Editors Deserct News: At 9 o'clock a.m., the people ga thered at the school-house, where they were entertained by cheering strains from the martial band. After singing by the choir and prayer by the chaplain, a procession was formed in the following order: Martial band, bishop and counsel-lors, Sunday school superintend-ents and assistants, male classes, female classes, citizens on foot, the rear being taken up with over 20 wagons filled with young and old. The whole procession, extending over one fourth of a mile in length proceeded to one of the beautiful clusters of cottonwood trees which line the old channel of our city which was badly bruised. Doctor Senedict, of this city, and Dr. Ormsby, of Logan, attended the creek, situated about a mile south ady, who is getting along very well. of our settlement, where prepara-tions were made by the energetic committee for the comfort of sil. Another mishap occurred about the same time. Mr. Llewellyn Mantle, of Taylorsville, was on his REQ her consort where she was crown-ed and in a neat speech was given absolute powar for the period of half an hour, which she used much to the amusement and edification of her subjects, calling forth the most intellectual and mirth-pro-voking of the assemblage to furnish songs, toasts, speeches, music, re-citations, &c.
