When Black's resolution was read Fernstrom secured the floor and made strong argument against its adoption. He cited the statutes in regard to the mayor's right to approve of the appointments and also the Sheets de lability against the city is created. "If you pass that resolution," he said, will override the statutes, the Legislature, the supreme court and the whole cheese. PREECE SAW THEM.

A vote was then taken on the resolution and the seven Republicans present voted in favor of it and the five Demucrats against it. Preece had absented himself from the room during the roll call and hence did not vote on the proposition. As it requires a majority of the council, or eight votes, to create a liability against the city, President Hewlett declared that the resolution Was lost.

HIT IT HARD.

When the Hartenstein ordinance was placed on its third reading, Black moved that the enacting clause be stricken out. His objection to the ordinance was that it gave the mayor power to make all the appointments in the various departments without coun-cli confirming them. It was pointed out to him by Tuddenham that section of the ordinance provided for the ap-pointmenis to be made by the mayor pointmenis to be of the council. That with the consent of the council. That did not change Black's opinion in resard to the ordinance, however, and he still objected to it on the ground that it was giving the mayor too much pow-

MACKNIGHT DEFENDS HIMSELF

Land and Water Commissioner Mac-Knight submitted a lengthy communication in reply to Fernstrom's charge last Monday night that his de made partment was extravagant. He sub mitted figures to show the work of the department and the improvement last year over previous years. Fernstrom suggested that the communication be referred to County Auditor Fisher, who was Mr. MacKnight's predecessor in of. fice, as he thought it was a personal attack upon the manner in which Mr. Fisher had conducted the office. It was finally decided to refer the matter to the committee on Jordan canal and irrigation.

MAYOR APPOINTS.

Mayor Morris submitted the following appointments which were turned down without comment by the council by a straight party vote of 8 to 5; C. M. Jackson, clerk of the board of health; Moses Evans, tankman City Creek canyon; Herman Harms, city chemist. NEW SIDEWALKS.

City Engineer Kelsey recommended that an 8-foot cement sidewalk be constructed from the corner of State and Fourth South streets to the north and west entrances to the city and county building at a cost of $550. The matter was referred to the committees on con. trol and streets.

NEW FIRE ORDINANCE. Hartenstein's new fire ordinance, pro viding for better fire protection for pat. rons of the theaters, was passed by the council after being amended as rec-ommended by the fire committee.

EXHIBITION BULL FIGHT.

A petition was received from J. R Nuckals asking permission for Senor Enrique Robles to give an exhibition bull fight. The petitioner stated that the senor will not use weapons in his encounter and will not inflict any wounds upon the animals. The petition was referred to the license committee LITTLE DOG DICK.

Christopher Little of 563 West First South street, put in a claim against the city for $250 for his water spaniel dog "Dick," which was taken from his premises through mistake by the atcher on Jan. 14, 1904, and killed be fore he had an opportunity of recover Mr. Little claims that the tax ing it. was paid on his dog and that when it was taken it was killed the next day and was not kept five days as required by the city ordinances. The matter was referred to the com mittee on claims.

STRAIGHT PARTY VOTE.

Upon motion of Black, the ordinance creating the office of janitor for city and county building was defeated by a straight party vote, for the reason that it did not provide for the coun cil to confirm the appointment of a janitor.

The mayor's veto of the Wolsten-holme Coal Co.'s bill of $162.55 for coal was overridden by a unanimous vote. The mayor vetoed the appropriation of the amount for the reason that he is a stockholder in said company and being a city official is disqualified from transacting such business with the city. The Utah Light & Power company notified the council that it accepted the conditions of the ordinance extending

SLEEP IS PRICELESS. But It Can Be Obtained By Simple

Methods.

Are you a hard worker? Are you overcome with fatigue at the end of each day's labor, and instead of retiring to bed with a feeling of satisfaction at the prospect of a night's repose, do you wait the hour of bedtime with dread and shrinking? Is it your unhappy lot to be awakened every night, just after you have dropped off to sleep, by an intense, un-controllable itching of the rectum? Do you then endeavor to relieve the sensation by scratching so desperately that the skin becomes raw and lacerated, and you finally sink into the sleep of exhaustion?

