CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILWAY

By reason of its central position and close relation to all principal lines East and West, at initial and terminal points, constitutes the most important mid-continental link in that system of through transportation which invites and facilitates travel and traffic between cities of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. It is also the favorite and best route to and from points East, Northeast and Southeast, and corresponding points West, Northwest and Southwest.

The Rock Island system includes in its main line and branches, Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns, villages and stations.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees its patrons that sense of personal security afforded by a solid, thoroughly ballasted road-bed; smooth tracks of continuous steel rail; substantially built culverts and bridges; rolling stock as near perfection as human skill can make it; the safety appliances of patent buffers, platforms and air-brakes; and that exacting discipline which governs the practical operation of all its trains. Other specialties of this route are Transfers at all connecting points in Union Depots, and the unsurpassed comforts and luxuries of its Passenger Equipment.

The Fast Express Trains between Chicago and the Missouri River are composed of well ventilated, finely upholstered Day Coaches, Magnificent Pullman Palace Sleepers of the latest design, and sumptuous Dining Cars, in which elaborately cooked meals are leisurely eaten, "good Digestion waiting on Appetite, and Health on both." Between Chicago and Kansas City and Atchison, are also run the Celebrated Reclining Chair Cars.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct and favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul, where connections are made in Union Depots for all points in the Territories and British Provinces. Over this route, Fast Express Trains are run to the watering places, summer resorts, picturesque localities, and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. It is also the most desirable route to the rich wheat fields and pastoral lands of interior Dakota.

Still another DIRECT LINE, via Seneca and Kankakee, has been opened between Newport News, Richmond, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Lafayette and Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Minneapolis and St. Paul, and intermediate points.

Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate With a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. FOOTE of New York, the well known specialist, as abundantly proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an expose made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the well known author. Mr. JOHN F. TROW, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor FRANK FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAM WAKEMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surrogate of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of FOOTE or FOOTE, excepting Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr., and Dr. HUBERT T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. FOOTE, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. FOOTE, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. FOOTE professionally or to order remedies should address either

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr.,
120 Lexington Ave., New York.
Consultation Free, in person or by letter.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday - September 14, 1885

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were presided over by Elder Wm. Eddington, of the High Council. The meeting opened with the choir singing:

Sweetly may the blessed Spirit
On each faithful bosom shine.

Prayer was offered by Elder Henry P. Richards, after which the choir sang:

Ye children of our God,
Ye Saints of latter days.

The Bishopric of the Ninth Ward officiated in asking a blessing upon and dispensing the Sacrament.

Elder Seymour B. Young quoted the words of the Savior, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay His head," and remarked that his mind had been occupied a great deal of late with the subject of Temple building, a work which the Latter-day Saints, like their predecessors of old, are taught to pay special attention to.

We read in the 6th chapter of 1 Kings a description of a magnificent structure which the Lord commanded his servant Solomon to build. David had previously had it in his heart to build a temple, but he was forbidden of the Lord to do so, because he was a man of blood. Josephus, in describing the temple of Solomon, differs from the account contained in the Bible in making the dimensions much larger, but this disparity might be accounted for, as the dimensions given by Josephus related to the outer wall or temple, surrounding the one described in the scriptures. When Solomon completed that temple he dedicated it to the God of Israel—it was to that Being that his prayer was addressed.

That temple was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar, who carried off to Babylon the treasures it contained. It was subsequently rebuilt in the days of Cyrus, and this second temple was reconstructed by Herod. It was doubtless in this temple that the Savior when a boy twelve years of age, was found preaching to and confounding the learned doctors and lawyers, and from which almost twenty years later he scourged the money changers and people who bought and sold, charging them with having turned the house of prayer into the den of thieves. The Mosque of Omar now stands upon the site of Solomon's Temple, and Christians are not allowed to worship in it, proving that the words of the Savior have been fulfilled wherein he said, "Your house is left unto you desolate."

Since the final destruction of that temple numerous grand and magnificent places of worship have been erected, and they now exist in great abundance, some of them, such as St. Peter's, of Rome, and St. Paul's, of London, being very large and costly, but none of them have been dedicated as were the temple of Solomon, nor have such mighty manifestations of God's power been experienced in them. Instead of their being dedicated to the God of Israel, they are named in honor of St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Stephen, St. Matthew, etc.

