Consumption Can be Cured.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, Schenck's Mankrake Pills.

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that will stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient; they look up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and as fact they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, and in the shoulder blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and heaving up of wind.

These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver.

Persons so affected, if they take one of these cases he suddenly loses weight, and the stomach and liver clog, remaining torpid and inactive, and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of scurf and ulcerated, the result of this is death.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check the cough suddenly.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gas-trical juices of the stomach, aids digestion, and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are constive, skin yellow, or the system otherwise a bilious tendency, Schenck's Mankrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared by

J. H. SCHENCK & SON,
No. 2, corner Sixth & Arch Sts.,

And are for sale by all druggists

Returned Missionary.—This morning we had a call from Elder James McFarland, of West Weber, Weber County. He returned from a mission to Great Britain with the last company of emigrants. He left Ogden for his field of labor May 6, 1876. His ministry was confined to the Scottish Conference for about a year, where he had pleasure in advocating the truth at every favorable opportunity.

Last May he went to Newcastle Conference, over which he presided, and where he remained until he left for home. He was everywhere kindly and courteously treated and listened to with respectful attention.

Mysteriously Shot.—Last evening Brother John Q. Cannon, son of Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, was proceeding to his father's farm, a few miles south-west of the city. He was on horseback, and when he reached a point about half a mile west of John Van Cott's place, he observed a boy sitting on one horse while he held the bridle of another.
As he approached, the lad whistled and the animal upon which Bro.
Cannon was riding held up. The boy addressed him saying, "I thought you were a man I was waiting for. If you see a man below, I wish you would tell him I won't wait much longer."

About a block further on Brother Cannon observed a man standing in the road. The stranger walked ahead until Brother Cannon got quite close to him, when, without uttering a word, he turned and fired, the pistol, a small one, being not more than eighteen inches from Brother Cannon's body. Fortunately the sudden movement of the man caused the horse to jump, and the bullet merely entered the fleshy part of the left arm, a short distance below the elbow, going nearly through. The ruffian seeing that his intended victim was not disabled, uttered an exclamation of disappointment, instantly turned and fired again, missing his object.

The horse upon which Mr. Cannon was riding could not now be controlled by him, he being unable to pull him up with one hand. He is a splendid animal, and fairly flew over the road and bridges until he reached the house at the farm.

Almost immediately after the shooting Brother Cannon heard the sound of horses hoofs striking the ground, as the man and boy rode away. The murderous villain, whoever he is, appeared to be of medium size and somewhat stoop shouldered. He had on an overcoat and cape, and the lower part of his face was covered with a handkerchief.

The affair is somewhat mysterious, and appears to admit of one of two solutions,—either that Brother Cannon was mistaken for another party, or that the attacking ruffian was after the valuable stallion on which he was riding.

Such a thing as such an act being committed from personal enmity is scarcely possible. Brother Cannon being of most kindly disposition, and a gentleman by nature and education.

The wound is quite a painful but not a dangerous one. The bullet was cut from the arm to-day by Dr. Benedict.

A Decided Fizzle.—The attempt to make an anti-Mormon sensation out of the death of William Rogers is a complete fizzle. Deceased had the reputation of being addicted to habits of intemperance, which appears to have been the indirect cause of his demise. The following account of an inquest held over Rogers' remains, at Santa Clara, was received by mail this morning, for publication in the News. We have placed the original document in the hands of Coroner Taylor of this County.

Santa Clara,
Washington County,
Utah Territory,
October 22, 1877.

An inquest on the body of Wm.
Rogers, as he gave his name two weeks ago, while tinkering in this place, having been found dead on his bed, at Charles Hoth's. The jury, being duly sworn, examined the body, and returned a verdict according to the evidence of John Keller, Samuel Wistner and Charles Hoth. The cause of death was drinking too much wine. He was found lying on the damp ground, from which he took a severe cold, a chill, then fever and severe cough, discharging blood from the lungs. He was asked if he wanted a doctor. He said, No, he would be his own doctor. Medicine was got for him, and he took it as he chose.

EDWARD BUNKER,
MARIUS ENSIGN,
KONRAD NEGLEY.

