, a joint resolution " " Brogan directing the Secretary of the Interior to suspend his orders of Nov. 2d and Ladies' Heavy Shoes, . $1.25 to 2.50 11th, restoring to private entry, land Ladies' and Misses' fine Goat, Kid heretofore withdrawn from the benefit of the Sonthern Pacific Railroad Co., Ladies' Opera Lasting Galters. Cal., until the present session of Con-gress, so that the interests of pre-emption by honest settlers versus the rights of the Railroad Company, may be investigated. Stewart explained that the object of his resolution was to prevent a decision in the matter referred to till it is investigated. Referred to the Pacific Railroad Committee.

Trumbull, from the judiciary, reported back Sumner's bill relating to appellate jurisdiction in the Supreme Court, with an amendment. The bill declares that judicial power does not embrace political power, or give judicials any authority to constitut the former and forbids. ty to question the former, and forbids the courts to attempt the exercise of such authority.

Section two declares that it rests with Congress to say what basis government is established on in a State, and declares that no civil State government exists in Virginia, Mississippi or Texas. It forbids either the Executive or Judicial authorities recognizing any of the so-called civil governments in those States as valid, until such State is represented in Congress. The bill proceeds to enumerate the various reconstruction acts of ate the various reconstruction acts of Congress, which it declares are political in character, and must not be questioned in the courts.

The Senate passed a bill removing political disabilities.
