CHURCH NOTICES Salt Lakers were given a foretaste of real vaudeville last night when the Orpheum presented a bill to an audi-ence that must have been most satis-factory to the management. For two hours the fun waxed fast if not furious. The offerings were as varied as they were merry and there was a disappoint-ment only on the part of those who were unable to secure admission to the house. Early in the afternoon it was practically sold out. At 7 o'clock not a seat was left and many would-be first nighters sought amusement elsewhere. Box parties were quite the thing and from two or three of them laughs came in a sort of endless chain fashion. evening at the Groves L. D. S. hospital after suffering for two weeks from blood poisoning, will be held Thursday at 1 p. m. from the Fourth ward chapel. Mrs. McPhie's death comes in a particu-harly unfortunate manner, as it follows the death of her little boy by just two weeks, and it was in running to a neigh-bor's for help that she was wounded in the foot by a nail, on the merring he died. She did not notice that the wound was swelling until after the funeral, when she had to be taken to the hospital, and it was found that she was suffering from a bad case of blood poisoning. Her foot was amputated in the hope of saving her life, and while she rallied from the operation, her condition was such that she slowly sank during the past week until her death Sunday evening. The remains may he viewed at the form.

At 2 o'clock this morning, Michael J. O'Netil, a mining man from Alta, who was stopping at the Occidental roominghouse, died suddenly, apparently from heart failure. He was taken ill about midnight, and Dr. C. M. Benediet was summoned, but he arrived just after O'Neili had breathed his hast. Mr. O'Neili was able to be about Monday evening, and until nearly midnight seemed to be in his usual health. The hody was removed to Joseph Wm. Taylor's undertaking establishment, to be prepared for burial. Mr. O'Neili was a native of New York, and was 64 years of age. He had been a miner at the Alta camp in Little Cottonwood for the past 50 years, and was an employe of Alexan der Colbath. He was not married, and had no relatives in this part of the country. Mr. Colbath has taken charge of the re-mains and the funeral will be held to morrow at 11 o'clock from the Taylor un-dertaking parlors. midnight, and Dr. C. M. Benedlet was
