EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, remarked lately, in reference to Woodhull, that there were two Victorias in the world, one at the top and the other at the bottom of her sex.

The attacks of the French radical journals upon the Empress Eugenie have led to investigation of her family records, and the legitimacy of her birth has been established beyond dispute.

At Alexandria, Va., petty thieves, men and women, are sentenced to receive so many lashes.

An officer gives them a portion of the number of lashes, then turns them loose with the injunction to return on such a date and receive the remainder of their whipping.

It is said that consequently that community is troubled with a less number of thieves of the petty class than any other community in the Union. There has not been one application for the balance of the whipping.

The New York Herald says,

"Another man has been found in London whose crime is that he had too much faith. His child had scarlet fever and he refused to call in a physician, but went down on his knees and asked the Lord to cure the boy. The Judge said the prayer was undoubtedly a good one, but that it ought to have been accompanied with chamomile tea. He then sentenced the criminal to three months' hard labor, declaring that it was not because he prayed, but because he did not practise."

A physician in Jacksonville,

Ga., stabbed an antagonist in a fight with knives, and then saved his life by dressing the wound.

The New York Methodist

comes to the defence of American women, in respect to the charges of their weakness and do-nothingness, and makes these remarks—"I have known cases where a woman has raised six children in ten years, and done all her own housework and sewing besides. Hercules would have thrown down his club in despair at such a task." Who denies all this?

THE ELECTION TO-MORROW.

The election for Delegate to Congress takes place to-morrow.

Every legal voter, man or woman should do his or her duty by going to the polling place and peaceably casting his or her vote.

Who are legal voters in Utah may be learned by perusing an article under that heading on this page of to-day's News.

Every voter should vote in his or her respective precinct, and in no other. The different precincts in the city are elsewhere stated in today's News.

Every voter, before going to vote, should read the "Address to Voters" by the People's Territorial Central Committee. It contains truths of vital importance to all the people of this Territory.

It is as much a privilege to vote as it is to pay taxes. It is as much a duty to vote as it is to pay taxes.

It is more so, because all voters are not required to pay taxes, the voting is that thereby they do all they can by neglect to secure administrators, who will corruptly administer, and waste the people's money in many ways, thus diverting it from the legitimate purposes for which it is paid into the treasury, and often involving the whole community in debt and disgrace.

No good citizen wishes the wicked to rule, for when the wicked rule the people mourn, and one way to prevent the wicked from ruling is by good citizens going to the polls and voting for good men.

The right to vote was obtained after years of tyranny, suffering, and blood, and consequently is a right which should not be lightly regarded, but highly prized, properly taken advantage of, and guarded by constant and unwearied vigilance and determination.

Therefore, let every good citizen, male or female, who is a legitimate voter, make it his or her special duty to be at the polls and deposit his or her vote to-morrow, early in the day, before whiskey gets rampageous.

Every voter should vote for the best candidate, and elect him by an overwhelming majority.

WHO ARE LEGAL VOTERS IN

UTAH?

MALE citizens of the United States, above the age of 21 years, who have been constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election, and who are tax-payers in the Territory.

Female citizens who are above the age of 21 years, and have resided in the Territory six months next preceding any general or special election. They are not required by law to be tax-payers.

Citizens in the United States navy, whose permanent domiciles for six months have been in the Territory, who have been constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election, and who are taxpayers in the Territory.

Thus all voters, male and female, must be citizens of the United States, over 21 years of age, and constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election.

All male voters must be taxpayers in the Territory.

The following persons are citizens, unless they have forfeited their citizenship for cause—

All persons born in the United States and not subject to any foreign power, Indians not taxed excluded.

Children, born out of the United States, whose fathers were or had been citizens at the time of the birth of the children, unless the fathers never resided in the United States, which women themselves might lawfully be naturalized.

All men and women who have been naturalized.

Widows and children of aliens who declared their intentions and died before they were actually naturalized, but such widows and children must take the oaths prescribed by law.

Children, living in the United States, whose parents have been naturalized, which children were under 21 years of age when their parents were naturalized.

The Centennial Exhibition Deserved for the Election.

New York, 6.—The Times Philadelphia special says the interest is so much turned to the election that

Fire Thousand Marshals for New York.

The Tribune says Tammany Hall is seriously alarmed at the action of the police. It was understood yesterday that a large number of police marshals had been sworn in as special officers in the interest of Tammany Hall, and that threats had been made that if the U. S.

marshals prevented any persons from voting, they would in turn be arrested. Commissioner Davenport, on being informed of this, reported the fact or rumor to the authorities at Washington, and asserted that, if necessary to secure an honest election, he was authorized to appoint 5,000 marshals, or as many more as were needed.

General Holiday To-Morrow.

To-morrow being election day is a legal holiday, and all the banks, exchanges, courts and United States offices will be closed.

The Election the Absorbing Topic.

WASHINGTON, 6.—In the Executive Department, to-day, only the merest routine of work is being attended to. The election to-morrow is the absorbing topic. There is a very noticeable lack of cen-sorial visitors, and the executive mansion, which was crowded every day through the summer and autumn, is, to-day, comparatively deserted.

WESTERN.

Fire and Loss of Life.

CORINNE, Utah, 6.—On Saturday night, at about 10 o'clock, a building occupied as a house of prostitution was destroyed by fire. After the fire the charred remains of the mistress of the house were found.

It is supposed that the fire was the result of carelessness and that the unfortunate woman was in a drunken stupor and unable to escape.

The Chances in Favor of Peace.

LONDON, 6.—The Times, in a leader says, "We think, with the majority of our countrymen, that the chances are in favor of peace, and of such a peace as may assure the well-being of the regions concerned, by removing every pretext for agitation."

Tchernayeff will Sejour in Russia—

The Servians Accused of Bayoneting the Russians.

A Belgrade dispatch to the Times says it is reported that Gen. Tchernayeff will sejour in Russia during the armistice. Russian officers express the belief that thousands of Russians have fallen in the valley of Moravia alone. They openly accuse the Servians of bayoneting the Russians, who attempted, revolver in hand, to use them to attack the Turks.

Russian Officers Robbed and Hacked to Pieces.

The Standard's Belgrade correspondent reports that some of the wounded Russian officers have been robbed and hacked to pieces by the men appointed to carry them to the rear.

Death of Cardinal Antonelli—Cardinal Patrizi Dying.

A dispatch from Rome announces the death of Cardinal Antonelli.

The same dispatch reports that

Cardinal Constantine Patrizi, vicar-general of the Pope, is dying.

Bullion Withdrawn.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day is £288,000.

The Line of Demarcation.

A Vienna dispatch to the Times says: Except Germany, which probably will not interfere, all the powers have appointed commission-down the slide, the ground being very hard it rolled with great velocity and but little noise. The deceased and a boy with him had got to within about thirty yards of the road, neither of them hearing anything, when the deceased was struck on the right side of the head and instantly killed; the boy only a few feet off knew nothing of it until he saw the body and stamp rolling together. The deceased was brought home that afternoon, and funeral services held on Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was born in England, in the year 1851, he bore an excellent character, and has been identified with the Pleasant Grove United Order for about two years; he leaves a wife and one child, with many friends and relatives to mourn his loss, some of the latter live in this city.

A HUNTER'S ENCOUNTER WITH

THE DEVIL.—Mr. Samuel Spaulding, of Springfield, Mo., while hunting in the vicinity of that town recently, encountered the devil face to face. This he persistently declares, and his testimony in corroboration of this is that there is a collateral fact: Whereas he was formerly a venerable Rip

Van Winkle, passing a great part of
