

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, June 24, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—There will be a special meeting of the High Council, in the Council House, on Friday, June 25, 1880, at 1 p.m.

The regular meeting of the Council will occur at half past seven o'clock in the evening of the same day. WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Emigrants.—The emigrants are expected to reach this city at half past 6 o'clock this evening.

Black Rock Bathing Train.—The regular evening bathing train on the Utah Western to Black Rock, now leaves the depot at 5:05 p.m. and returns at 8:15 p.m.

Quite Ill.—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Sister M. M. Barrett, of the Twelfth Ward. She was unconscious all day yesterday, but to-day is somewhat better. We trust she will soon be in usual health.

The Extension at Frisco.—We learn from Bishop John Sharp that the Utah Southern extension reached Frisco at 4 p.m. yesterday. The work on this line has been prosecuted with energy and despatch, and the Superintendent and his assistants are deserving of much credit for their tireless diligence in pushing it forward.

Hazardous.—As the special train on the Utah Central rolled up to the station last evening, a man standing on one of the steps, got off the car with his back to the engine, and not making allowance for the motion of the train, was thrown rather violently to the platform. A gentleman bystander lifted him up quickly, or he might have rolled under the wheels. He was not hurt seriously.

Bandmann.—Bandmann, the tragedian, is at present in Oregon, doing a splendid business. He writes to the theatrical management in this city, that the time of his appearance here cannot be positively given just now, but that he will telegraph in about a week, naming the time of his arrival. Meanwhile, the choruses to the tragedy of "Macbeth" are being diligently rehearsed by Zion's Musical Society, under the direction of Professor C. J. Thomas.

An Eastern Editor.—Among the arrivals from the West, yesterday morning, was C. S. Noyes, Esq., and son, of Washington, D. C., who are returning from a visit to the Coast. The former is the editor of the Washington Evening Star, one of the best papers published at the national capital. The two are stopping at the Continental and will resume their journey homeward on Monday morning. We wish them a pleasant visit while they tarry in our midst.

Benefit Performance.—A number of young ladies and gentlemen of this city, popularly known in musical and dramatic circles, are preparing an attractive entertainment, which will probably be given in about a week, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the assistance of Miss Mattie H. Paul, the young lady now taking a course of study at Ann Arbor Medical College, Michigan. The movement is commendable, and the benefactors worthy in every respect and the performance will be worth seeing.

The "Peerless Waltz."—This is the pleasing title to a new piece of music composed by Prof. John M. Chamberlain, of this city, who is also the author of various other productions of merit, among which are the "Marvin Waltz," "Silver Maple Waltz," and "Marvin's Grand March." The "Peerless" is one of the most beautiful of his compositions and is bound to become popular with lovers of music. It was printed in this city and is for sale at our home music stores. Mr. Chamberlain has fine talent in this direction, and we hope he will continue to cultivate it.

Home Again.—Hon. George Q. Cannon arrived home, as expected, last evening by special train. A large party, consisting of President John Taylor, several of the Apostles, and a goodly number of relatives and friends, went to Ogden yesterday afternoon, arriving just as the U. P. train was entering the station. A cordial reception followed, after which the entire company entered two special cars and set out for Salt Lake. The trip to the city was made in an hour and five minutes. Brother Cannon was accompanied by his wife and daughter, and Elder R. F. Cummings, Jr. The last has been on a mission east for over two years, the past five months of which he has spent in Washington. We welcome our honored Delegate and his companions back to their homes in Utah, and are pleased to see him looking so well, and Mrs. Cannon so much recovered from her late severe illness.

Deseret Museum.—The curator respectfully acknowledges the receipt of photographs (stereoscopic slides) by the courtesy of the editor of the Woman's Exponent. These slides represent the entrance to the Zoological Gardens of Philadelphia, and views of the interior of the celebrated Zoo of Fairmount. A copy of the Temple dedication song, printed by J. W. Carpenter, St. George, has also been received from the author, Brother C. L. Walker. A curious manuscript on parchment has been donated by Sister Emily I. Rank of Farmington. The "Monthly Bulletin," by Professor A. E. Foote, the eminent naturalist of Philadelphia is received, with thanks of the curator. This little pamphlet might be subscribed for by our youth, it is published monthly at the price of seventy-five cents a year, it always contains articles of an interesting and instructive character, and can be obtained from A. E. Foote, 1229 Belmont Avenue, Philadelphia.

