For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kalmer's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bottle bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the false-alike signature of Dr. Aug. Kalmer, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial will be had for 25 cents.

An Interesting War.
The following letter explains itself:
Dear Doctor:—You did a good turn for me once; you saved my life. To be sure you left me minus a leg in doing it—but life is sweet even with but one foot to hobble through the world with. It was down at—; it was a bloody day but a glorious one! I remember how I felt when I was taken down, and how I felt when I got to talking about those old times. This is what I want to tell you: One morning last week I awoke feeling very strange. For a long time my leg had been rebellious, but I had anticipated no trouble. But that morning I discovered that my stomach had joined in the revolt, and a lively skirmish was being carried on, that threatened to end in a harsh battle. The suddenness of the revolt put the head-quarters in confusion, and all seemed hopeless till, suddenly, like one of those flashing orders of Grant, came the command—"Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and Pierce's Purgative Pills, and a doctor was immediately dispatched for them. Now, what I want to say is this, I feel like a volunteer, who has just received his commission, or better still, like a general who has just won a battle. And I want to advise all who suffer from a rebellious liver and stomach to "fight it out on this line," and they will surely be victorious.

ANGUS M. CANNON,
DAVID O. CALDER,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Presidents of the Stake.
Salt Lake City, Nov. 21, 1878.

Obstructions.—See the published ordinance inflicting on signs, awnings, and other obstructions, in tonight's issue.

Got Back.—Mr. James Dwyer, the book merchant, returned last evening from his trip to the east. Some of the results of his visit will be manifest in his show window during the holidays.

Election Returns.—We learn, through courtesy of Mr. J. A. Hellstrom, clerk of Sevier County, that the number of votes polled there for Hon. Geo. O. Cannon, at the recent election, was 431. No opposition.

Don't Forget.—Don't forget the ball to-night, given to Elder D. C. Dunbar, as a farewell compliment. We expect to see the 20th Ward school house filled with a happy company of his friends and associates. The music is good, the programme is good, the dancing will be good and with a purpose so good, who can stay away.

Mrs. Siddons's Recital.—Remember to-morrow night at the Theatre, Mrs. Siddons begins her engagement. The lady comes with the prestige of an actress of rare ability, the newspaper and dramatic critics of both hemispheres heralding her fame. Those who desire to see her and her delicious performance for themselves, should secure their tickets now.

Re-organization.—Last evening, the re-organization of the 18th Ward Mutual Improvement Association was effected, with the following as officers for the current year: Horace G. Whitney, President; Eliza and Chas. Barrett, First and Second Counselors; David R. Allen, Secretary and Treasurer; Nellie Neale, Genevieve Whitney and Alfred H. Calver, Executive Committee. The society will hold its meetings in the School House every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Another Veteran Gone.—To-day, we chronicle the departure, at a ripe old age, of Father James Fielding, who died last night, at his residence in the 6th Ward. Brother Fielding was an early member of the Church, and faithful to the Gospel up to the time of his death. We condole with the family and intimate friends of the deceased, and trust their hearts will be comforted by the assurance that there will surely come a time when the living and the other living called the dead, will meet and mingle in the happiness of a world where sorrow, sin and death can never come.

Y. L. M. I. A. Attention.—The Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, are hereby requested to forward a condensed report of their several organizations dating from commencement, and including statistical and financial reports, names of officers, changes that have been made, number of members enrolled, average attendance, times of holding meeting, etc.

The reports should be sent in time to be read at the ladies' quarterly conference, to be held Dec. 18, 1878.

Address P. O. box 1183, Salt Lake City.

MARY A. FREEMAN,
Superintendent.
E. R. SHIPP, Secy.

Break-down.—One of the finest "break-downs" executed since the departure of the Haverley Minstrels was performed this forenoon, by one of the Co-op drays, nearly opposite the south gate of the Temple Block. Returning from the depot, heavily laden with leather, groceries, etc., for the warehouse of Z. C. M. I., its burden suddenly became greater than it could bear, and just as it crossed the railroad at the place mentioned, saw went the axle of the wheel, and the down came the driver to see what was the matter. His descent was a little more precipitous than absolutely necessary to a committee of investigation, but he was no more to blame for that than the wheel, that we could say. The axle has been re-set, and is progressing finely.

