This house is one of old standwilly-built-up and honorable character. Mr Van Peit is stopping at the Townsend House, and will make it his business to call nach our merchants.

SUPPOSED CASE OF POISONING. - The folswing was received by W. U. T. last

OGDEN, August 3. The body of Harrison, formerly the proprieter of the White House bere, was token on an account of a suspicion that he was poisoned. He had ded very suddenly. The body is said to have turned perfectly lack in the three days that it has been Surred. Several days will have to elapse befole it can be ascertain d whether he was poisoned or not. Several persons are susperted and have been arrested, including Mrs. Harrison, the widow of the deceased. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Landt, two married women, have lately left town with ORITUARY.-A profound feeling of sorrow was produced among the people of this city on receipt of the intelligence this morping, that Brother Briant Stringam had died at half past five this a. m., at his ence near the Jordan Elver. The sen sation was all the more intense on account of such an event being totally unlooked for, but few people even being aware that he was sick. The disease with which he was afflicted and which terminated his life was bilious remittent fever, with which he had been ill about nine days previous to his death, although he had complained of feeling somewhat indisposed before being taken with the fever.

Brother Stringam was as widely known in the Territory as a man could be. He was a man of unimpeachable life and character and sterling integrity, being repleasure of his acquaintance. He was in his 37th year, was the eldest son of George and Polly Stringam, and was raised in the Church from his early boyhood. He was one of the Pioneers to this Valley, having come here in President Brigham Young's company in 1847. His family followed him

The remains of deceased will be brought to town this evening and the funeral obsequies will take place at 10 a.m. to morrow, at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. Brother Stringam leaves a numerous family to mourn his loss.

Append tells of a Mr. M. C. Ellis, a rancher in Sutter Co., who, one morning recently, drove from his residence to his ranche, a distance of never miles. distance of seven miles, cut some grain. Frank Lealie's Boys' and Girls' Weekly threshed it, returned seven miles, took the grain to mill and had it ground, and from the flour had his wife make cakes for breakfast, the whole job being done, and the meal ready in less than four hours.

ENIGRATION NEWS .- A company for Utah will leave Liverpool on Wednesday, August 9th, to be composed only of those baging means of their own for their fare and expenses from their homes to Ogden or Salt Lake City, with those who may be advised from this office. Those who are thus prepared and wish to go on the 9th of August, can do so by forwarding their names and ages to this office at least one week before the day of sailing, and being in Liverpoel on or before the 8th; they will and need any further notification.

So far as is at present known, the Aug. with company is the last for this season, exceptione more that will sail sometime from he middle to the last of October .- Millenfal Star, July 11th.

The election for the recordership of this strict to-day, resulted as follows: E. F. Martin, the former incumbent, received 202 votes; H. A. Manchester, 60. Not all the miners were present, owing to the fict. the miners were present, owing to the fact that work in the mines is now becoming active and pressing, although the vote is presented a fair expression of the general considered a fair expression of the general residence.

Walkers' mill is now running hand-tomely, working large quantities of ore infly with great success. Arrangements have been made for the mmediate cons ruction here of more stamp mills and arastras, by other parties who are confident that there will be plenty of work for all of them. The stages bring daily numerous parties seeking invest-ments, and increasing activity is every-where visible, especially on Lion Hill.

EMIGRATION.-A portion of the company pot of the U. C. R. R. in this City at ten a.m., under the charge of Elder George Barton, one of the returning missionaries. The emigrants were generally in the enjoy-ment of good health. Elder Hamilton G. Park, who has been in charge of the com-pany, and Elders Thomas Howells and fiducial and F. Bird remained at Orden to look after the baggage of the company. A large number of the emigrants did not come any farther than Orden, it being more con-venient to join their friends in settlements north of and around Orden from that point than from this City. Elder Geo. Lake, who had charge of the first company of this see-son's emigrants across the sea, but who re-mained in the States to visit his friends, came into Orden with this company. ARRIVALS:
