CHURCH NOTICES.

The high priests of Granite stake will hold their monthly meeting at the stake tabernacle at 10 o'clock a. m. Sunday March 21. The subject, "The Duties of High Priests as Presid-ing Officers," will be discussed by some of the prominent elders. A full attendance is desired.

On Saturday, April 3, 1909, at 2 p. m., in the Eighteenth ward assembly hall, a meeting will be held, tog which all stake and local officers of the Frimary associations and others interested are bested.

Green was very much in evidence in own today in honor of the fifteen hunired and twentieth anniversary of the with of St. Patrick, patron saint of reland. The 17th of March is a day treland. The 17th of March is a day for great rejuicing on the part of all loyal frishmen, who will not allow small things to interfere with their beasure on this day of all days. It is time to them when all cares should be forgotten and they aim to give it is to church services, fetes and sports. These who are devoid paintly attend horch at least once in the day, while heave who are not so much so, think he day too small, and usually begin arily with their pleasure and end late. In the Roman Catholic church of the ty two services were held during the In the Roman Catholic church of the city two services were held during the day, and a special service is to take place this evening at 8 o'clock. Several parties are also scheduled for this evening in different parts of the city. The life of St. Patrick, which has been told for centuries, is very ro-mantic. It is said that he was born in England in the year A. D. 388. At the age of 16 he was seized by pirates and carried to Ireland as a prisoner of the age of 16 he was seized by pirates and carried to Ireland as a prisoner of war. He was kept in virtual slavery for six or seven years, during which time he saw a vision, as a result of a great spiritual change which had come over him. He then fied from his cap-tors and went to the Lerin Isles, where st. Honorat had founded a monastery. He studied there for three years and later went to Auxierre in Burgundy, where he remained 16 years in study. where went to Auxierre in Burgdbdy, where he remained 16 years in study. In the year 416 he was ordained, and in the year 432 he started to follow out his desire to reclaim the heathen of Ireland, and went to Inverdea. On his way up the coast he was met by the Druhi priests, and suffered much be conceiled from them. He oncoord persecution from them. He opposed them, and in this opposition stories are taid of his wonderful influence with the Supreme. He is said to have fast-the supreme. He is said to have have been handed down about his driving the snakes and reptiles out of the land. The sharmock, the emblem of St. Pareptiles out of the land. The shamrock, the emblem of St. Pa-trick's day, is said to have obtained its present significance through St. Patrick's comparing its three leaves with the holy trinity. GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

CHILDREN. The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care curned be used to protect the culdren. A child is much more likely to centract diphtheria or scarled fever when he has a cold. The quinker yeu cure his cold the less the pick, thamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole cellance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mes. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Ya, mays 'I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children, and if has always given good metisfaction.' This remedy contains no optium or oth-er narrotis and may he given as con-didentity to a child us to an adult. For sule by all druggists.

MUST REINFORCE BUILDING

In order to make entirely safe the way public school building which is to he creeted on the ald Walker site and to be created on the ald Walker site and to be known as the Jefferson-school, the foundation will have to be enlarged on account of the soil, which is unstable. This will east about $1.500 additional. The architect. Richard Kletting, has recommended that the basement floar be increased to 18 inches in thickness and that it be reinforced with old steel rais. The commutice of buildings and grounds which met yesterday agroed to recom-mend the architect's changes to the board of education.

Quick elimatic changes try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils, massi catairth, a troublesome and officiality instance. Sneezing and smir-filing, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drin, drip of the foul discharge into the threat-ail are ended by Ely's Cream Raim. This honest remedy con toits no cossine, mercury, nor other hurmful ingredient. The worst cause yield to treatment in a short time. All druggists, She, or mailed by Ely Bros., is Warren Street, New York.
