Today Clerk Moreton issued checks to the teachers in the public schools of this city for the first two weeks of their work this year. The board decided to encourage them by doing this and not compel them to wait for a month. However, the principals will receive a full month's pay although they have only taught two weeks. But this is due to the fact that the principals are paid for 10 months' work, while the teachers are paid for the number of weeks.

The restraining order in the injunction suit filed in the Federal court by clients of David Evans against State Auditor Tingey, to enjoin him from paying the increased salaries of the supreme and district judges of the state, has failed to materialize, so the auditor is handing out warrants for the increased salaries for the past quarter as fast as they are called for by the judges. Users of nut coal will regret to learn that his article has advanced 25 cents per ton during the week, making the price $5 instead of $4.75 as heretofore. The new order of things having gone in-to effect yesterday. It is understood that the advance is due to a shortage in the supply and not to any attempt on the part of dealers to increase their pro-fits. In fact, the additional price was tacked on at the mines so that coal merchants had nothing else to do but fall into line and advance their figures accordingly.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission for Utah will hold a special session on Monday to complete the work which was before the commission work which was before the commission yesterday. Cause of Lockjaw. Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacilius or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the at, is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent polsan known. These the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

HAS CHANGED HIS MIND.

Health Commissioner Decides to Give Newspapers All the News,

City Health Commissioner Stewart has changed his mind about keeping the reports of contagious and infectious diseases, filed with the board of health, from the public press, and has withdrawn his order of yesterday wherein he instructed the clerk of the board to keep the reports under lock and key. After considering the fact that such reports are public records and should be open to inspection by the general public. Health Commission-er Stewart decided to withdraw the order given to the clerk.

Isnac Russel, editor of the Chaparra at Stanford university, made some unkind cerning the junior class in has a high opinion of Sir Thomas as a late issue of the college journal, and for his "impertinence" was given a dose of his own medicine. Russell called the youngsters "a bunch of perpetual freshmen who had never been weeded out since they entered college," and prescribed as a remedy for their condition that "every one of them ought to be put in the bath tub."

in the bath tub."

Needless to say the juniors were aroused to a high pitch and they one and all resolved to take advantage of the first opportunity afforded to give the elitor what they thought he deserved. The chance came Wednesday night when Russell, who is a Salt Lake boy, entered Encina hall. The juniors were there in waiting, and in less time than it takes to tell it. Russell was ushered into a bath room, where he was immersed several times and pulled out drenched to the skin. While the editor was none the worse for his soaking the juniors felt that they had given him nothing more than he deserved. The next issue of the Chapparrai is awaited with interest.

> There is not much new to be said of the presentation. Its sextette is still its dominating feature, and the applicate and encores last night over the charming rendition were as numerous as ever. The cast contained some novelties, notably the introduction of Isadore Rush, often seen on our boards with her late husband, Roland Reed. She her late husband, Roland Reed. She dressed with her usual magnificence, and presented a pleasing picture to the eye. She is a rare comedinne, but as much cannot be said for her singing. Mr. Graham is as happy as ever in the part of Gilfain. Mr. Philips is an indifferent an actor, but his rendition of "In the Shadow of the Palms" atoned for his shortcomings. Mr. Ryley filled the part of Tweedlepunch acceptably, but it is not his fault if that sort of but it is not his fault if that sort of comedy work seems worn to a frazzle. Miss Merritt was a pretty Angela, bus in her case also, nature drew the line when it came to vocalism. Miss Risley while hardly an ideal Dolores in appearance, scored success with her one song. The chorus and orchestra were admirable features and alone worth the price of admission.

"Florodora" runs for the remainder of the week.

At the Grand last night, in spite o the counter attraction and the threaten ing weather, a fairly good house assembled to see the new comedy. "Where is Cobb?" It is a hilarious piece of nonsense, boasting of no great plot, and nonsense, boasting of no great plot, and there is only one aim announced, that of making the audience laugh. In this it certainly succeeded last night. Miss Marion George, as the leading woman, showed that she can act as well as play the violin. The snake dancer, Miss Katherine George, did some wonderful contortion work, while Robert Lawrence also showed the possession of talent in his particular line.