The jury examined the effects, and found a small kit of tinkers' tools.

JAMES MCLELLAN, J. P.,
Acting Coroner.

At a late hour, on Thursday night, after the autopsy of the body, made by direction of the United States Marshal, Coroner Taylor took charge of the remains, called a jury, who, after examining them, adjourned the investigation until another time. We understand the intention was to resume the inquest this afternoon, at the City Hall.

The portions of the vital organs taken from the body of Rogers are in the hands of Dr. McPhail, who intends making an analysis within a few days. The coroner and jury convened at the City Hall at two o'clock this afternoon.

The Lashbrook Affair.—An inquest was held yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Harriett Lashbrook, concluding at five o'clock in the evening. The investigation completely cleared the husband of deceased of the imputations that had been cast upon him by certain parties in relation to the death of his wife. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that deceased came to her death from accidental causes, as the evidence plainly showed.

The charges and allegations against Mr. Lashbrook are said to have originated from personal enmity to him, and to have been dictated by spiritistic sources, most of the interested parties being spiritualists.

Painful Accident.—This afternoon as Bishop John Sharp was on his way home, on South Temple Street, when some distance east of the Eagle Gate his horse shied at a wagon. It turned down over the steep grade and over the street railroad track to the lower part of the road. The violent jolt of the buggy caused the Bishop to be thrown out, striking the ground with his head. He was also dragged a short distance with the vehicle. We regret to learn that he is considerably injured about the head and neck.

Angus Davis, the driver, was also thrown out, but escaped without hurt.

Going to Europe.—For some time past, especially since the demise of her father, the late President B.
Young, the health of Mrs. Henry Snell has been gradually failing. In the hope that a change of climate and scene will improve her condition, herself and husband, Mr.
Henry Snell, purpose spending the winter months in Rome and Naples. They purpose leaving for Italy on Tuesday next.

We join with the numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Snell in the hope that their visit abroad will have the effect of restoring the lady's health, and that both may have a pleasant sojourn in foreign lands and a safe return home.

Literary Association.—On Thursday evening, an election of officers of the Tenth Ward Young Men's Literary Association, for the present winter season, was held in the School-house of that Ward. The result was as follows: William Fuller, President; William Taylor and James Woods, Vice-Presidents; George Buckle, Secretary; G.
J. Swanner, Treasurer; Thomas Shreve, Librarian. The Association has started with very encouraging prospects for active improvement in literary pursuits, and the results cannot but be good for all interested in the Society.

Home Made.—Bishop R. S. Robinson and Brother Joseph N. Heywood, of Upper Kanab, are in town, in the interest of the Canaan Cooperative Stock Company. During the past season these brethren have manufactured 17,000 pounds of cheese, which is pronounced by dealers the best home made cheese ever offered for sale in this city.

We tested a sample and found it most excellent. The cheese is on the way here, and will probably be purchased by Z. C. M. I.

Theatre.—Carl Bosco and Mlle Joliet gave a very pleasing entertainment at the Theatre last evening. The audience was not large, but was well pleased with the novel tricks neatly and splendidly executed by the "magician," also with the artistic presentation of the Marvel of Mecca, by Mlle Joliet. To-night there will be an entire change of programme.

District Court.—Saturday, November 3rd—

L. P. Alpey, vs. R. P. Lundberry et al.; jury trial in progress.

Funeral.—The obsequies of the son of Dr. Newton will take place at the residence of the parents, 12th Ward, at 11 a.m. to-morrow.

Omaha, all well, this morning, and intended to leave at 4.45 this p.m.
They may be expected here by Correspondence.—There appeared in yesterday's News a communication purporting to have been written by Jacob Harris, at Roswell, Lincoln County, New Mexico. While having given publicity to the letter, we desire it to be understood that we are not in a position to vouch for the correctness of the statements it contains, descriptive or otherwise.

Not Burglarious.—A person who had placed himself outside of an immoderate quantity of intoxicants went scratching around the windows of several houses in the 6th Ward, last night. For awhile it was thought he was a burglariously inclined individual, until he was discovered lying among some corn fodder. He was only feeling around for his own place of abode. Somebody fired a pistol at him—after he was gone.
