gent father and a noble-minded, generous brother. Heber Parley Kimball was the fifth child and third son of Heber C. and Vilate Kimball, and was born in Kirtand, Ohio, on the first day of June, 1825-the anniversary of his own mother's and also of President Brigham Young's birth. He was but twelve years of age when he arrived in Utah so it may be said literally that he grew up with the country. In the hardships which the Saints passed through in and signed by all who were present at early days in this country, Heber P. Kimball was always oh hand to bear the meeting, and is to be circulated for his full share; and in relieving the suffering immigrants who were overtaken Chills and Fevers, etc. Strengthens by snow storms while tourneying to organs on which it acts.