The Needham Musical Cabinet is the name of the latest invention, which may be seen at the musical establishment of Mr. D. O. Calder. It is a new organ, is played by the foot, having bellows, pedals, and reeds, but is played without a keyboard, the only skill necessary in its manipulation, for it makes its own time, being an ordinary movement of the foot on the pedals. The reeds are placed upright, within a horizontal bar with a smooth surface and a roll of stiff paper, by the motion of the pedals, is made to pass over them. This roll is perforated with slots of various sizes at various intervals, and a sound is produced when a slot is in position over the mouth of the reed; the slot passing on, shuts off the sound, immediately its successors contributing in like manner until the tune is finished. Each roll of paper contains one tune, so the number of times the instrument plays, is equal to the number of rolls on hand. These must be wound up, previous to being placed in position to play, and as there are two winders, their arrangement is such that while one roll is being exhausted, another may be prepared for use. Overtures, medleys, solos, duets, etc., are all performed with sweetest and perfection; thirty-five feet of "Il Trovatore" being reeled off just as easily as two yards of the "Devil's Dream."

Another Fatal Accident.—The Junction chronicles the occurrence of an accident near Huntsville, on Tuesday afternoon, which resulted in the death of Peter Peterson, a young man about 21 years of age, while returning from Maple Creek with a load of wood. He was accompanied by his younger brother, a boy of nine years. They were coming down the cañon with a very heavy load of wood, when they came to a place in the road that was sideling, rocky and steep, and here the wagon was suddenly turned upside down, the young boy being thrown some distance from the team, but Peter thrown under the wheel, where his life was crushed out immediately. Mr. Evan Evans was near by with a team, and finding it impossible to extricate the unfortunate man from his terrible position, made speed to Huntsville, reported the catastrophe, and a party of men came to the rescue. Life, however, was extinct. Deceased was a young man of good reputation, highly respected by all who knew him.

Fatal Accident.—We learn, from two sources of a sad accident that occurred at Newton, Cache County, on the 15th inst., by which James Peter Nelson, a boy between 15 and 16 years of age, lost his life. In company with his elder brother David, he had been out in the field to look at some land, taking a shotgun with him. Returning, the elder brother alighted from the wagon, and James, in doing likewise and pulling the gun after him, accidentally discharged it. The contents entering his left eye, carried away most of the skull and brains on the left side of the head. The unfortunate young man lived about an hour and a half in great distress, during which he spoke the one word "mother," and death soon after relieved his sufferings. He was an exemplary young man, a member of the Sabbath school, the Y. M. M. I. A., and respected by all who knew him.

A few days ago, at the same settlement, Frederick Richard, a little son of Mr. A. P. Welchman, was poisoned with concentrated lye. The child is recovering.

A Brutal Blacksmith.—An affair occurred in Ogden, on Tuesday, in which whiskey was the cause, and a brutal beating the result. Mr. James Russell, of Riverdale, who was visiting Ogden, bought a bottle of whiskey and went into the "blacksmith shop" of James Shupe, a friend of his. After indulging in a "social drink," and conversation for a while, Russell attempted, in a playful manner, to knock Shupe's hat off, for doing which he touched him lightly behind the ear. Shupe raised a hammer and struck Russell two heavy blows in the mouth, felling him to the ground; he then jumped upon the prostrate man and inflicted a number of savage blows upon his left side and leg. One of the persons present separated them, and Russell was taken home. He is said to be in a precarious condition, inasmuch as his front teeth knocked out, and his body bruised in a terrible manner.

A warrant has been issued for Shupe's arrest, who, being sober, is in a state of mental torment at his brutality to his friend, while he conversed was unprovoked, and the result of the liquor he had drunk. So says the Junction.

A Declining Policy.—In the columns of the Beaver Chronicle, Mr. White Oplais respectfully declines being re-nominated for a member of the City Council, for the reason that he has been unable in the past to "give entire satisfaction to all parties," he, therefore, gives way for some man who is able to perform that impossibility, such a criterion would demand the resignation of a Washington.

