

CHAPMAN PLANS TO OPEN THE GAME

Says He Has Things Fixed Up For a Bout in This City.

THE FANS HOPE IT IS TRUE.

George Memic, Alias Jimmy Burns, and Pete Sullivan Matched for Bout—Nelson Challenges.

Now that the fight fans have about finished the discussion following the victory of Battling Nelson over Jack Clifford at Ogden on Monday night, they are turning their attention to the prospect of a match in this city. The lid has been nailed down tight for a long time but according to reports there is a chance that it will be lifted in the near future. Johnnie Chapman is the man who claims to have solved the problem and he promises something good in the pugilistic menu to be served within a few weeks. He announced last night that he had arranged for a match between George Memic, alias Jimmy Burns, and Pete Sullivan for February 1 at the Salt Palace. If the match is clinched it will certainly be worth going some distance to witness. Battling Nelson left last night for Los Angeles where he goes to complete arrangements for a bout there with Saylor or Holm. Before leaving the famous pugilist stated that he would return to Salt Lake and meet the winner of the Memic-Sullivan bout. Nelson was pleased with the result of the Ogden fight and leaves the state more than $1,000 richer. He said the receipts were $1,300, but manager Gordon stated that the receipts were slightly below $1,000. Nelson says he proposes to meet all comers as long as he can get a confident that public opinion will force him into a second meeting.

TOUGH ON FANS.

Lefty Davis Silenced Them by Threatening to Come Back.

"Money isn't everything in this world," mused Bill Donovan, the Detroit pitcher, the other day. "I wouldn't want to play on a team where I wasn't liked no matter what my salary was. I think a pretty lot as Lefty Davis did when he told Clark Griffith to take his contract and go to blazes with it." There is a funny story of how Davis left the majors. He was all in and he wasn't afraid to admit it. He had a three-year contract and they had to pay him. But every time the fans saw him on the field they booed and jeered at him. They got sick and tired of the daily routine. So he quit. He had announced this decision to leave the team and the fans were wildly joyous. When he came on the field they presented him with a big leather medal with a tin can attached. Davis went over to the bleacher fence, put his hands in his mouth and quivered. "Shut up, you blinks, blink blinks," he said, "or I'll come back next year." The fans took it as an awful threat and they did not roar him again.

OLD FITZ AGAIN.

Intimates He Would Like to Fight—No Chance for Jeff.

Old Bob Fitzsimmons was thought to have had enough of the prize ring when Jack Johnson fought him to such a bad beating in Philadelphia. Sporting men generally were of the opinion that his career as a fighter was rounded out with that infamous encounter, but to hear Fitzsimmons say it, there still is the ambition in him to pull on the gloves again. He has been quoted as saying that he wants to go on with Johnson once more, and falling to land the negro, ready to meet any heavy-weight in the world. Without entering into a discussion on the sincerity of the former champion, the sporting world would like to hear an expression of the same sort from Jim Jeffries.

Jeffries' name has been bruited about recently by promoters and others who may have no other object than to bring their own interests. And yet they may really mean to try to bring the big affair to a close. Following the handsome retirement of Fitzsimmons by Jack Johnson, the wires began to hum that Jim Coffey would take off the limit and offer a kind of a money to an inducement for Jeffries to fight Johnson. But so far as is known, Jeffries still is in his room and he has been taking exercise indicates nothing. Thousands of men, young and old, are exercising daily, for various reasons. In the case of Jeffries it probably is a bad move to suggest that he is going to fight, therefore, really forecasts nothing. Jeffries is one chance in a thousand of Jeffries returning to the ring. He has no chance for the present-day class of white men, he is called, and as for Johnson, he loathes the negro in addition to being strenuously opposed to fighting a black man.

SAMMY MCCLINTIC AFTER FIGHT WITH NELSON.

