 ceries, crockery and hardware to S. P.
 Teasdale, who has already commenced moving the same to the Eagle House.

A COLLISION happened on the Utah & Northern Railroad, near Meserve a day or two ago. Considerable damage was done to the rolling stock. No one was seriously hurt.

THE Knights of St. Dennis have decided to give another of their delicious parties in Sheldon's Hall, Friday evening, Jan. 30. This music will be furnished by Olsen's band. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

ON Wednesday evening held the 20th Ward Institute and the 21st Ward Mutual Improvement Association will meet conjointly in the 21st Ward meeting house, at 1:30. Each association will furnish half the programme.
 A sociable time is anticipated.

H. H. BOLAPP, Esq., who graduated as a law student in the Ann Harbor University, and has been practicing as an attorney in the Idaho courts until recently, when he removed to Ogden, was admitted to the bar by the commendation of C. C. Richards, Esq., to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court of the Territory.

THE entertainment given last evening in the Ninth Ward, for the benefit of the new meeting house, was a very enjoyable affair. "Old Phil's Birthday" was rendered in a creditable manner, as was the rest of the programme, in which Miss Ida Hitchcock, Miss Mamie Evans, W. Newson, James Crawford and others took part.

LOCAL NEWS.

Adjourned Again.—Commissioner McKay's court convened as per adjournment at 11 a.m., to continue the examination of witnesses in the Cannon case. After waiting about half an hour, the court was continued until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, as Dr. Mattie Hughes the witness wanted by the prosecution had not yet been subpoenaed.

Bust of Brigham Young.—Brother J. H. Brown, Jr., the young sculptor whose work we have had occasion to refer to before, brought to our sanctuary to-day a specimen of his latest production in sculpture, in the shape of a plaster bust of the late President Brigham Young. Our readers may judge of its merits from the opinion passed upon it by a relative of the original, who called at a moment's notice, and who unhesitatingly pronounced it the best of the subject yet executed.

Where is that Witness?—This morning's act of the force performed by Commissioner McKay's office was unusually brief. When the curtain rose on the scene it disclosed a number of not over-jubilant officials, but the long-looked-for witness, Miss Mattie Hughes, was not there. Her agent-deputed Deputy Marshal had failed to find her. This is rather remarkable, as a gentleman informs us that he saw Miss Hughes in Mr. S. P.
 Teasdale's store last night, making purchases, and by "go means" acting as if she wished to see herself from observation. The leading question on the street to-day is "Where is Miss Mattie Hughes?"

THE CHARITY BALL.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

The ball given at the Opera House, last evening, for the benefit of the St.
 Mark's Hospital, was a grand success financially. About four hundred persons enjoyed themselves until a late hour. The committee were very attentive and their endeavors added much to the enjoyment of the guests, while the splendid band furnished delightful music. A sumptuous supper was spread in Stearns' parlors. The participants went home well satisfied, and amply repaid for their trouble and expense.

The "News" Statement Correct.
 The following statement from Mr.
 James McCurdy, the deputy marshal who served the subpoenas upon the members of President Angus M. Cannon's family, appeared in the Herald this morning:

"THE DESERT NEWS on Wednesday evening published a number of things about my visit to Mr. Cannon's house, which were totally untrue and unpleasant to me. I went there and knocked at the door, a servant girl opened it, and I asked to see Mrs.
 Amanda Cannon. I went in with her, and remained in the hallway while she knocked at a door. She said that Mrs.
 Cannon was sick, and asked if she was so sick to see me, and she said, 'I will let you see her if you wish.' I went into the room, and found Mrs. Cannon, who sat near a stove.
 I was conscious of nothing unpleasant, no delay, no attempt to evade me, and nothing that could warrant the News' statement. On going out I met Mrs. Angus Cannon, whom I am accused of speaking familiarly to.
 That is all the basis of the News' statement. I used to go to school with the lady, and I knew her quite well. I asked her if she could give me a name of a servant girl who had been in the house. She apparently did not know Mrs. Clara Cannon by name, and said she would enquire whether her name was the lady I wanted. She found that she was, and I served my subpoena, and that is all there was of the story out of which the News has made so much."

We obtained the information contained in the article referred to from witnesses of the affair on the spot where it occurred, and the following note received this morning will substantiate the truth of all that we said concerning it: "The ladies who witnessed his conduct unhesitatingly declared that it was the opposite of gentlemanly and courteous."

Editor Desert News:—
 After having carefully read the article in Wednesday evening's News concerning the service of subpoenas upon inmates of Angus M. Cannon's household by Deputy Marshal James McCurdy we declare the statements it contains to be strictly in accordance with the truth.

KATE CANNON,
 AMANDA M. CANNON,
 NANCY HARRIS,
 CLARA D. CANNON.

