One of His Most Notable Contests Was With Frey-Was Instructor of Denver Athletic Club.

James L. Malone, champion pool playe of the world, arrived in Salt Lake the first of the week. Mr. Malone comes direct from Denver where he has been located for some time. He has a private table placed at W. W. Harr's, 58 West Second South street, where he will give exhibitions for the next few days. There are now in Salt Lake a large number of sest class pool and billiard players, and any of these will be matched to play. MALONE OLD PLAYER.

Jim Malone, as he is known all over the world, since he has played in many of the large centers, has been playing the game since he was a mere youth. When quite young, he showed remarkable spitude for the game, and at maturity be was porsidered a champlon. Many of the younger players are compelled to take a back sout for the reteran. Since 183 he has been meeting all comers, barring none. He traveled all ever the United States, Canada and thence made a urp across the pond to Europe.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF MEXICO. In 1888, after returning from Europe, he sent south and finally landed in Mexico city in time for the large annual tournament of that year. He gradually worked las say to the top ranks and finally met has Vasquez of Spain, then champion of They were to play Lis Vasquez of Spain, then champion of spain and Mexico. They were to play fee nights for a run of 31 points per 18th. Malone wen the championship in once consecutive nights. After this match he again tourned the south and set where he played many of the present wigates.

A DESPICABLE TRICK.

Agent of Utah Fuel Co. Passed Himself Off as a Mormon Elder.

Denver, Dec. 6,-Interstate Commerce Commissioner E. E. Clark continued today in this city in accordance with the Tillman-Gillespie congressional resolution the investigation of the rela-tions between coal companies and common carriers and alleged conspiracies in restriction of trade.

J. M. Underwood, a farmer living near Gunnison, was examined at length in regard to the coal entries made in that district for the Utah Fuel company. He raised a laugh by the statement that Robert Forrester of the Utah Fuel company came into the district disguised as a Mormon elder.

CASTELLANE'S DEBTS.

Mme. Anna Gould Perfectly Willing To Settle Them.

Paris, Dec. 5.—The reply of Maitre Cruppi, counsel for Count Bool de Castellane and the former countess, in the suit of their creditors, consumed the entire session of the tribunal of first instance of the Seine today. M. Cruppi described how the tradesmen's and usurdescribed how the tradesmen's and usurers' bills had been cleverly mixed up and reiterated the perfect willingness of Mme. Anna Gould to settle the legitimate debts, although a delay was necessary as there were no funds from the trustee of the estate at her disposal at present. Counsel argued that it was unjust and filegal to attempt to make Mme. Gould responsible for the enormous sums borrowed by Count Boni of usuers to meet his "mad extravagances and princely prodigality." dismissed the charges against E. E. Smithers.

The case, which was taken up by the beard at a continuation of its winter meeting today, grew out of the drugsing of Lou Dillon at the Memphis (Tenn.) meeting in October, 1804. Smithers, who owned Major Delmar and drove him in the race, was charged with asving been cognizant of ill-treatment of C. R. Billing's mare, which resulted in the latters after failure to show form in the race, and the winning of the $5,000 gold cup by Major Delmar.

George W. Spear was the most damaging witness against Smithers today. He swore that Smithers had requested him to open negotiations with Saunders as to whether Lou Dillon could not be "fixed." Spear said that Saunders offered to do the job for $10,000, but Smithers thought that too much, and told him to drop it. The defense immediately produced witnesses who declared that Spear's character is bad.

At the conclusion of the hearing, John