Sammy McClintic, manager for "Fighter" Dick Hyland, feels that it is too bad that he did not reach Salt Lake from Denver before Battling Nelson left this city for Los Angeles. Sammy came over here last night to see a match with the Battler. He said this morning, "I want to force Nelson into a fight with Hyland. I am not saying that Hyland will beat him in so many rounds and all that but to show the public what we want I will say this: Hyland will fight Nelson at any time. Nelson can name his own terms as to the division of the purse and the weight. Hyland will meet him at any weight Nelson names. No one can say that we are looking for easy money now." This match would certainly prove a good one. Every effort will be made to bring the pair together.

WHITNEY IS OWNER OF ENORMOUS YEARLING

According to a New York dispatch in Harry Fane Whitney's stable the biggest yearling in America. This youngster is now sixteen hands high, a good size for a well-developed thoroughbred. He is still growing and before he starts next spring he will probably have increased in his height at least half a hand. He is entered in all the valuable stakes of the season. This youngster is by Hamburg-Endurance-by-Right, and is a half brother to the great filly Stamina that won nearly $30,000 last year and was the queen among the two-year-olds of her sex. If size is any indication of greatness, this youngster out of Endurance-by-Right is a race horse does not always spell greatness. There have been many big horses, giants in size and substance that have never been more than third rate horses. King Hanover, King Thomas, Corsair and Santa Claus were big horses, now, was fourth rate. Corsair, however, was a good weight carrier and frequently won races of the welterweight kind at the Brighton Beach track many years ago. Corsair was owned during the early years by James Gordon Bennett. He was so big and cumbersome that for nearly two years he never started in a race. J. W. Little, his trainer, used to send him to the post for fear of breaking him down. He always had the horse in the look of a condemned man, so that when his owner came down and inspected him he was a picture of equine beauty. As Bennett was liberal and paid the trainer $4 a day for the keep of the horse, Little did not care whether the horse ever started. Eventually Bennett became tired of owning a race horse that never raced and ordered Corsair to be sold. At public auction G. B. Bryson bought him for less than $1,000, and under his management he won three or four welterweight races before he broke down.

DEFENSE IN THAW CASE HAS BEGUN.

New York, Jan. 14.—The defense began the presentation of its case at the trial of Harry K. Thaw today. Physicians who had attended the insane members of the defendant's family were called upon but invoking the rule of confidential relations between doctor and patient, Dist. Atty. Jerome succeeded in blocking some of the intended testimony. One witness was a former teacher of Thaw at Wooster university, who declared the boy's conduct so long ago as 1886 was irrational.

John T. Deemar, Thaw family physician, was the first witness called to the stand today. Dr. Deemar testified he treated Harry K. Thaw for St. Vitus dance and measles. He repeated this testimony and told also of attending members of the Copley family, the mother's branch of the defendant's antecedents. Dr. Deemar said a brother of the old Mrs. Thaw became an imbecile.

Dr. C. G. Wagner of Birmingham, N. Y., and Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, two alienists for the defense, were present. Dr. Deemar was asked to state the present mental condition and where-about of John Ross, a paternal cousin of the defendant, but Dist. Atty. Jerome objected on the grounds that the doctor obtained his information while acting in a professional capacity and it would require a waiver from his client before he could testify. Justice Dowling sustained the objection over the protest of Mr. Littleton. On cross-examination Dist. Atty. Jerome drew out the fact that Henry Copley, while incapacitated for mental work was never confined in an asylum.

TWO SKATERS DROWNED.

Thirty People Precipitated Into Lake In the Bois de Boulogne.

Paris, Jan. 14.—Great excitement was caused this afternoon by the breaking of the ice on the lake in the Bois de Boulogne, some 30 young people being precipitated into the water. It was feared at first that many of them were drowned, but after a detachment of firemen had dragged the lake by aid of searchlights, it was found that only two had been drowned, both bodies being recovered.

MAIL WAGON HELD UP, DRIVER BADLY BEATEN.

Marysville, Cal., Jan. 14.—The United States mail wagon carrying the mail between the Marysville postoffice and the Southern Pacific depot was held up this morning at 3:30 o'clock, the driver, R. W. Harwood, beaten until insensible and the registered mail stolen, the sacks being cut. Over $500 in money was taken.