Death of Asphyxia.—Miss Fratie Colbath, a young lady of twenty-two years, came from her home in the east a short time since on a visit to her uncle, L. O. Colbath, of this city, at whose residence, in the 12th Ward, she has since been staying. She was in her usual health yesterday, and engaged in writing a number of letters, after which she retired in good spirits. This morning the servant girl of the house, who occupied the bedroom on the opposite side of the hall from Miss Col-bath's, arose at a quarter past eight and proceeded down stairs to light the fire.
 While engaged in doing so, in the room beneath the one occupied by the young lady she heard groans, apparently from some one in distress. She immediately notified Mrs. Colbath, who, without waiting to dress herself, rushed to Miss Colbath's room, but found the door locked, and was unable to gain an entrance.
 She immediately called her husband up, and he burst the door open when the young lady was found lying upon the bed with the covering thrown off, and, though alive, unable to speak. The windows of the room were found to be closed tightly, the damper in the stovepipe turned so as to prevent the smoke from ascending the chimney, and the room completely filled with coal gas and smoke.
 Mr. Colbath at once gave her some brandy to try to revive her, and set forth his wife to attend to her, set off with all possible haste for Dr. Fowler, but before he could return or the Doctor could reach there, she was dead.
 There can be little doubt that the death was accidental, and was the result of asphyxia, from coal gas, but an inquest is to be held this afternoon to determine the real cause.

Supreme Court.—The Territorial Supreme Court opened this morning at 10 o'clock, with Justices Zane, Emerson and Twiss on the bench.
 The first decision rendered was in the case of the United States, respondent, vs. Rudger Clawson, applicant, from the Third District. This cause having been heretofore argued and submitted to the court, being sufficiently advised thereon, it is now hereby decided, ordered and adjudged (Emerson, A. J., expressing no opinion therein) that the judgment and sentence of the District Court therein, be and the same is hereby affirmed.

On motion of Charles E. Richards, Henry H. Bolapp, who had formerly practiced law in Michigan, was admitted to practice in this court, and the usual oath was taken by him.
 His honor Stephen E. Twiss having heretofore rendered the resignation of his office, such resignation taking effect on the appointment and qualification of his successor, retired from the bench, and the Hon. Jacob S. Boreman produced his commission as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Utah, subscribed to the necessary oath and took his seat on the bench as a member of this court.

Giovanni Coraggio, appellant, vs.
 Antonio Coraggio, respondent, from the District. Counsel of appellants suggests dissolution of the second in this cause, and moves that certain papers filed on the 22nd inst. be supplied thereto. Counsel for respondent objects, and the question is reserved for final hearing of the cause.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

In Montana the prosecuting attorney is dealing severely with parties who have married cousins. They have a law against incest, which he is endeavoring to enforce.
 W. D. Danielson, of Richmond, has invented a machine which will make a plow, can be so attached as to make a sulky plow of it. It is spoken of as a very ingenious contrivance. A patent has been applied for.

Last Sunday some of the gas company's workmen were engaged on the streets of Omaha, digging up a leaky joint in the main. One of the workmen struck his pick against a stone and drew fire. The spark ignited the gas, which flashed up, and the workmen narrowly escaped being burned.

Last Monday night Deputy Sheriff Buzzo, of Butte, was attacked and fer-rily beaten by a crowd of half-drunken ruffians, whom he had previously requested to cease their noise and go home. He was severely injured, and required assistance and four of the attacking party were arrested and confined in jail.

Two young fellows—one colored and the other white—entered a drug store at Omaha the other evening for midnight. While the clerk was behind the prescription the young fellows were filling their pockets with cigars, perfume, etc., that were handling. The theft was not discovered until after their departure.

The statistical agent for Montana has forwarded to the Commissioner of Agriculture at Washington a report of the numbers and value of the different kinds of stock in that Territory. The report is taken from the assessment rolls of the various counties and it is generally understood that such returns are considerably under the real number and value. The following are the figures given:

NAMES.	NO.	VALUE.
Cattle and calves.	60,820	$4,249,075
Horses and asses.	2,709	123,735
Milk cows.	2,100	1,600,000
All other cattle.	58,720	2,400,000
Sheep.	624,000	1,200,000
Hogs.	11,000	812,500
Total.	1,300,000	$12,945,310

"Trial By Jury."—The pleasing little opera "Trial By Jury," with its many funny songs, local hits and oddities, will be presented in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Room, on Tuesday evening next, under the excellent tution of Prof. J. J. Daynes. Since the very successful presentation of this piece in the Twelfth Ward, the opera has been carefully revised, and now contains numerous hits on local persons of prominence. The opera is composed of a negro, a Chinaman, a Dutchman, an Irishman, and a great deal of merriment. All who wish an evening of real enjoyment will certainly attend to hear what Eliphant Mooney, General Mack's Well, Seamus Varney, Angry Mike, Crista, Judge Luzzane, Attorney Dick's Son, and others have to say about the marriage relation controversy.

Ogden Items.—We had a call this morning from friend Joseph Hall, of Ogden, who is down here for the purpose of attending his mother's funeral.
 He tells us there is a good deal of litigation of late over questions of real estate, water rights, etc., in Ogden, and just now the question of the coming election of municipal officers is the all-absorbing topic there. A "Liberal" mass meeting will be held last Monday evening, in the Opera House, at which the usual anti-"Mormon" spouting was done by General Kimball and F. A. Shields, the former of whom disapproved of his own party by his obscenity. The ice harvest is furnishing employment for quite a number of men and teams, and a large element is being stored away for summer use. The health of the people generally in that region is good at present.

AND TO BONE SCRAPING.
 Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Pa., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for six years; my doctor told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters, and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."
