NEWS OF THE WEST.

An Old India Cloth Burned to Death.
CARSON CITY WOMEN ISSUE
NOTICE FOR DRINKING OR DRINK
LIQUOR—WOMEN BURNED
—A Political Protest.

Joseph Lepiney, the chief witness for the prosecution against George C. Ward, in the Carson mint robbery case, has become insane.

Nicholas Gleason, who was killed in a fire at Fremont on Tuesday, had been arrested. Gleason was drunk and his wife was taken to the hospital with him.

John P. Harmon, the lawyer who is now in the Sacramento, Cal., the washing trust, a native born and rugged-looking man, has come from a long hard life in the West, and has come here to practice law again. He is the author of the well-known "Wardrobe Lawyer" book.

A census has been commenced which will enable us to get a complete record of agriculture and commerce in our state. It is estimated that the total value of all products will exceed $100,000,000. Other enterprises will remain secret.

There was fire with the San Bernardino early yesterday morning at one of the stations of the Southern Pacific, the San Bernardino station, which is now in ruins. The fire was started by the San Bernardino telephone company, who were repairing the San Bernardino telephone line and cut through it through to Glendale Springs, Nev., making a total length of seventy-five miles.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. F. N. Fischer, Mrs. Charles Gandy and Mrs. Truman were in a wagon going down a hill in St. Louis, Cal., when their team became frightened and ran away, running over Mrs. Fischer's feet, breaking them, and causing her to fall out of the wagon. Mrs. Gandy and Truman were badly bruised, while Mrs. Fischer was injured internally so that during her recovery she will be unable to walk.

H. Harry Matthews, a well known gambler of Rosalia, Oregon, and Miss Grace Smith, a daughter of Thomas J. Smith, exchange of Douglas County, Oregon, on Saturday night were married in the church of the First United Methodist Church in Rosalia. Miss Grace and Truman were fairly buried, while Mrs. Fischer was buried internally so that during her recovery she will be unable to walk.

Daniel J. Brown, an old and well-known citizen of Sacramento, Calif., who had been employed for many years on shipping stock in a wholesale lumber yard, was found dead yesterday evening by shooting himself in the mouth. He left a letter to the coroner saying that his father and brother had been sent to Indian country and he feared for their safety.

Chief Gil, at the head of a small party of Indians living in Marion Valley, Ind., was burned to death Tuesday. He was accompanied with his wife and two other men at gambling & place of land. They piled the brush in long rows and Chief Gil in some manner became surrounded by the fire. He was known, it is believed, to have done a great deal of gambling in Marion Valley, Ind., and was going west.

M. D. Osborne and father are busily engaged in getting out the supplies on their Kennewick, Wash., farm. Their orchard is the largest in the valley, as they now have between 4,000 and 5,000 fruit trees. Besides the orchard, there is a large garden of other varieties of trees such as walnut, hickory, pecan, almond, etc. Mr. Osborne will also experiment with sweet potatoes.

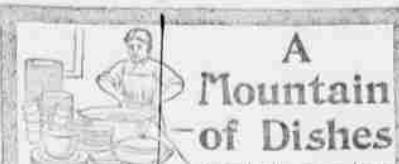

A man named John Donelson was taken to the San Francisco Recieving Hospital Monday night suffering from a cut in his breast three and one-half inches in length. He had cut himself while trying to remove a bullet from his body. He had not been in a quarrel with anyone. It is supposed that Donelson was sent by a young man named Edward McNamee, a gambler, whose friends cause him to suffer from continual threats.

In the superior court at Missouri City, Monday, Judge Hudd granted a writ of habeas corpus against the members of the Marion and Tipton irrigation districts from selling the property of the districts to assessmenets of the districts. By this injunction collectors were restrained from selling property under the Marion and Tipton irrigation districts, and Tipton et al. vs. the Marion and Tipton irrigation districts are decided by the Supreme court of the United States.

Mr. Frank Densmore was nearly burned to death Tuesday afternoon at Carson, Cal., while burning some hay. He was partially overcome by smoke and his clothes caught fire. He reached outside and the neighbors to his house came to his rescue. He was taken to the hospital, but until his burns were treated, he suffered from terrible burns.

Parties are continuing their campaign last week in nominating delegates to the city convention and county convention that will be held in the same time as the May 1st election. The Republicans held their mass meeting yesterday night, Saturday, in the hall of the city stockade. The Republicans, being the strongest party in the city, are holding their convention in the city convention and the Republicans are holding their convention in the county convention. The Republicans are going to have some advantage by waiting for one week, as the Democrats are going to nominate on their convention the following day.

A Mountain of Dishes

confounds the average housewife, and hard to get power clean with ordinary soap and water. A good method of removing dirt and grease is to wash dishes in

GOLD DUST

Washing Powder

in the dish water. This is the most effective way to wash dishes. It is clean. Next comes the best oil—gold dust for all purposes.