District Court.—Thursday morning, Nov. 21.
Robertson and McBride vs. Leonard Cottrell; defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty.

People vs. Thomas O'Neil; three cases, first two burglary, last, grand larceny; defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty.

Chris Bohmke vs. Jelar Clifton et al; trial in progress.

Police Court.—Thursday, Nov. 21.
Harry Davis was arrested for grand larceny and committed; bonds $1,000. Jno. W. Leonard was arrested for assault and battery and profanity; fined $10.

Sixteenth School District.—The voters of this district will please notice the call for a meeting on Monday evening, December 2nd, at 7 o'clock, for the transaction of school business.

OBSTRUCTIONS.

The attention of the inhabitants of Salt Lake City is called to the following:

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO SIGNS AND AWNINGS.

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, That any person shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than ten dollars, for the construction on any of the sidewalks within the limits of this city, except as herein-after provided. All canvas awnings, signs, or other obstructions shall be affixed to, and suspended from the buildings, and shall not project over the sidewalk to exceed ten feet, no part of which shall be lower than eight feet from the grade of the sidewalk.

Sec. 2.—All permanent awnings shall be constructed the entire width of the building, the outside line of the posts or supports of which shall be uniformly fifteen feet from the line of the lot. No part of said awning shall be lower than eight feet from the grade of the sidewalk, the covering or roof shall be water tight, and the whole shall be built in a safe and substantial manner, to the satisfaction of the Inspector of Buildings.

Sec. 3.—All awnings and all signs, or signs-boards, of any design or description, now standing on the sidewalk, or across the sidewalks or water ditches, or on the streets outside the water ditches, within this city, except such awnings as have been permanently constructed according to law, or by permission of the City Council, or which are in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby declared obstructions, and shall be removed within six months from the 1st day of June, 1878.

Sec. 4.—Any person violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not to exceed ninety-nine dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or both. Any person failing to remove any of the obstructions named in this Ordinance, within the time specified therein, shall be liable to a further fine of five dollars for each and every day that such obstruction remains.

Sec. 5.—All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances relating to obstructions in conflict with this Ordinance shall be repealed.

Witness my hand and the seal of the City of Salt Lake City, this 21st day of Nov., 1878.

Attest, extract from Chap. XXXII. Revised Ordinances of Salt Lake City.

IN RELATION TO OBSTRUCTIONS UPON THE STREETS AND SIDEWALKS.

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, That any person occupying a lot in the city, required to remove from the street, and sidewalk fronting the same, wagons, lumber, wood, boxes, fencing or other obstructions, and any person who shall obstruct any of the sidewalks, streets or alleys, except by permission of the City Council, shall be liable to a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

As it becomes my duty to see that the provisions of the foregoing Ordinance are enforced, I respectfully invite all persons interested to immediately comply therewith and save themselves cost and annoyance, and in the disagreeable necessity of prosecuting them.

ANDREW BURT,
City Marshal.
Marshal's Office, Salt Lake City,
November 20th, 1878. d2041w

Elected to Congress.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Family Medical Discovery, and Tourist's Hotel, of that city, has recently been elected to Congress by a very flattering majority of nearly 8,000. He has already served his constituency as State Senator, and this renewed endorsement signifies that his services have been highly satisfactory. His extensive practice in the treatment of chronic disease will not, we are informed, be neglected or suffer in the least when the time arrives for him to take his seat in Congress. He being intrusted to his brother and other experienced medical gentlemen who have long been associated with the Doctor in the Medical Department of his celebrated World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel. Besides, as the Forty-sixth Congress does not convene until Dec. 1879, Dr. Pierce's patients will not lose his personal attention for some months yet.

DIED.

At his residence, in the 10th Ward, Nov. 19, 1878, of inflammation of the bladder, and old law Dr. R. W. JOHN; born April 2nd, 1810; died Nov. 19, 1878.

The funeral services took place this morning, in the 10th ward mortuary house, at 10 o'clock.

In this city, November 20th, 1878, at 11:15 p.m., JAMES FIELDING, in the 52nd year of his age. He leaves a wife and numerous posterity and many friends to mourn his loss.

No notice of the funeral services will be given.
