DELINQUENT TERRITORIAL TAXES.

THE Citizens of Great Salt Lake County who have not

The Assessor and Collector sincerely hope this friendly hint will be regarded by those who are delinquent, and prevent the necessity of advertising names and property which will also incur additional expense.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE!

FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY, 1863.

DECLARATION OF THE PEOPLE.

WHEN in the course of human events it becomes necessary to dissolve the bands that bind the people to a tyrannical, destiny sends "the man"
for "the time!"

INALIENABLE RIGHTS.

All men are created equal, for they are born without a shirt, and this naked truth proves that among unalienable rights are life, liberty and the pursuit of certain tyrannical enemies of our peace.

LONG-SUFFERING HUMANITY!

Mankind are disposed to suffer while evils are suffer-able; hence, they have permitted the vermin incursions without setting up a powerful government, such as General Greer proposes.

A NEW GOVERNMENT!

To secure unalienable rights to the people of Utah, he has established in Main Street, Great Salt Lake City,
the seat of a powerful Anti-Vermin Government.

A LONG TRAIN OF ABUSES!

How solemnly pathetic is the poet's strain of a anguish!

Why do these flies torment me so?

I never did them harm!

They used to come by twos and threes,

But now they come by swarms!

This is also pathetically true of bugs, mice, flies, etc.

GEORGE THE THIRD A SAINT!

England's Saint George the Third—a poor soul—was a good farmer badly thinned—a royal house damaged in its upper story; but the vermin monarch is the very devil himself. General Greer offers to cast him out in every form Under his Anti-Vermin Government all the vermin can sleep in peace. 2-4