Harwood drove out D street, the main thoroughfare of the city, and when at the corner of Sixth street, opposite the county courthouse, a man stopped him and asked for a ride. Harwood thought he wanted to ride to the depot and let him get on the wagon. After going half a block the man said "Let me look into your eyes." Harwood looked in his face and was confronted with a revolver. At the same time another man sprang from the reins, held the horse up an alley back of the courthouse, stopped directly in the rear of the city marshal's house, pulled Harwood from the seat and beat him over the head with a revolver. When he gained consciousness, half an hour later, the sacks of mail were strewn about and the registered packages all gone. He staggered to the police office with his head badly hurt and bleeding freely. The police force has found no clue to the robbers. Postoffice detectives are going to make an investigation.

CAUSE OF PANIC.

Member of Reichstag Suggests It Was President's "Threat Against Trusts."

Berlin, Jan. 14.—In the course of an interpellation in the reichstag today in reference to the high rate of discount charged by the Imperial bank, Count von Kautzke, Conservative, suggested that President Roosevelt's "threats against the trusts" were responsible for the critical financial situation existing today throughout the entire world.

These threats, the count said, constituted the real cause of the present financial condition. He added that the opponents of the trusts must recognize that interference with the financial activity of the United States, which is based on the operations of the trusts, means interference with the entire economic situation in America. "America's error has been that she allowed the trusts to go so long without interference," said the speaker. Count von Kautzke voiced what he called "the frenzied fancies" of America of the past few months, and drew attention to the recent fight for gold in Europe. He said that in the month of November alone 158,000,000 marks (about $39,400,000) had left Germany for the United States. Continuing, he declared that the assistance given by the American treasury department had very little effect in improving conditions.

CORPORATION CONTRIBUTIONS

Amount of Fine to be Imposed on Officers Debated in House.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The amount of the fine and the length of the term of imprisonment to be meted out to officers and directors of corporations for violating the law with respect to money contributions for political purposes furnished material for lengthy debates in the house today, in connection with the consideration of the penal code bill. All amendments to increase the penalty or enlarge the scope of the law, however, were voted down. These amendments, without exception, emanated from the Democratic side, but the one that brought forth the most discussion was by Mr. Cockran of New York, who wanted the fine fixed at $10,000, instead of not more than $1,000, and the imprisonment at 10 years instead of not more than one year.

Mr. Payne of New York, the Republican floor leader, charged that the Democrats and their Republican allies were preventing the passage of the bill by indulging in political buncombe. His colleague, Mr. Fitzgerald, refuted the charge, and said that the Democrats were only seeking to improve on the bill.

Earlier in the day there was a sharp debate over the section prohibiting the enticing of artificers and workmen from government arsenals or armories by private employers, all attempts to amend the provision so as to make it applicable only in time of war or public emergency, were voted down. When adjournment was taken at 5 o'clock, 86 sections of the 2442 had been disposed of.

HAVEN OF REFUGE.

In answer to the renascent proposal to give up the Philippines, it seems necessary to say that with more than 100,000 immigrants a year, mostly from southern European countries, will soon need a place to which to retire, where they can hear their language and have the protection of the law. Written laws, however, may be observed, are depriving of our national refuge, the tree-tops—Cosmopolitan.

"I am glad to be able to say that we can now definitely announce that by or before Feb. 1, 1909, we shall have turned over the island to the president and congress to be elected next December by the people of Cuba. Our word to turn the island over to its own people will be scrupulously regarded."

The following letter was made public today: "The White House, Washington, D. C., Jan. 13, 1908.—My Dear Mr. Secretary: I approve the report of Gov. Magoon and your letter thereon, and they will be transmitted to Congress, together with a copy of this letter. I direct that the installation of the president and congress of Cuba to be elected next December and the turning over of the island to them, take place not later than Feb. 1, 1909. If it can be turned over earlier, I shall be glad, but under no circumstances and for no reason will the date be later than Feb. 1, 1909. Sincerely yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