If so, you do not need to be told that you are afflicted with itching piles. You have probably tried every remedy you hear of, with but temporary re lief, if any, and have concluded there was nothing left for you but to drag out a miserable existence. As a drown ing man grasps at a straw, so should you eagerly devour the words of W. O. Milbury, 70 Pearl St., Reading, Mass. "I am pleased to state that I bought one fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Curat the drug store, and used about one half of it, and it not only cured me of itching piles, but also of constipation, a trouble of about fifteen years standing. I have tried almost everything without any lasting benefit, but I can honestly and truthfully state that Pyramid Pile Cure has entirely cured have had no return of that terrible itching, which used to keep me awake by the hour, night after night. If the old trouble should ever return I will know just what to do, but I guess it won't for it is now six or seven months since I first used this wonderful remedy." We youch for the authenticity of this testimonial, and as Mr. Milbury found relief and a cure, so you may also. Do not delay, but buy a box and try it tonight, and do not allow any deale to sell you "something just as good." You will do well to write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their little book on the causes and cure of the life of its franchise from 25 to 50 piles, which is sent free for the asking.

sis and has not been idle. For weeks and months thousands of troops have been drilling on the grounds near us All the tactics of war have been gone through: the building of embankments; the scaling of walls and fences; th loading and reloading of cannons; the mounting and unmounting of horses the loading of guns, the men lying it all sorts of positions; the attacking of and the retreating from the enemy; the building of bridges; the erecting of temporary forts; the caring for wounded and the dead, and many other maneuvers too numerous to mention. How many troops have been dis-patched to the field of action, I am unable to learn. Suffice it to say they amount to many thousands. They have been sent out in citizen's clothes and have landed at many different places. This "call to arms" has put the whol nation into a state of uproar and ex-Busfhess has virtually citement. stopped. Many who have served the "three years army service," and who have been called into service again, were settled in business, but have been compelled to "close up shop" in order to comply with the "emergency call." Notwithstanding the great disturbance that the declaration of war has caused among the business and manufactur-ing establishments, I am sure that the people are in favor of war. The spirit of patriotism is very strong. Without a single exception, every one with whom I have talked has expressed a desire to take up arms and has said desire to take up arms and has said it in such a way that one could not help seeing that he felt every word; for with clenched fist and set jaw, he would say: "I'll fight till I die!" True, if a peaceful settlement could have been arranged, the nation, as a whole, would have re folced; but as the worst has come to the worst, the cry is: "We shall win or die!" EFFECT ON THE MISSION.

Our loved ones and friends at home need have no anxiety regarding us. We are far from the scene of battle, and if the enemy's troops were to attempt to come here, the city is sufficiently fortified to prevent them from entering, Ordinarily there are 30,000 soldiers stationed here, and from now on the num-ber will be greatly increased. Of course it will be necessary for us to move cautiously; every foreigner will be suspected of being a Russian, and no doubt we shall be compelled to preach long and loud our nationality. Last Saturday we were given a foretaste of what it is likely to be, Elder Featherstone and wife, my wife and 1 and a native Saint were out walking. While we were crossing the rempelba-parade grounds -we were stopped by a policeman, who asked us our nationality. When we informed him that we were Americans, he seemed pleased. Americans are highly respected in this land. Since the ad-vent of Commodore Perry into this country, Americans have been greatly admired. The Japanese never fail to take off their hats to "Old Glory," and honor those who come from the "Land of the Free." We are in no imminent danger so long as we can establish our identity. The only way that the war will affect us, will be in our work. The absence from home of father, husband or brother, or near relative, engaged in the bloody throes of battle, will close many doors against us. At this early day a temporary check has been put on our work, which was made manifest last Sunday evening. We have been holding meetings regularly every Sunday at 6 p. m., at mission headquarters, and have had an average attendance of 25, but last Sunday we were unable to hold a meeting for lack of an au-dience. However, I feel that in a short time, after the first excitement dies down, we shall be able to pursue our labors as in the pas

All over the country manifestations of patriotic enthusiasm continue at the departure of soldiers.

Moscow, of course, is the grand center of all such sentiment. It would not be Moscow otherwise. In Moscow also, in keeping with traditions that it is the Holy City, there have been great re-ligious demonstrations, when the favorite churches are filled with people, also surround them and pray outside In front of the Iberian Chapel, for instance, there have been crowds of a thousand people or more on their knees in the snow, crossing themselves, pray ing for long periods and listening to the echoes of the sacred music of the reli gious service wafted through the open They were praying for the sucdoor. cess of the Russian arms.

Perhaps one of the most striking feat. ures of today in summing up the condition of mind of the Russian people is the frequency with which one hears the chances of Russia being beaten discussed.

Another is the opinion prevailing almost universally in the minds of those intelligent enough to think that whether the Russians or the Japanese win, intervention and international arrangements are sure to occur. The idea of international complica-
