Grand Eisteddfod at Scofield.

This Eisteddfod was held on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 25 and 26, under the patronage of the Carbon county mutual association, at the mural house, which was refitted and decorated for the occasion, and seated about 2,000 people. All the mines were closed down and a multitude of people, Welsh, Scotch, American, etc., came from the surrounding settlements to enjoy the musical festival. We never witnessed a better or more respectable congregation.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS, 1:30 P. M.

1. Patriotic address by the president, A. L. Thomas, in which he spoke the orders of these gatherings, and the objects of associations being points of their adherents, the many successes won, and their noble aims. He also welcomed the strangers present and invited them to participate in the competitions and enjoy.

2. Competition on the music song, "Gwlad, Gwlad," by congregation, conducted by Evan Williams, Salt Lake.

3. Tenor solo (one time), "The two Indians," (by Parry)—W. J. and R. J. Evans, Winter Quarters, variety of the prize.

4. Recitation, "The Welsh Dog"—the prize was awarded to Joseph H. Anderson, Winter Quarters, Wasatch county, Wonder Quarters.

5. Ladies' solo (one time), "Memory's Chimes," (soprano), was awarded to the talented Ladies' choir, under the leadership of John Hood, this singing also received the prize.

6. Mr. Price Morris, of Salt Lake, rendered a recitation song, and was encored.

7. Duet (one time), "Sweet Spirit, Hear My Prayer," (soprano), Peter Elliott, of Salt Lake, was the prize.

8. Competition on the "Welsh Fool Hen Gerdd," Mrs. Jane Hood, Scofield, variety of the prize.

9. Mr. R. J. Thomas, Salt Lake, received the prize for "Can Mi Gwen." He also sang the same song by John James, Salt Lake, very good.

10. Musical chair contest, "The Summer," (lowest tenor chair contesting), the prize was awarded—to the tenor chair of Thomas Brown, and to the soprano chair, under the leadership of John Hood.

11. Quartette, "Come Where the Lotos Blooms," was rendered by John Hood and party in an excellent manner.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS—2 P. M.

1. Prof. Giles played a musical selection.

2. Reading, "Ewe Wall," was rendered by John Dees and was awarded the prize.

3. Competition of the Welsh poetical composition of eight lines, entitled "Uppermost in your Country," (Welsh or English), prize awarded to Isaac Evans, Clear Creek.

4. Adjudication of the English poetical composition of eighty lines, subject "Appreciation of the poor," the competitors, the prize awarded to James Dees, Scofield, who composed a very good piece, worthy of the prize. Also to James, to the great satisfaction of the audience.

5. Male voice catch. The Huntington glee club worthy of the prize and rewarded.

6. Recitation for children, three competing. Agnes Andrews, received the last.

7. Impromptu contest, subject "The Duke," Evan Williams, of Scofield, Wasatch county, Wales Valley, the winner of the prize and John James, Salt Lake, second best.

8. Ladies' solo (one time), played correctly "The Welsh Dance," and was awarded 2d and a extensive instrument to the reader, Jenny Wrenn.

AFTERNOON, 2:30.

9. The Carbon con Brass band played a selection from "Mayberry" (by Parry).

10. Impromptu contest on the pencils given by Harry T. Giles, very good.

11. Male chorus, "Comrades in arms," competing, two companies, one from Scofield and the other from Winter Quarters, the latter was awarded the prize.

12. Competition on the "the last rose" (J. A. Lloyd—one piece of 100 was divided—1st piece to the Castle Valley choir, under the leadership of Thomas Hughes, 2d to the Scofield choir, under the leadership of John Hood, and 3d to the Winter Quarters choir, under the leadership of Thomas C. Rees.

The Eisteddfod session was closed by singing the Welsh national song, "The Land of My Fathers" in Welsh by Rees W. Lewis of Winter Quarters and the large congregation joining in the chorus.

OFFICERS OF THE EISTEDDFOD.

