THE BONE GRATING.

The operation practically at an end.

New York, Dec. 15.—The bone-grating case of Johnny Galt and his gangster Gyp is now practically at an end. The grating was completed on the morning of Dec. 14, and the operation is entirely finished.

Dr. Newman, "but it may be weeks, or possibly months, before the unqualified success of the operation is assured. It will not be long before Johnny will be on his feet and allowed to make his way around."

His leg is now immovable, being kept tightly in a plaster cast and by iron bands. The cut inside the cast will prevent any injury to the bone union, so there is nothing to hinder Johnny from walking around on crutches.

Dr. Newman would not say whether or not he considered that the operation had or would prove a complete success.

THE KEAN & CO. FAILURE.

The Affairs of the Institution Investigated.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—It is learned that the deposits amount to $150,000. Most of the depositors are well-to-do people, who will not suffer severely through their losses. Very few poor people do business with the bank.

This morning the trustees were talking out for the arrest of Mr. Kean and his cashier, George H. Warren, for receiving money when the bank was known to be insolvent. Arrangements are being made to reorganize the concern as a National bank.

An investigation of the affairs of the institution began before Judge Stokes this afternoon. According to the report made by Judge Stokes, the assets, exclusive of Kean's personal estate, would aggregate approximately $1,250,000, and the liabilities $1,400,000. The assets consist of cash on hand, $57,000, etc. Of the liabilities, half a million are due depositors and $800,000 due banks on bonds deposited for loans.

Assignee Jacobs is a close friend of Kean. He said that last Saturday Kean came to him and told him the people were going very fast and he would like to have some gentleman look into the affairs of the bank and tell him what to do. Over $250,000 in bonds, drawn on within ten days, Kean said some one had circulated reports that the bank was unsound, and a rush to withdraw deposits followed.

A meeting of bankers was held yesterday afternoon, and they decided to loan Kean $250,000 if he could get $250,000 more. They wanted a guarantee for the $250,000, however. Kean and Jacobs secured a number of aid from Foster, the packer, and Deering, the livestock manufacturer, and could get no one else. Then they were informed that an attachment had been filed against the bank by one of the creditors, and decided to assign.

The warrants for the arrest of Kean and his cashier were served this afternoon. Both were released on bail. Considerable interest is aroused by the report that the building funds of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union had been deposited at the bank.

An investigation this evening showed that not only the W. C. T. U. Building Association, but nearly all the numerous organizations that cluster around the big Temperance Union, were depositors at the bank. The "gift fund" of the Temple Association withdrew its account a month ago, but returned it again. A deposit of several thousand dollars was made just before the bank closed for the last time. The treasurer of the W. C. T. U. had an account there, as did also the Woman's Temperance Publication Company, the two W. C. T. U. restaurants in the city and the treasurer of the lecture bureau. Altogether the temperance organizations have, it is estimated, upwards of $100,000 in the bank.

Nearly all the Methodist ministers in the city did their banking with Kean, but it is decided that most of them had been withdrawing their deposits recently.

A MINISTER TO THE RESCUE.

Our Home's Mission is Enough for

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 15.—The jury in the case of Nellie Marston, charged with robbing John Yost and then throwing him, and a missionary of that period, while he was with the Indians on what was called the Pacific coast, was sworn in this morning.

Through many vicissitudes and strange experiences, she had passed from tribe to tribe and place to place, always moving northward, until she reached Behring Strait, and there, having gone out in one of the large canoes used by the natives, she died.

A Squaw's Remarkable Journey.

In the last century a Chinese Indian woman, known as Father Hawk, a great traveler and missionary of that period, while he was with the Indians on what was called the Pacific coast, was sworn in this morning.

Through many vicissitudes and strange experiences, she had passed from tribe to tribe and place to place, always moving northward, until she reached Behring Strait, and there, having gone out in one of the large canoes used by the natives, she died.