In the year 1833 the Lord revealed to the Prophet Joseph Smith that he should build a house to His name. This was done, the building dedicated in the year 1836. During the dedicatory services great manifestations of divine power were witnessed, and God the Father and Jesus Christ His son, deigned to grace it with their presence and to acknowledge the acceptance of it. Oliver Cowdery, in making the dedicatory prayer quoted the Savior's words in regard to the foxes having holes, etc., and pointed out the fact that a dwelling place for the Lord had been provided.

In Nauvoo another temple was built, in accordance with a revelation, in which the Lord declared that his people are always commanded to build temples unto His holy name. Notwithstanding the persecutions endured by the Saints and the murder of the Prophet and Patriarch, the work on the building was continued almost without interruption. It was so far completed in 1845 as to admit of part of it being dedicated and sacred ordinances being performed in it, and other portions were dedicated in 1846.

The next temple erected to the name of the Lord was in St. George, completed in 1876, and dedicated and accepted of the Lord as a dwelling place for Him and His holy messengers.

Since then a temple has been completed in Logan and dedicated a year ago last May, the dedicatory prayer having been given by revelation to President John Taylor. The numerous Saints who assembled there upon that occasion had ample testimony that the house was accepted of the Lord.

A temple is also being built at Manti, and still another, more grand and costly than any of them, in this city, and the Saints rejoice in noticing their approaching completion. They expect to continue the work of temple building, too, as President Young predicted there should yet be one in every Stake of Zion.

The theme of temple building brings to mind the brethren who officiated in dedicating the Kirtland Temple. Sidney Rigdon, who delivered a sermon upon that occasion was greatly favored of the Almighty; so great was the power he possessed that he appeared to the people almost angelic. The people loved and reverenced him then, and continued to do so while he lived righteously and retained the spirit of the Lord; but after a time he transgressed and lost that spirit and the confidence and respect of the Saints at the same time. Others were prominently associated with the Prophet in presiding over the Church and organizing the various quorums of the Priesthood who likewise fell away, but many continued faithful and labored to establish Zion and carry the Gospel to the nations of the earth, and the fruits of their labors are now apparent.

The three witnesses to the Book of Mormon, who testified that they saw the plates from which that book was translated, that they were shown to them by an angel and that the voice of God had declared to them it was a correct translation, all apostatized. It looked as if there was a providence in it, as it prevented the world from charging that there was any collision between them and the Prophet. As it was, their apostasy only added force to their testimony since they never during their estrangement from the Church varied from that which they had declared. Two of them, Oliver Cowdery and Martin Harris, had returned to the fold before their death, but David Whitmer, the only survivor, is still out of the Church and still bears the same testimony. He lately told an Elder who called upon him that he had found great pleasure in laboring to spread the Gospel, but as for himself he found his yoke hard and his burden heavy. This would indicate that his mind is not at ease, and that though not at all at war with the people he is not devoid of faith in the work.

When the career of such men is scanned, it is easily seen that constant obedience and humility is the only course of safety for Latter-day Saints. There is no royal road to divine favor. Kings have no advantage over their humblest subjects in the eyes of the Almighty. Whatever may be a man's station in the Church or position in society if he departs from the course which the Lord has marked out, farewell to his prestige. To enjoy the Spirit of the Lord and the confidence of his brethren, whether a man be high or low he must keep himself pure and uncontaminated.

The Gospel, like the music of such great composers as Mozart and Handel, is the same in all countries or languages. It is not dependent upon words for expression. The Spirit carries conviction, and testimonies to the truth, in whatever language they may be borne, all have the same purport.

Apostle John W. Taylor, in illustration of the work done in temples referred to the saying of Peter in regard to the Savior having preached to the spirits in prison, and asked what good His preaching would do if the persons to whom he talked were to be forever barred from entering the kingdom of heaven because of not having been "born of the water and the Spirit," or baptized and received the Holy Ghost. Peter tells why they were preached to: "that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the Spirit." If they were willing to receive the Gospel they might be baptized by proxy, through having persons in the flesh officiate for them, and they be permitted according to live according to God in the Spirit. Paul intimated in writing to the Hebrews that the dead without us should not be made perfect, and now that the key of baptism for the dead had been given the truth of that saying becomes plain.