President, Hon. Arthur L. Thomas; Conductors, John D. Davies and Joseph H. Sharp; Adjudicators, the same, Prof. R. [illegible]ssley, Tooele, and Prof. L. D. Edwards, Preston, Idaho; poetry and recitations, etc., John J. Davies, Provo, assisted on the recitations by John James, Salt Lake; accompanist, Prof. H. E. Giles, Provo; committee, T. C. Rees, president; Thomas Phelps, vice-president; Levi Jones, corresponding secretary; Andrew Hood, financial secretary; Thomas Lloyd, treasurer; Wm. Jones, Ed. Morgan, John W. Lloyd, Thomas Parrish, Thomas Morrison, Joseph Bowden, John Hood, Joseph Thomas, Thomas Harries and Lewis Rowe.

The Eisteddfod officers and committee have worked faithfully and well, and the congregation enjoyed the musical and literary feast. The applause and encores were many, and the spirit of unity and peace, with one exception, prevailed during the two days' festivals.

THE CONCERT.

A grand concert was held in the evening in which the successful contestants and others took part. The selection of Welsh airs by the Castle Valley brass band, was very good; the duet "Nancy Lee," by John James, was excellent. The address of John James on "The Salt Lake Cambrian Eisteddfod in the Mormon Tabernacle, Oct. 3 and 4, 1895," was very eloquent. R. J. Thomas was as good as usual in his song "Lest We Forget Thee." The song of Hannah Jolliffe, of Castle Valley, was encored. The requested address of John J. Davies, was applauded by his Welsh friends. John Hood was as good as usual in his baritone solo "The Bedouin Love Song." The comic song, "Monte Carlo, etc.," by Peter Elliott, was encored. The song of Mrs. John Hood was extra good and she "Ye Banks, etc.," by James, Thomas and Elliott, was very good. David D. Rivers, of Castle Gate, was extra cool in his two comic songs, and so was Mr. Anderson, of Springville, in his recitation, "The Watermaster."

The concert proceedings were finished by a good rehearsal of "The Mermaid," by the Castle Valley choir.

What the Magazine Pay Their Writers.

Another difficulty which confronts the book writer is the rate of pay and the time of payment. In these very respects magazines establish standards. The Harpers pay more promptly than any other publishers, for they pay on call for all they buy and pay themselves what seems acceptable. The ordinary Harpers rate for books will be $10 on a thousand words for the New Era, Bazar, and Young People; and $20 for a thousand words for the magazine. As the Harpers buy more than any other line of publishers, they are to be said to establish the rate of payment by the most periodicals which rival theirs. Harpers back writers, for anything ordering much work of excellence, sometimes higher rates than $20 will be their word, aside from the Harpers. A short story of five thousand words—a most convenient length—will usually bring $150 from the Harpers, from the Scribners, or from the Century. The Atlantic pays less, and so does Lippincott's. The Century sometimes appears to make no regular rate of payment, either to articles or to fiction. The Harpers, as I have said, pay on or by publication instantly upon acceptance; a check from the Century or Harpers follows upon the issue of the letter from the editor saying that your contribution is acceptance; the same is true as to Scribner's and to Lippincott's and the Ladies Home Journal. Nearly all the others pay on publication. A mark writer would almost as soon not work as to write for a magazine conducted on such principles.—The Jay Formes.

Is Still the Business.

Mr. J. M. Cobb, publisher of the Mercer, at Trenton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mercer has been publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy which did not prove effectual; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy and two drops did the business, checking it completely. AN OPINION GIVEN.

Recently Mr. J. D. Thomas, of North Dakota, visited the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, and after carefully examining the country located in Winchester, he writes to Mr. V. Bierbower, Land and Immigration Agent, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Baltimore, Maryland, as follows: "I have been in nearly every state and territory of the United States, and on frank in my opinion that this valley surpasses all other sections in the Union. The lands are low in price, and produce profitable crops. I thank you for directing me here, and solicit those seeking pleasant and profitable homes to locate in this country."

Jno. Lutie, of La Rey, N. Y., says "I have been troubled with indigestion and biliousness for years. Parks' Tea has cured me." For sale by F. J. Hill & Co., and Nelden Judson Drug Co. 2

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together.