Poisoned with Lye.—A serious case of lye poisoning occurred yesterday afternoon, at the farm of Father Free, a few miles south of the city. A family gathering was being held, and among other relatives assembled at the homestead, was Mrs. Elvira Kimball, wife of Mr. Chas. S. Kimball, of this city. Mrs. Free had been making soap previously, and a box containing lye was standing out in the lot, some distance from the house. Two children, one of whom was a little son of Mrs. Kimball, aged about 18 months, went out to play in the garden, and the latter taking up the can, drank some of the lye it contained. The other child, a boy somewhat older, seeing his companion show alarming symptoms, rushed to inform the mother and the others of what had taken place. Horrified, they hastened to the spot, where the unfortunate little one lay writhing in agony, black in the face and evincing the most terrible symptoms of distress. Everything was done to give relief. Oil and lard was poured down the throat of the sufferer and appeared to do considerable good, by causing it to vomit the poisonous stuff from its stomach. On the way home Dr. Thompson was encountered, but he gave no encouragement of the child's recovery. To-day it is somewhat better, and hopes are entertained that the result will not be fatal.

Enquirer Notes.—The enterprising citizens of Springville intend erecting a new and handsome city hall on the public square opposite the meeting house. Work will soon begin.

The Fourth will be quietly celebrated in Provo. All places of business will of course be closed and everybody, with his wife and children, will take an "out" to the cañons, mountains, parks and gardens in the vicinity of our beautiful city.

Two little sons of Ben Bachman, Esq., were thrown from a wagon, on Saturday, in the Second Ward, and badly hurt, one boy having his arm broken, just above the wrist, and the other severely bruised about the head. Both boys are at present doing well.

Hon. J. A. Allred, probate judge of Sanpete County, has been very low with sore throat and lung disease; he is slowly mending, after being confined to his bed for eight days. His two children have just recovered from diphtheria.

About 9 a.m., on the 18th inst., Mr. Jonas Brough, owner of a saw mill at the southeast corner of Spring City, built a fire to heat a bolt to make it burn its way through and enlarge a hole in a plank, and afterwards covered up the fire with dirt. After running his mill to noon, his daughter called him to dinner, and he repaired to his home and ate dinner, after which he laid down and slept. Meanwhile the wind commenced to blow and uncovered the fire, and when he awoke his mill was entirely burnt down, as also his corral and sheds.

Pleasant Call.—We were called upon this morning by Elder B. F. Cummings, Jr., of this city, who, as stated elsewhere, returned last night from a mission to the eastern States. For the past five months he has been at Washington, acting as private secretary to Hon. George Q. Cannon. During his absence he has labored energetically in disseminating the principles of the gospel, and has performed a good and valuable work in searching genealogical records in the principal literary centres of New England, with a view to furnishing many of our people with authentic information concerning their dead. Elder Cummings returns in good health, improved in appearance and benefited generally by his two years experience. He says his mission has been a very pleasant one, but he is also pleased to be again in the midst of his friends in Utah. We are glad to have him among us once more.

Sunday School Excursion.—The Ninth Ward Sunday School passed a very pleasant day at Calder's Farm yesterday. Bishop S. A. Woolley and the Superintendent, John Taylor, his assistants John E. Evans, Thomas Gerrard and other teachers were present, and a large company of children participated in the various amusements to be found there, and returned about dusk almost surfeited with fun and enjoyment.

The Bishop's Birthday.—Our worthy and venerable brother, Presiding Bishop Edward Hunter, attained his 57th year on Tuesday the 23d inst. He is a veteran in the cause of truth, and is still active in the discharge of the important duties of his office. We wish him a renewed lease of life, and the full measure of that joy and prosperity, of which the tried and true are so deserving.

From the South.—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gates, Jr. arrived Tuesday evening from St. George. The lady was formerly Miss Susan Young, and is well known in this city. The gentleman is the son of Elder Jacob Gates, of St. George. They are visiting friends in this region. We welcome them to Salt Lake, and trust their stay will be pleasant one.

Y. M. M. I. A.—The next quarterly meeting of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of this State will be held in conjunction with the other societies which have been called by the Presidency of the State, to convene in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall on the evening of Saturday, July 3d. As large an attendance as possible of the officers and members of the various associations is desired.

"Richard's Himself Again."—Congratulations are due to our worthy friend and fellow workman, Richard Matthews, whose estimable wife presented him last evening with a fine son. All doing well; especially the father, who is beaming with joy and satisfaction.

At Calder's.—The Scandinavians of this city are having a pleasant time at Calder's Farm to-day. One company started at seven o'clock this morning, another at half past nine, and the last at three this afternoon.

Rare scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and all difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

This is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a fan, or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchitis Affections, it is unequalled. Its cure is truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle 25 cents. For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City. d w live