The Lord said through the Prophet Malachi "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord, and he shall turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."

Elijah the prophet has been sent and the keys of the doctrine of baptism for the dead have been restored and the hearts of the Saints have been turned toward their ancestors and they are anxious to do a work for their salvation. The hearts of those who have died without a knowledge of the Gospel or attending to those ordinances necessary to gain an entrance into the kingdom of heaven doubtless have their hearts also turned toward their posterity. Isaiah refers in the 21st and 22nd verses of the 24th chapter to kings and high ones being shut up in prison and after many days being visited. This refers also to the preachings of the spirits, and to the fact that those who have held kingly power will have to gain salvation, if at all, after they have paid the uttermost farthing, by yielding obedience to the Gospel and having a vicarious work done for them by persons who are living, that they may be "born of the water and of the spirit."

Malachi also prophesied, "Behold I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me; and the Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to His temple." Part of that prophecy has been fulfilled, but not the whole of it. The Saints are preparing for the fulfilment of the remainder; they are engaged in building temples, to which they expect the Lord to come. They also officiate in those temples for the salvation and redemption of the living as well as the dead, and therein are sacred contracts solemnized that are of binding force throughout time and eternity.

A large room in the temple is set apart, too, for educational purposes, in which the School of the Prophets will meet to acquire knowledge, agreeably with the revelation which requires them to seek knowledge from the best books and also by prayer. The Saints aspire to become intelligent, for they are taught that the glory of God is intelligence.

Two verses of the hymn:

Guide us, O thou great Jehovah,
Saints unto the promised land, were sung in a very effective manner by Mr. Schenck, an excellent vocalist from the east, who was present, after which the choir rendered an anthem, and the meeting was dismissed, with benediction by Patriarch John Smith.

PANGUITCH CONFERENCE.

A Quarterly Conference convened in Panguitch at the New Tabernacle, on August 28th, and continued throughout the following day. The Stake was represented by Prest. J. W. Crosby and counselors, Bishops and representatives from every ward in the Stake.

After the usual opening exercises, President J. W. Crosby, in a brief address, stated the object of our coming together and invoked the blessing of God upon all. The remaining time of the first day was occupied with the Bishops' reports, showing the Stake, spiritually, in an excellent condition.

The second day we were addressed by Counselors M. M. Steele and David Cameron, Elders W. P. Sargent, Joseph Houston, John Myers, Thomas Heaps, and others, all dwelling on subjects of interest to the Saints in this part.

Prest. M. M. Steele presented the general and local authorities to the Conference, all of whom were unanimously sustained.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered and the Stake statistical report was read, showing a large emigration from the spirit world.

Much good and wise instruction was given, which, if lived up to, will greatly improve this part of the Lord's vineyard.

Conference adjourned for three months, to meet in Panguitch, except otherwise ordered.

R. GARNER CLARK,
Clerk of Conference.

A QUESTION ABOUT
Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe. Most Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active (sometimes the effect is usually more rapid and marked). The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears to healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

THE DESERET HOSPITAL, UNDER the most favorable auspices, is now open for the reception of patients, having removed to that large and commodious building lately occupied by the Deseret University. The appointments are new and of the best order. The halls and rooms are thoroughly ventilated, and warmed by a furnace and steam heating apparatus extending through the whole building. Good and capable nurses are supplied, and every attention paid to the comfort and welfare of its inmates. The medical department comprises a fine stock of drugs, and a line of some of the most valuable and elegant surgical instruments and appliances ever imported into the Territory. Arrangements have been made to secure the first medical talent the city affords for the benefit of patients. A specialty is made of the diseases of women, and correspondence is solicited from the afflicted.

H. B. CLAWSON, President.
W. F. ANDERSON, Medical Supt.
M. P. HUGHES, House Surgeon.
E. R. WELLS, Secretary.

A limited number of students will be taken, who will board in the Institution, receive instruction preparatory for future studies, and will be expected in return to devote a certain portion of their time and labor to attendance on the sick and other requirements connected with the Hospital. Correspondence on this subject is solicited from Bishops and other authorities in the settlements. d&w
